BUSINESS RULE ISSUE TODAY IN WISCONSIN VOTE

Kohler's Record vs. La Follette.

Prohibition issues today will play a large part in the primaries in Massachusetts and New York. Dry members of the house from upstate New York face fights in several districts. One wet member from Massachusetts will be opposed by woman running as dry, and the senatorial race in the Republican primary is between an avowed wet and an avowed dry.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 15.—[Special]—A drive for the factory vote was the closing move today in the struggle between Gov. Walter J. Kohler and Philip L. La Follette over the Republican nomination for governor at tomorrow's primary, at which Wisconsin will register its reaction to a "business man's administration." Both camps concentrated on the industrial cities in a final effort to win the workingman.

Milwaukee county itself was regarded by both sides as the key to the primaries. Two years ago this county gave Mr. Kohler the nomination, giving him a plurality of 21,625 over Joseph Beck, the La Follette entry. Kohler's lead in the entire state was 21,062. Intense activities have been centered here this time, and it is regarded as the crucial spot.

Betting Odds Favor Kohler.

Betting odds were posted here tonight at 10 to 6 that Kohler would win, and some money was taken after odds of 10 to 8 were refused. Offers of even money that Kohler would not win by more than 25,000 were not taken.

Tomorrow's battle is another of the string of bitter struggles between regular Republicans and La Follettes, which have made Wisconsin famous politically. Back of the governorship lurks the 1932 senatorship fight. If Kohler is reëlected the supposition for a long time has been he will be a contender against Senator John J. Blaine two years hence.

The La Follette camp is seeking to recapture the governorship chair, which they lost four years ago.

Blaine Active on Stump.

Senator John J. Blaine has been active on the stump in an effort to put Phil La Follette over, which would head off Kohler as a Blaine rival in 1932. Senator Robert La Follette has been speaking for his brother, and the presence of the "big three," Bob, Blaine, and Phil, has made the La Follette campaigning the most intense in years.

As Wisconsin politics goes, the name of La Follette alone is figured by experts in both camps as worth maybe 10,000 votes, and one phase of tomorrow's race is how fast the family name will run.

"Dinner Pail" Issue.

The dinner pail issue was banged upon up to the closing hours. Gov. Kohler, who is running on his record, today was reported to be going strong with railroad men and labor generally, on account of his support of the full crew bill, the knocking out of "yellow dog" contracts by a measure making unenforceable agreements forced by employers from employés that they will not join a union and by authorizing labor unions to arrange for group insurance.

The governor's supporters have pointed out that during the business depression Kohler has kept his force of 4,000 men at work on full time and at full wages at Kohler, where a pile of bath tubs and other equipment is mounting. Phil La Follette, in whooping it up on the "empty dinner pail" question in the factory districts, has been jibing at "Hoover prosperity—just around the corner, the White House says," and has been hooking up Hoover and Kohler because the latter, after breaking the La Follette slate in 1928, voted for Hoover at Kansas City.

Kohler Does His Part.

The Kohler response has been "Gov. Kohler himself has kept 4,000 dinner pails filled during the depression. Mr. La Follette has kept only one dinner bucket filled, and that is his own."

Today, in one of his last speeches, Gov. Kohler pledged regular employment and wages for his employés regardless of whether he wins or loses tomorrow.

The pledge was delivered at a regular noon hour concert at the America club at Kohler, and at its close 1,400 workers almost rushed the governor off his feet trying to shake hands and wish him luck.

"This campaign closes as it began," said Phil, "a battle between two con-

C. A. A. SHOUTS 'NO' TO YACHT CLUB MERGER

Members Refuse to Hear Board's Plan.

Seven hundred members of the Chicago Athletic association last night shouted down their own board of directors and by popular acclaim adjourned a special meeting which had been called to discuss whether they should rehabilitate the present clubhouse at 12 South Michigan avenue, wreck it and construct a new one, or join forces with the Chicago Yacht club in the erection of a $3,000,000 building on the lake front.

The action of the members was taken as an expression of their disapproval of the latter course which had been advocated by 18 of the 19 members of the board.

The keynote of the meeting was struck when George J. Williams, the only director who had fought the proposed merger, was greeted with a tumult of applause as he entered the hall.

Demands Minutes Be Read.

As soon as the assembly was called to order, James J. Kelly leaped to his feet and demanded a reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting on the grounds that he believed a certain resolution had been omitted from them. This resolution, he said, would automatically rule out the discussion of a merger with any other organization.

Mr. Kelly's demand, in the form of a motion, was ruled out of order, and Judge Denis E. Sullivan was given the floor to tell what conclusions the board had reached. The board was known to favor the merger. Mr. Kelly kept demanding a reading of the minutes until he was shown the book and assured that the resolution was included in it.

Shout During Speech.

A hubbub then arose among the 700 men packed into the banquet hall, the natural capacity of which was 300. Calls of "What are we here for?" "Let's put it to a vote!" were heard, and meanwhile Judge Sullivan was attempting to make his speech. Presently his voice thundered above the clamor.

"If the members of this organization do not wish to listen to the opinions which their directors have formed after months of research, maybe we had better adjourn."

"Move we adjourn!" came a voice from the back of the hall.

A deafening roar of "aye!" echoed through the room and the men crowded toward the doors.

Thus did the members of one of Chicago's oldest clubs sweep aside a proposition which they believed would cut them off from the traditions which they have gathered in the thirty-seven years during which they have occupied their home on Michigan avenue.

Will Prepare Other Plans.

Charles B. Spaulding, president of the club, was asked what would be the next move of the directors.

"We will prepare other plans and in due time submit them to the members," he replied.

The entire organization is united on the opinion that something must be done to rehabilitate or replace the present clubhouse. It was built about the time of the Chicago World's Fair, but since enlarged.

One member of the board, who asked that his name be withheld, said:

"We proposed this merger, knowing it would be turned down. We did not want to have any one in the club come to us ten years from now and say we did not give the members a chance to discuss it."

George F. Getz, one of the trustees of the Chicago Yacht club, had said previously that that organization would go ahead with its $3,000,000 building regardless of what the C. A. A. decided to do.

Resolution Opposed Union.

The board of directors of the Chicago Athletic association is made up of William F. Bode, Avery Brundage, George W. Childs, Sheldon Clark, Frederick D. Corley, Charles R. Crane II., George C. Davis, William M. Dewey, Charles M. Eddy, Harry N. Grut, Thomas H. Heneage, Frank H. Johnson, George R. Meyercord, Robert E. Peacock, Charles B. Spaulding, Judge Denis Sullivan, James B. Wescott, George J. Williams and R. Arthur Wood.

The resolution to which Mr. Kelly had called attention closed with the words: ". . . We declare and proclaim now and forever, as one of the fundamental principles of this association, that we desire no union, association or confederation with any social organization, and the officers of this association are hereby requested and directed to entertain no proposition, from whatever source or under whatever auspices it be presented, looking toward union, association, or confederation with any social organization."

Milton Sills Falls Dead in Tennis Game

BY GEORGE SHAFFER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SANTA MONICA, Cal., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Milton Sills, star of the stage and screen, was stricken with heart disease while playing tennis at his Santa Monica home today and died.

Mrs. Sills (Doris Kenyon), with whom he was playing, called friends, who summoned a respirator, and an unavailing effort was made to revive the stricken man.

Sills' seizure was attributed in part to a physical collapse which he suffered in 1928. He then spent a year in the Adirondacks winning his way back to health. Following this illness Sills returned to Hollywood and rewon acclaim as a star of the talkies.

Born, Educated Here.

Sills was born in Chicago in 1882, was educated at Hyde Park High school and University of Chicago, and, after graduating, launched on a career as an educator, becoming a fellow in philosophy and an instructor at Chicago. His first stage appearances were as a member of the Dramatic club at Hyde Park.

It was in 1906 that he left educational work for the stage, making his debut in "Dora Thorne" and winning prominence within the next few years as a leading man and star for Clyde Fitch, Belasco, the Shuberts and Shakespearian producers in this country and London.

One Daughter in Films.

Sills married his first wife, Gladys Wynne of England, at London in 1910. One daughter, Dorothy, of this marriage, recently undertook her first successful film rôle in Hollywood.

Inside the motion picture ranks, Sills was known as an earnest worker for better working hours and better coöperation between producers and the actors and mechanics. He was a founder of the Motion Picture Academy of Arts and Science. Of scores of motion pictures in which Sills was featured, many are among the outstanding artistic and box office achievements.

Married Leading Woman.

After Mrs. Gladys Wynne Sills won a divorce in Los Angeles in 1925, on grounds of desertion, Sills made a settlement of several hundred thousand dollars. In October, 1926, he married Doris Kenyon, who had been his leading woman in numerous pictures, and a child, Kenyon Clarence Sills, was born in 1927.

Sills was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon and Campus Honor societies at the University of Chicago.

Besides the widow, Sills is survived by his mother, Mrs. William Sills, and a brother, Clarence Sills, both of Chicago.

BOMBS WRECK NEW WAUKEGAN FLAT BUILDING

Two bomb explosions early this morning wrecked a new two story apartment building at Glen Flora avenue and Ash street, Waukegan, and caused a loss estimated by the police at $25,000. The bombing was attributed to labor trouble by Detective Sergeant Thomas McMahon, who made an investigation.

The apartment building had just been completed by the Waldon Construction company of Waupun, Wis., at a cost of $45,000, and the two blasts practically demolished it. McMahon said he believed the explosions were caused by time bombs. The first occurred in the front rooms of the second floor and the second in the rear on the first floor.

POLE SITTING BOY IS KILLED BY LIVE WIRE

An attempt at pole-sitting brought death by electrocution last night to Stephen Walsh Jr., 15 years old, 4016 West Monroe street, when he touched power wires at the top of a pole which he had climbed at 4317 West Monroe street.

A companion, Frank Kemmeta, 15 years old, 4315 West Monroe street, told Fillmore police that Walsh had scarcely reached the top of the pole when he appeared to stiffen, then slid and fell to the bottom.

Walsh was taken to the office of Dr. J. Henry Kramer, 4401 West Madison street, where he was pronounced dead. He was the son of Patrolman Stephen Walsh of the West Chicago avenue station.

Policeman on Burglar Hunt Shot to Death

Answering a call that burglars were ransacking a building at 1134 West 111th street early today, Patrolman William E. McCann, 33 years old, of Morgan Park station, was shot to death by an unseen gunman in the building.

McCann, with his partner, Patrolman Adolph Avery, answered a telephone alarm in the police flivver. Avery approached the front door while McCann approached a side window. He had just reached the side of the building when he was met by a volley of five shots.

Police reserves surrounding the building arrested Leon Davis, 29, Negro resident, who is said to have admitted firing the shots but says he did not know McCann and Avery, who were in uniform, were policemen.

McCann was rushed to Roseland Community hospital by a fire truck which chanced to be answering an alarm near by. He was dead when he reached there. He lived at 7301 South Green street and was the father of four children.

5 Injured by Blast Near Mexican National Palace

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Five persons were seriously injured here tonight when what was believed to be a bomb exploded in the Plaza de la Constitucion, where thousands were celebrating the anniversary of Mexican independence. The bomb exploded about 10 p. m., shortly before the time President Ortiz Rubio intended to appear on the balcony of the national palace and repeat into the radio the "Grito de Dolores," Mexican independence cry. About fifty persons witnessed the blast.

Marine Band Concerts at Stadium Today

Concert Facts

Attraction — United States Marine band, in two concerts.
Admission—Free.
Place—Chicago Stadium, 1800 West Madison street.
Time—3 p. m. [children] and 8 p. m. Doors open 2 p. m. and 6 p. m.
Weather—Outlook fair.
Seats—22,000 available.

Coming to entertain Chicagoans in two free concerts made available by THE TRIBUNE, the United States Marine band will arrive at 9:50 o'clock this morning at the La Salle street station with its full strength of fifty pieces.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock and tonight at 8 o'clock this band known as "The President's Own," will play two programs in the Chicago Stadium, 1800 W. Madison street, as the second of a series of musical events sponsored by THE TRIBUNE, which began with the Chicagoland music festival. There is no admission charge and the public is invited to attend—children in the afternoon and adults in the evening.

Pupils to Be Guests.

The Stadium, the largest indoor athletic arena in the world, has a seating capacity of 22,000. For the afternoon entertainment these seats will be filled by those thousands of children in the public and parochial schools who are interested in music and who will be released from classes for the performance. Adults, accompanied by their children if they like, will be guests of THE TRIBUNE at the evening concert. Ample police detachments will insure order at the Stadium.

For those who are unable to reach the stadium in time to obtain seats, an amplification system was installed yesterday in Grant park near the Buckingham fountain. A high wooden platform was erected and on its top a cluster of large loud speakers were arranged in a circle.

These horns will be connected with microphones in the stadium and will send the music sweeping over the broad expanse of the park, enabling motorists to park their cars in nearby roadways and hear a faithful reproduction of the concerts.

Color Display at Fountain.

The Grant park site also offers the beauty of the Buckingham fountain, which will be turned on in full color display for the evening concert. Major displays are scheduled regularly only for Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays, but the south park commissioners decided that the concert warrants the spectacle.

The band will be placed in the boxing ring at the stadium where it will be plainly visible from every seat in the vast auditorium. Capt. Taylor Branson, the noted leader, who is the ninth man to conduct the organization in its 130 years of existence, will direct both concerts. He has arranged special music for the afternoon children's entertainment.

Plans Special Numbers.

The names of Bach, Strauss, Wagner, Tschaikowsky, and Victor Herbert fill the composers' column on the programs. The leader is generous with encores and plans to interject many marches, feature selections, and specialty numbers into the set schedule.

The United States Marine band has endured through every presidential administration since Jefferson. It has been employed at every major government function held in Washington. Each year it is allowed two months for an annual tour from coast to coast.

Yesterday, the band played to capacity audiences in La Porte, Ind., giving one concert to school children in the afternoon and another in the evening in the La Porte civic auditorium.

1930 Radio Sets Attain New Perfection

Uncle Sam isn't a lady's man though he makes a business of figures and forms. That is especially true in such years as these when the census is taken. Each 10th year since Washington lived in his own town, government men have gone among the inhabitants and asked each person who he was, where he was born and what he was up to.

These census fellows were downright inquisitive this time. They even wanted to know who had a radio. Many have. Many others believe they have but really haven't—that is, not by 1930 standards. The early horseless buggy isn't an automobile in the modern sense.

There are a lot of radios of 1928 and before that which only bring in half of the programs they are endeavoring to pick up.

Good as some of the early radios were thought to be, they missed much of what was broadcast. Improvements in the 1930 sets now catch the rest. Don't be satisfied with what you told the census taker. Have a 1930 set placed alongside your veteran and you will hear what the old one misses.

MRS. M'CORMICK RAPS SENATOR; EXPOSE IS DUE

Reveal Telegrams to Detectives.

Yesterday afternoon Senator Gerald Nye [Rep., N. D.], who is conducting the investigation into senatorial campaign expenses, adjourned a session of his committee in Chicago and then gave out to the newspapers the text of 47 telegrams to detectives of the W. C. Dannenberg agency. The Dannenberg agency is in the employ of Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, candidate for senator.

Last night Mrs. McCormick issued a statement in which she openly charged Senator Nye's committee employés with participation in wire tapping in extension of the activity in seeking evidence of her misuse of funds in her campaign for the Illinois Republican nomination.

Mrs. McCormick at Sessions.

During the day the Nye committee sat twice, but the sessions were brief. Mrs. McCormick attended both. She explained in her written statement that her presence with that of her attorney, Oscar E. Carlstrom, was to enable her to "explode a bomb" and that the hasty adjournment of the committee prevented this.

Mr. Carlstrom wanted to make a speech to the committee, but Chairman Nye would not permit it, after he had announced that the committee would do nothing for the day but examine the Western Union records.

Attorney Charles O. Rundell for Dannenberg protested against the committee action, but no attention was paid to him. An injunction had been threatened to keep the committee from getting the telegrams, but Chairman Nye forestalled this by issuing a new subpœna yesterday morning and holding a committee meeting at the Palmer house to receive the messages. These were immediately photostated by the department of justice.

Admits Hiring Detective.

Mrs. McCormick has admitted that she hired the Dannenberg agency and has asked Senator Nye what he is going to do about it. The sessions this week, which will be featured by the testimony of detectives and others, are expected to be lively with reverberations in Washington.

It is now expected that regular sessions will open this morning. Senator C. C. Dill of Washington and Senator Roscoe Patterson of Missouri are in Chicago. Senator Robert Wagner of New York is expected this morning. Senator Porter H. Dale of Vermont is still in the east.

Another development of yesterday was a search for two men, George E. Cole and Frank Ortlepp, for whom court writs were issued. Mrs. McCormick explains that these men are not in danger, but that they will be produced to provide a part of the explosion she promises.

Text of Statement.

Mrs. McCormick's statement is as follows:

"I am prepared immediately at the first opportunity given to me by Chairman Nye of the senate investigating committee to prove that the committee's employés have been guilty of the crime of wire tapping. I made this charge on Sept. 1, and I not only repeat it now but I will say that had I not been prevented at today's session of the committee I would have offered witnesses ready to produce complete proof that the employés in the service of the committee had hired others to tap wires and had themselves participated in the tapping.

"Chairman Nye has repeatedly denied that his employés had been guilty of any such practices. Senator Dale, at the last Chicago hearing of the committee, said that if the committee agents had been guilty of wire tapping it would be a reproach upon the entire personnel of the committee. I say that if Senator Nye has had knowledge of wire tapping by his employés he is unfit to be a senator and unfit to be the chairman of a senatorial committee.

Hearing Is Called Off.

"Let us look at the situation presented at 10 o'clock this morning, when, it had been publicly announced, a hearing of the commmittee would be held. I was there with Attorney General Oscar Carlstrom, my personal counsel, and others were there who had been active in gathering the evidence, but Chairman Nye, possibly to prevent my proving the wire tapping, called off the morning session and it was announced that a hearing would be held at 2 p. m.

"Once more at 2 p. m., the hearing was adjourned, and adjourned so hastily that my attorney, Mr. Carlstrom, was again prevented from producing the testimony which would have finally settled the question as to whether Chairman Nye's employés are wire tappers or not.

Warned of Impending Storm.

"I give it as my conclusion, after reviewing the events of today and this evening, that Senator Nye had been informed of the bombshell which was about to break and that he immediately took steps to forestall the sensational disclosures that were forthcoming by not only adjourning the hearing but starting a backfire which would distract the attention of the public from rumors that the wire tapping story was at last to be told.

"What steps did Chairman Nye take as a last desperate move to justify to the country his strange course throughout this investigation? Without any warrant of law and in violation of the rights of other citizens, he demanded and obtained from the Western Union Telegraph company copies of telegrams written to and by one of my agents, W. C. Dannenberg. I have nothing now to say about those telegrams except that they speak for themselves.

Examined in Secret.

"But I emphatically assert that those telegrams illegally obtained through senatorial pressure should have been brought before the senate committee in an open hearing at a place designated by the committee for a public hearing. The senate resolution requires that the hearings of this committee shall be public, but these telegrams were taken not to the federal building but to a room in the Palmer house, where they were examined in secret. Those telegrams which it pleased the chairman to retain and use he put aside and returned the others to the Western Union company. Even then he did not convey the telegrams which he had selected to an open hearing of the committee, where those most concerned in his investigation could examine them, as was their right and would be their right in any real judicial proceeding in the land.

Calls in the Reporters.

"What did he do next? He called in photographers and had photostatic copies of the messages made. What was his next step? Instead of placing these copies in his file to await proper use at an open hearing of the committee he called in the newspaper reporters. Transgressing the laws and contemptuously ignoring the explicit instructions which the United States senate gave to this committee, he followed a method which has become rather familiar in the last three months—that of playing for the newspaper headlines.

"Meanwhile a man-hunt had been going on in Chicago. A city wide search was being made for George E. Cole and Frank Ortlepp. Proceedings were brought in the Criminal court for writs of habeas corpus to produce Cole and Ortlepp.

"The court was asked to demand production of the two men by the police or by the state's attorney if the two men were in custody, but the men were not in custody. They were in safe company awaiting the time when they could safely go before the Nye committee and prove that the chairman's agents have been wiretapping, giving places and times of the misdemeanors committed.

Start Siege of Home.

"Not being able to find these two witnesses who threatened to break down Chairman Nye's pretense that his agents were guiltless of such outrages, those in search of Cole and Ortlepp brought the situation to a typical Chairman Nye climax by rushing federal officers to besiege the home of Cole. Pat Roche also was reported to have been there. He is the chief investigator for State's Attorney John A. Swanson. What did they want of these men? Was it desired perhaps to remove them also to a room in the Palmer house? Unless all the agencies thus put in motion to find these two men succeed, and they are introduced into a star chamber session somewhere and then dismissed just as David S. Groh, the Nye investigator, has been dropped from sight, I promise that they will be present at the hearing in the Federal building tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Will they be heard?

"The stories of the two men so mysteriously pursued should make interesting reading for those who want to know the real facts behind Chairman Nye's Chicago inquiries.

Recalls Nye's Charge.

"When Chairman Nye adjourned the latest hearing of the committee on Sept. 3 he called in the newspaper reporters, just as he called them in this afternoon, and in his official capacity as chairman of the committee he made the statement that I had sought to intimidate him; that I had sought to 'frame' him, as he expressed it, but that he would not call this inquiry off. I have no desire to even embarrass Senator Nye by trickery. I have not sought to intimidate him. If the facts which I have in my possession are intimidating he must be the judge of that. I have not sought to have this inquiry called off. It was Chairman Nye who, himself, called the inquiry off today at the moment he doubtless considered opportune.

"I anticipate tomorrow morning some fresh maneuver on the part of Senator Nye to prevent this evidence of wire tapping by his agents from appearing in the record. But I feel confident that Senator Dale, Senator Dill, Senator Wagner, and Senator Patterson will be fair enough to hear the whole story."

47 Telegrams in Record.

Senator Nye confined the earlier business of the day to the two adjourned sessions, one in the morning and one at 2 p. m.

Of the 50 messages delivered by the Western Union company, 47 were put into the record. These began on July 3, last, and run into the latter part of August. On July 21 W. C. Dannenberg was in Washington, D. C. The following message was sent to him from Earl Dannenberg in Chicago:

"Following from Albers: Subject due there 9:16, Burlington, this morning for committee meeting, then on to Washington."

C. C. Albers was the Dannenberg agent who had been sent to North Dakota to look into Senator Nye's record. Senator Nye is evidently the "subject."

Other Messages Revealed.

Another message from Earl Dannenberg to W. C. Dannenberg in Washington on July 31:

"Subject here [Chicago] this morning. Checked out hotel 1 o'clock. Apparently en route to Washington."

Other messages were:

Aug. 2—From M. F. Fletcher, American Detective agency, Washington, D. C., to W. C. Dannenberg, 111 West Monroe street, Chicago:

"Subject arrived late this p. m. Am covering house at all times. Please forward any instructions."

Aug. 4—To C. C. Albers, Bismarck, N. D., from W. C. Dannenberg:

"Keep me fully advised here. Important I should always know where to reach you by wire."

Want Picture of "Party."

Aug. 4—To Fletcher Watts Detective agency, Munsey building, Washington, D. C., from W. C. Dannenberg:

"Want both parties [probably Dale and Nye] covered thoroughly. If either one leaves town wire register and car number with description. Send me photo of first party."

On Aug. 5 there is a telegram from Dannenberg relating to a "third subject," thought to be either E. M. Daniel or W. C. Baldwin, committee investigators.

Aug. 5—To Dannenberg in Chicago from M. F. Hitchin, American Detective agency, Washington, D. C.:

"Both subjects still in town. Mailing reports and photo. Wire any information on third subject that you can."

Aug. 6.—To C. C. Albers, general delivery, Fargo, N. D., from Dannenberg in Chicago:

"Fire data very interesting. Get all you can on that subject. Leave nothing undone to get complete history, including early history in Wisconsin and Minnesota."

Senator Nye was born near Wittenberg, Wis., and lived there until he was 20 years old. He never lived in Minnesota. In 1919, while he was editor of a farmer owned paper in Cooperstown, N. D., a Nonpartisan league advocate, he had trouble with a banker in that town, who told the young editor he would give $50,000 to get him out of town. A short time later the newspaper office was broken into, books and records taken, and the whole place smeared with printers' ink, so that it took weeks to clean it. Nye was told that there were rumors around town that the missing records would be found in his own house. He immediately had the town marshal and the sheriff make a search there. The records were not found.

Nye Ready for Vacation.

On Aug. 6 the Washington agent wired Dannenberg that the subject [Nye] was getting ready to leave for Canada. Mr. Nye was about to take a vacation at Lake of the Woods.

The same day the Floyd Andrews agency in St. Paul dispatched a man to Fargo, and Dannenberg wired to have him get in touch with Albers.

Aug. 8—From American Detective Agency to Dannenberg:

"Are you sure you know where Bemis is? [Bemis is the committee auditor.] Double for him left this afternoon, subject still in town [Washington]."

Albers' reports from North Dakota were "very satisfactory," according to a message sent him Aug. 12.

Fred J. Boedeker, a Birmingham, Ala., detective, next appears in the picture. He offered to get information that one of the "subjects," supposed to be Baldwin, was formerly connected with the Ku Klux Klan. Dannenberg told him to go ahead.

Early History Sought.

Aug. 15—To Albers at Fargo from Dannenberg:

"Am anxious to know when subject leaves for home and destination. Do not think any further time should be wasted on general matters. Anxious for anything additional on robbery and early history."

Aug. 22—From Boedeker at Atlanta to Dannenberg:

"Have second affidavit that subject was connected with Klan. Can get two men who know subject to go to Chicago with me."

Aug. 22—C. L. Parent, Glacier Park, Mont., to Dannenberg:

Aug. 23—To F. J. Boedeker, Atlanta, from Dannenberg:

Aug. 23—To Dannenberg from Parent at Glacier Park:

"Dill here. Nye, Dale, Moses, Patterson, Wagner not registered. Wire instructions."

Told to Stay in Park.

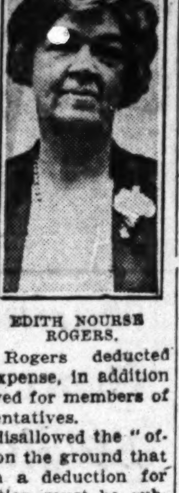
Aug. 23—To Parent, Glacier Park, from Dannenberg:

"Remain and continue to cover for other parties arrival. Be careful regarding names your telegrams from there. Reports as to what happened after meeting is over sufficiently."

Among the new witnesses subpoenaed for the hearing are Michael J. Welsh, Mrs. Claire Edwards, Naomi McAllister, Walter E. Schmidt, Clarence Avildsen, George and Mabel Reinecke, Miss Anna Forsythe, Mrs. George R. Dean, and R. F. Bashford. Bashford, who had ignored a previous subpoena, was picked up by department of justice men and held in bonds of $1,000 for his appearance at this hearing. This is in connection with the various spy reports.

REP. EDITH ROGERS IN AN INCOME TAX ROW WITH UNCLE SAM

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Edith Nourse Rogers [Rep., Mass.] is involved in a tilt with the federal tax authorities in an effort to avoid payment of alleged back income taxes.



EDITH NOURSE ROGERS.

The government is seeking to collect $1,153.51 from Mrs. Rogers as income taxes due for 1927. Mrs. Rogers' income for the year, according to federal tax records, was $40,758.48. From this amount, it is contended, Mrs. Rogers deducted $7,974.74 as office expense, in addition to the amount allowed for members of the house of representatives.

The government disallowed the "office expense" item on the ground that "in order to claim a deduction for expenses the deduction must be substantiated when required by the commissioner, by records showing in detail the amount and nature of the expenses incurred."

Mrs. Rogers has appealed to the United States board of tax appeals to set aside the ruling of the treasury.

TO AVOID HURTING EYES

Because the Eye is one of the most complex, delicate and easily injured mechanisms of the human body . . . eyeglasses must be made to very exacting, scientific standards—involving as in the Almer Coe Laboratories from 15 to 29 separate operations and no less than seven verifying tests for accuracy.

THE glasses you wear may help or impair eyesight. The expert grinding of lenses to the requirements of each individual eye—the making and adjusting of the complete eyeglasses—are seen to be vitally important professional services, when it is realized that any one of the following eyeglass defects may cause injury or eye strain.

Eyes Are Subject to Strain

—when lenses do not focus properly.
—when they are set too low, too high, too near together or too far apart.
—when lenses are not held evenly and squarely before the eyes—or bent at incorrect angle.
—when the lens centers do not coincide with the pupillary distance.

Unless your glasses, therefore, are scientifically made, and correctly adjusted, they may do more harm than good. To make and fit them in that manner is a work involving high technical skill. And the wearer of eyeglasses does well to give thought to this matter before he buys eyeglasses.

GEISKING HELD IN LOUISVILLE, POLICE BELIEVE

Kentucky Officials Find Finger Print Record.

BULLETIN.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 16.—[Special.]—Fingerprints of a man arrested here as a vagrant last Friday, and who gave his name as Emerald Harris of Chicago, tally with those of a man arrested here five years ago on a charge of transporting a truck load of liquor and who gave his name at that time as Theodore Geisking. A picture of Ted Geisking, sought in connection with the Lingle case, printed in an afternoon paper, was seen by the policeman who arrested Harris and the resemblance was noted. A search for fingerprints followed. A state policeman in Indianapolis who knows Geisking is on his way here to view Harris.

A search for Ted Geisking, Hoosier gangster and Lingle murder suspect, in lower Indiana, his home ground, and the announcement that James Fawcett, alias Forsythe, was no longer wanted in connection with the Lingle killing, were yesterday's developments in the case.

Chief Investigator Pat Roche announced that Forsythe had been held in the state's attorney's office since Friday morning and that he is "no longer wanted by us."

Geisking had been hunted in southeastern Kentucky, where three of his associates were seized Saturday night in a hijacking. The theory is that Geisking, if wounded as reported, would seek refuge among friends in southern Indiana, where as a member of the Joe Traum gang he plied the trade of hijacker, highway robbery, and liquor running. Traum is now in Leavenworth penitentiary.

Gun Battle with Deputies.

Sheriff Harve Steele of London, Ky., who with his deputies engaged in a gun battle with the hijackers Saturday night, believes Geisking was shot while making his escape, and that his next move would be to hide out in his old Indiana haunts.

Geisking's captured comrades have been identified as Dave Hodges, Robert Ruddell and John Gauley, all members of the Traum gang. They are being held in the Laurel county jail at London.

Meanwhile claims published in Chicago that the capture of Geisking would mark "solution" of the Lingle murder were contradicted by Mr. Roche. He was asked whether Geisking might be regarded as the actual assassin of Lingle.

"Not unless he's grown five inches taller in the last three months," Roche replied. He pointed out that Geisking is five feet, five inches tall, and stout, whereas witnesses to the Lingle slaying, particularly Patrolman Charles Kuthy, who pursued the silk gloved killer, described him as five feet ten inches tall and of slender build.

Sought Since Killing.

Forsythe, who had been sought for questioning ever since the day of the murder, June 9, will be arraigned today on a charge of vagrancy the same as were Alderman, Condi, Kissane and Barry. He was questioned in detail and his answers carefully checked during his four day session with Mr. Roche, Special Assistant State's Attorney Charles F. Rathbun and James E. McShane, who are prosecuting the search for Lingle's slayers. They said they were satisfied that Forsythe was not implicated.

Within a few hours after Lingle was slain the police received information that Forsythe was the man who fired the bullet into the victim's head. Other facts uncovered seemed to dispute the theory he was the actual slayer, but the search for him was continued.

Forsythe told the prosecutors he remembered his movements on June 9, because it was his second wedding anniversary. The records show he was married to Genevieve Cook in the county building June 9, 1928. The substance of his story was:

"At the time of the Lingle murder I was employed by Mr. Gorman as a chauffeur. [Simon J. Gorman is a labor racketeer, head of a laundry owners' association and several laundry workers' unions.]

"On the day of the murder I was sick at home. My wife was with me, in a hotel on the north side. I never knew Lingle, and I never heard of him until I read in the papers of his murder. I certainly had no reason to kill him, and I am as innocent as you are."

Forsythe was captured by Mr. Roche after negotiations for the suspect's surrender, conducted by a lawyer, had fallen through. The investigator said he had received information as to Forsythe's whereabouts and that he had hastened to the place and arrested him. Forsythe is under conviction of carrying concealed weapons, having been sentenced to a year in jail by Judge John H. Lyle. An appeal from the conviction is now pending.

Britain Closes 90 Railway Stations in Trade Slump

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.]

LONDON, Sept. 15.—Simultaneous with the railway centenary celebrations came the announcement today of the closing of ninety railway stations throughout Britain to passenger traffic. The action is an indication of the extent to which the British railways have been affected by the trade depression and the widespread growth of motorbus travel. It will bring the total number of stations closed this year on the four big railways to 176.

DRIVER CRANKS TRUCK IN GEAR AND IS KILLED

Abraham Fogel, 38 years old, of 3324 West 13th street, was fatally injured last night when he was crushed by his own truck which he had cranked while it was in gear.

According to witnesses, Fogel's truck, which had stalled on Ogden avenue near Ashland avenue, started when he cranked it. Fogel made a dash to escape, but he was crushed between his truck and a passing automobile driven by John McCarthy of 2371 North Monticello avenue. McCarthy was not held.

This death and four others increased Cook county's motor toll for 1930 to 722. The other victims:

Mrs. Eva Scott, 45 years old, 5344 Blackstone avenue, a loop bank employé. Died at St. Luke's hospital yesterday of injuries received a few hours earlier when she was struck by a truck at Jackson boulevard and Plymouth court. The driver of the truck was Louis Meyer, 1904 Touhy avenue.

Mrs. Lena Timm, 64 years old, 1625 Kennon street. Died of a fractured skull at St. Elizabeth's hospital after having been struck by a hit and run driver at North and Damen avenues Sunday night. Police last night arrested Raymond Kaforski, 27 years old, 1341 South Union street, who they say was the driver of the car.

Frank Brubaker, 76 years old, 7745 Crandon avenue. Died at the South Shore hospital one hour after being struck by an automobile while crossing 79th street at Essex avenue. The driver, J. De Witt Shaff, 3148 Warren avenue, was held.

Unidentified man, about 50 years old. struck by auto of William Dennis, 835 West 83d street, at Racine avenue and Washington boulevard. Dennis said he stepped from the curb directly in his path. He was held.

Jack Sherman, 335 North Pine street was recommended held to the grand jury for manslaughter by a Lake county coroner's jury as the result of the death on Aug. 31 of Mrs. John Gullickson, wife of a vice president of the Union bank of Chicago.

COMPLETE QUIZ OF TWO GIRLS ON DEATH OF JOYCE

Both Are Freed; Inquiry Will Continue.

The first chapter of the investigation into the death of State Senator John T. Joyce was completed yesterday by Assistant State's Attorneys George Lavin and Ross Lee Laird. The prosecutors declared that they gleaned sufficient information to warrant a continuance of the inquiry. None of the data secured to date will be released until succeeding chapters are built into a course of action, they said.

The prosecutors have questioned Miss Isabelle Daly, 19 year old stepdaughter of Joyce's widow, Mrs. Mary Daly Joyce, and Miss Bernice Webb, 22 years old, a hat model and a former roomer at the Joyce home. Both young women were freed last night after Mrs. Joyce's attorneys made an application for a writ for Miss Daily.

Taken to Secret Place.

Late in the afternoon the prosecutors invited reporters and photographers to interview and photograph the girls. A rendezvous was made with Detective Sergt. Michael Ahern. Reporters and photographers were sworn to secrecy.

For forty-five minutes the girls posed for pictures. The prosecutors delayed the interview and a statement of the results of their investigation until the photographs were taken.

The two young women were then taken to another room for interviews. Both girls appeared to be in excellent spirits. Miss Daly is a brunette and her companion a blonde. They settled themselves in comfortable chairs while Mr. Lavin delivered the terms of the interview.

Lavin Explains Situation.

"We know Joyce was killed by poison," he began. "A coroner's jury found death due to prussic acid, but could not determine the manner in which it had been taken or administered. I do not believe he committed suicide. In my opinion he died within 30 minutes after being poisoned. He died in his bedroom, and he had been home for twelve hours.

"These girls were invited to tell what they knew after the state's attorney's office began an investigation following the inquest. They have told us things which we consider important."

Almost every question put by the reporters was objected to by the prosecutors. Miss Daly said that she had left the Joyce home last September for several weeks, returned in November to leave again Thanksgiving day and came back at the request of Mrs. Joyce Aug. 17, the day after the death of her step-father.

Tells of Kinship.

She said that her father married Mrs. Joyce, then Miss Baker, Sept. 23, 1916. Her mother, Emma Daly, had divorced her father two months earlier. Her mother sent her to a school in Momence. At the death of her mother in 1920 she continued at the school. In 1925 her father died and she was adopted by Mrs. Joyce. Mrs. Joyce, then Mrs. Daly, had divorced Daly in 1924. After the marriage to Joyce the girl made her home with the Joyces.

The girl said she left the Joyce home because of a quarrel with Mrs. Joyce, but prosecutors would not permit her to tell what caused the quarrel.

Miss Webb said that she had lived at the Joyce home for 8 weeks until she went to a hotel a week ago.

The prosecutors said the inquiry into the death of Miss Daly's father, Howard Daly, is to be continued.

At the Joyce home, 207 East Chestnut street, Mrs. Joyce refused to comment on the investigation. She declared that she will push her investigation into the death.

Naval Officer Ends His Life 3 Days After Chum's Suicide

New York, Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Lieut. Woodward Phelps, 28 year old son of Admiral William Woodward Phelps, was found dead with a bullet wound in his head late Sunday night in his cabin on the cruiser Northampton in dry dock in the Brooklyn navy yard.

The cause was unofficially stated to be suicide. The motive was understood to be the grief of the young naval officer at the suicide last Friday of an older officer under whom he had seen exciting and heroic service at the time of the Chinese revolution in March, 1927.

The older officer, Lieutenant Commander Benjamin F. Staud, shot himself to death early Friday morning in his room on the cruiser Houston, lying at Southampton, England. No motive was found for Staud's act. The manner of his suicide was much like that followed by Lieut. Phelps.

Lieut. Phelps was graduated from the Naval academy at Annapolis in 1924, and soon after was assigned to sea duty. Later he trained at Pensacola and became a naval aviator. Recently he was assigned to the Northampton, one of the navy's new 10,000 ton treaty cruisers.

The high spot of Lieut. Phelps' career, however, had been as an ensign on the destroyer Noa, of which Commander Staud was in command in Chinese waters in 1927. When revolutionists from south China took refuge on Socony hill, a Standard Oil property at the edge of the city, Ensign Phelps led one of the landing parties which went ashore under heavy fire and rescued the Americans, while Commander Staud protected the landing parties by the fire of his ship's guns.

Brother officers of Lieut. Phelps said Phelps had held great admiration and liking for the older officer, due largely to their Chinese service together.

Following that experience they were assigned to different ships. In 1929, according to dispatches from Baltimore, Lieut. Phelps was married to Miss Janet Bell Withall of Baltimore.

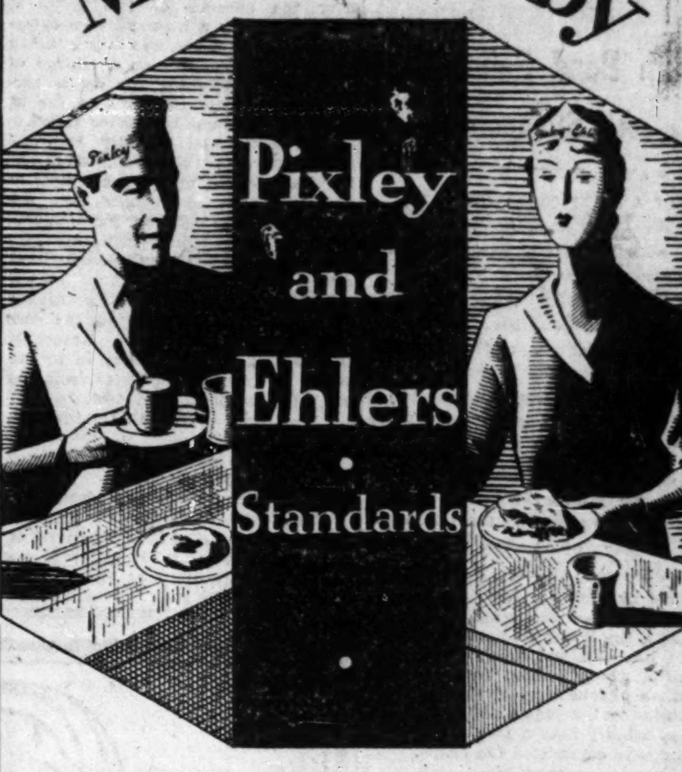
SERVICE Measured by



Infectious happiness . . a feeling that the service rendered is a pleasure . . a fine regard for your individual taste—these are daily experiences in the popular P & E restaurants. Here is the reason! Believing that perfect service is as important as good food in building restaurant reputation, the directors have spent thirty years in organizing their personnel. Every employee is trained in accordance with a proven formula; and taught the value of a co-operative spirit. Many are stockholders. They are happy at Pixley and Ehlers. Many of the 400 employees have served the company 10 to 20 years, 60% of them more than five years. The men bakers have a perfect record of service; Cupid alone lures the girls away.

In the restaurant world, such a record of service is unique. It explains why the same happy people are always "on deck" to serve you the delectable P & E food — in the same satisfactory way.

BLOODY 'KERCHIEF ONLY CLEW TO GIRL'S MURDER

South Bend Police Free All Suspects.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—The murder of Alice Woltman, 17 years old, assumed a more baffling aspect tonight after two days had passed without the development of even a definite motive for the crime.

The authorities were inclined to believe that either a frenzied jealousy or desire for vengeance inspired the murderer to risk a stealthy entrance of the young girl's home to slash her throat as she slept, but have been unable to learn of any one among her acquaintances, who might have been spurred by such impulses.

The fact that the killer was familiar with the Woltman home—entering as he did, climbing to a second story window which opened from another bedroom through which he crept to reach his victim—appeared to preclude the possibility that a vagrant prowler might have committed the crime.

No Worth While Evidence.

But authorities, after questioning members of the girl's family and many of her friends, said they had learned nothing that might be construed as worth while evidence.

Chief of Police S. J. Lenon and other investigators held a secret conference tonight to consider new lines of inquiry. It is understood they are working on a new theory that the killer might have intended another one of the Woltman family as his victim. There are nine children, two of them, Henrietta, 21, and Evelyn, 19, older than Alice.

The only new clew discovered today was a man's blood soaked handkerchief bearing the initial "G." This was found by two boys just a block from the Woltman home, lying on the grass between the sidewalk and curb, although it apparently had lain there during an overnight rain, it had been so soaked with blood that streaks and splotches distinctly were visible.

Clear Finger Prints on Sill.

The spot where the handkerchief was found was west in the direction which two witnesses reported they saw a man fleeing from the Woltman home just before dawn Sunday. Officers said the streaks on the handkerchief easily might have been made by wiping a knife blade or even the hands.

Sergt. Harold Whitmer, police finger print and Bertillion expert, obtained clear finger print specimens from the window sill over which the killer crept, but the only task to which they were put today served to eliminate the suspects who had been detained.

Among the suspects were Barney Kluczyinski, 23 years old, an acquaintance of the slain girl and customer at her father's grocery, and two Negroes. All were released. Alex Pietrzak, an intimate friend of the girl, was questioned, but the investigators said there was no reason to suspect him. He said he had been engaged to her.

Funeral services for the girl will be held Thursday.

Woman Slays Her Sister to "Cure Her Broken Heart"

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Mrs. Ruth B. Weimer, 37, shot and killed her sister, Mrs. Mabel Agnes Steel, 38, today to end her grief over the absence of two children, taken away by a husband who disappeared. Tonight she was in jail facing preliminary hearings on a charge of murder and pleading for death herself. An attempt on her own life at the time she shot her sister failed.

Mrs. Steel had recently returned from a psychopathic ward, where she had been taken following attempts at suicide in her melancholy over the loss of her two children, Fred, 7, and Mayetta, 4. She had improved with treatment but lately had resumed her weeping and despondency.

Events leading up to the tragedy were told by a niece of the two women, Evelyn Rains, 17. According to the girl, Mrs. Weimer, in an attempt to dissuade her sister from her continual weeping, exclaimed.

"Stop that crying this minute or I'll shoot you."

"I want to die," Mrs. Steel sobbed. "Go ahead and kill me."

Then, according to the niece, Mrs. Weimer ran upstairs and returned with a pistol. She fired three times, the bullets striking her sister in the head, bringing death at once.

She fired twice more, the niece said, in an attempt to kill herself, but neither bullet struck her. Other persons in the house disarmed her.

Mrs. Weimer readily admitted the shooting to police, saying she killed her sister "to cure her broken heart."

The niece said Mrs. Weimer made many sacrifices to break her sister's despondency. She had made the sister many gifts and paid for outing trips. She had taken a third child, Nadine, 16 months old, into the home, after it had been placed with another sister, following the disappearance more than a year ago of Mrs. Weimer's husband, Glenn, and the other children.

Miss Laura La Plante, film actress, will arrive in Chicago today to prosecute charges against Harold Rhodes, a train porter, accused of withholding $7,000 worth of jewelry belonging to her which he found in a train. The police discovered the jewelry when Miss Gertrude Payne, 18 years old, of 4718 South Michigan avenue, tried to pawn it. Her story involved Rhodes.

You get more out of life on a McINTOSH-plan POULTRY FARM

If you're tired of a hum-drum existence ... if you're not progressing as fast as you would like ... if you have trouble making both ends meet ... then investigate the McIntosh plan of poultry farming. Many families have already proved this plan highly successful.

You can beat the high cost of living and pay for a suburban chicken farm and cozy home. In place of scraping along to lay aside a "nest egg," you can make your own flock provide you with an extra income!

Keep your present job ... devote only spare time to this pleasant hobby. The Poultry, vegetables or fruit you grow reduce living expenses and help pay for your own home. We give you 200 pullets FREE and all equipment necessary to start making profits. You can have your own place of 1—2½—5 or 10 acres near stores, schools, churches, etc., near good transportation with 43 daily 45-minute trains to the Loop.

Low price of only $295 per acre is possible because of our fortunate purchase of an excellent estate at forced sale. This property, we believe, is now worth at least twice our price to you. Now is the time to take advantage of such an opportunity.

See It in the Movies

Next Thursday evening at 8 P. M. we will show a FREE MOVIE of life on our poultry farms, together with a practical lecture on profitable poultry raising. # VON HINDENBURG DEFIES FASCISTI DICTATOR PLAN

Will Fight Plot to Wreck German Republic.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Sept. 15.—Last election returns give the new German reichstag 575 deputies, but the interest of the whole country is centered on the 107 reactionary deputies of Adolf Hitler's Fascisti. They are now the second strongest party in the country, ranking right after the Socialists, with their 143 deputies. The Fascists favor a stern dictatorship, have constantly fought for laws to strengthen the republic, and many of them lean toward restoration of the monarchy.

President Von Hindenburg let it be known tonight that he would fight to the last ditch any attempt of the Hitlerites to usurp power. Chancellor Heinrich Bruening had a conference with the president this afternoon and when he emerged declared that all negotiations for a cabinet coalition of parties which favor the republic would be postponed until Oct. 13 or 14, when the new reichstag convenes.

Seek Socialist Support.

Nevertheless the minister of the interior, Joseph Wirth conferred with the premier of Prussia, the Socialist leader, Otto Braun, this afternoon, to prepare the ground for Socialist cooperation. His advances were favorably received.

Chancellor Bruening leads the Centrist party with only 68 seats and must win enough support from the 143 Socialists and some of the minor parties to secure a reichstag majority. His pivotal situation is complicated by the fact that President Von Hindenburg is against giving the Socialists an opportunity to form a cabinet since they failed to stabilize German politics though in power from the time of President Ebert's death until last year.

"We are a fighting organization and will not think of resting on our laurels after this smashing victory," Herr Hitler's right hand man, Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, told THE TRIBUNE.

Will Seek Dictatorship.

Herr Hitler in his first public address after the victory became known, emphasized that the Fascisti are determined to use only legal means to establish the dictatorship which they believe alone can save Germany.

Herr Hitler, the stormy petrel of German politics, is an Austrian by birth and so unable to sit in the reichstag. He was once a draughtsman, fought in the German army during the world war, become associated with Gen. Erich Ludendorff, with whom he organized the Bavarian "putsch" of 1923. The adventure failed and he was sentenced to five years' jail, but was released on promise of good behavior after a few months. He then organized his present party modeled on Mussolini's organization in Italy.

In their chief organ, the Voelkische Beobachter, the Fascisti demand that the Bruening cabinet withdraw and give them a chance to form a new government.

While the Fascists may count on the support of Dr. Alfred Hugenberg's 41 Monarchist deputies, forming the German Nationalist party, in any attempt to form a government, their reactionary program will be opposed by other foes of the republican form of government, the Communists. These radicals have won 76 seats and a blood feud exists between them and the reactionaries.

Liken Fascisti to Rough Riders.

Imagine, they suggest, America after a huge crisis, with the old parties, the Republicans and Democrats, accepting heavy hardships for the people because they knew there was no other way out. This has been the case with Germany's responsible parties who accepted the Versailles treaty and the Young plan and agreed to pay reparations for 78 more years because they feared reprisals from former war enemies.

Then strong, healthy young men, who distinguished themselves in previous wars, something like the "rough riders" in America's old days, would turn up and tell the masses that they were willing to fight and give their lives to free the people from paralyzing burdens. They would instigate practical plans to give work and food to the masses.

Observers believe that Americans, under similar circumstances, would have turned from the timid Democrats and Republicans to the daring rough riders, just as Germany has done.

FRANCE DISPLEASED BY RADICAL GAINS IN GERMAN ELECTION

PARIS, Sept. 15.—The results of Germany's elections displease and disconcert France, coming on the heels of complete evacuation of the Rhineland and following the violent campaigns for a revision of the Versailles treaty.

The utter collapse of the late Gustav Streseman's party, with the tremendous inflation of the Hitlerites and ultra-Nationalists and 1,125,000 new voters for the opposite Red wing, reflect a changed spirit of Germans, according to comment here.

The press points out that both the reactionaries and the radicals who have scored most conspicuously in the election are foes of France.

AUCTION SALE OF TAX DELINQUENT PROPERTY BEGUN

Sale of property for delinquency in general taxes for 1928 was begun yesterday in Room 337 of the county building. Barrington and Berwyn property was the first to be put up at auction. The names and descriptions indicated that much of the property belonged to small home owners of foreign birth.

Official figures show that taxes are delinquent on more than 300,000 of the 1,300,000 parcels of real estate in Cook county. Only about half of this property will be sold, because 10,000 objections involving more than 120,000 pieces of property have been filed in the county court.

Valuations for 1929 taxes on 245 pieces of property in 103d street between Michigan avenue and the Illinois Central railroad tracks were raised yesterday by the board of assessors. The increase was made on the recommendation of the techincal staff, headed by Harry S. Cutmore, director of appraisals. Assessor Conroy cast the one dissenting vote. He argued that increases cannot be made legally except during the quadrennial reassessment.

BREAK WINDOW, STEAL JEWELRY.

Ignoring several pedestrians and a passing street car, two roughly dressed men shortly before midnight last night threw a brick through the window of the Richard L. Siedelman jewelry store at 2615 South Crawford avenue and escaped with three rings valued at $1,000.

LOTTIE O'NEILL FILES PETITION FOR SENATE RACE

"Independent Candidate" to Succeed Deneen.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neill's petition as an independent candidate for United States senator from Illinois, to succeed Senator Charles S. Deneen, was filed with Secretary of State Stratton this afternoon. Mrs. O'Neill presented the petition in person, with the statement that it contained between 1,800 and 2,000 signatures.

Announcing her purpose to make a state-wide campaign, in which she would discuss economic issues, unemployment, taxation, and other problems, she quoted from Mrs. McCormick's statement that her platform "is that written by the Republican national convention assembled at Kansas City on the occasion of the nomination of Herbert Hoover," and added:

"My Republicanism takes the form of supporting the national platform and protesting against the deviation therefrom by the Illinois Republican convention. This candidacy, therefore, is a response to popular demand. Organization and individuals will steadily fall in line as they learn the facts leading up to the filing of this petition. A committee of sponsors will be announced at an early date.

Depends Upon Volunteers.

"The success of the campaign must depend upon volunteer work on the part of those who believe that the principles for which I stand are worthy of their support. The money necessarily spent will be carefully recorded and reported to the committee appointed by the United States senate. In this connection, if elected to office, I will support legislation to discourage the expenditure of large sums of money in campaigns as I believe in that way lies our only hope of perpetuating our American ideal of the right of every one, regardless of property qualifications, to participate in government.

"This candidacy is also a protest against the attempt of the Republican party leaders of Illinois to force candidates to abandon the dry position on which they were nominated in the spring primary. In this connection I call attention to the fact that the result of the referendum does not bind those favoring the repeal of the 18th amendment.

Quotes Stand of Two Candidates.

"On the prohibition issue, two candidates have courageously taken their stand so that no confusion need exist in the voter's mind. The Democratic candidate announced himself in favor of the repeal of the eighteenth amendment. The independent candidate is steadfastly standing by the constitution as it is now written. No other kind of a candidate can possibly contribute to the settling of this question.

"It is my belief that at this time, economic issues should not be clouded by the prohibition issues and that candidates for public office must give serious attention to matters of unemployment and taxation and other problems facing the people.

"To the Republican leaders of Illinois who are concerned about the turn of events, my only reply is that they are themselves responsible for the situation as it exists. Certainly the independent candidate tried in good faith to prevent it."

Woman's City Club to Act on Prohibition Referendum

Always in past years the Woman's City club has professed itself to be predominantly dry in sentiment. Yesterday there were unmistakable indications that divergent opinions among the membership have at least caused the organization to waver in its assertions of aridity. At a meeting yesterday of the executive committee, headed by Mrs. Murry Nelson, president of the club, the organization gave notice that it is open to conviction.

A motion was passed by the directors, of whom more than a score were in attendance, providing that a special, open meeting of the club be held soon, at which time the advocates of prohibition and modification will be asked to appear and present their cases. Subsequent to that meeting, action will be taken by the club membership with regard to its position on the referendum that will be presented to the Illinois voters in November.

It is anticipated that representatives of the Anti-Saloon league and the W. C. T. U. will speak at the meeting in opposition to representatives of the Crusaders, the Association Against the Eighteenth Amendment, and the Woman's Organization for National Prohibition Reform.

Former Senator James Hamilton Lewis, Democratic nominee for United States senator, yesterday was given the indorsement of the Illinois Association Opposed to Prohibition.

The association followed its indorsement of Lewis with indorsements for congress as follows: Oscar De Priest, Adolph Sabath, James T. Igoe, Stanley H. Kunz, and Fred A. Britten, all members of congress now; and Harry P. Beam (Dem.) or F. G. Zelezinski (Rep.), and James C. Moreland (Rep.) or Leonard W. Schuetz (Dem.).

Meanwhile the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform sent out a challenge to the W. C. T. U., asking whether that body endorses Mrs. Scott Durand, president of the Lake Forest chapter, in her approval of light wines and beer when made and consumed on home premises.

"The W. O. N. P. R. finds this attitude inconsistent with a totally dry campaign," the communication read. "They want to know whether or not the W. C. T. U. has changed its former policy and is now advocating light wines and beer. Mrs. Durand also stated that no receptive substitute for the prohibition law has been offered. Are not state rights a fitting substitute for a national law that has proven itself unenforceable throughout the country? Shall we continue to live under an unenforceable law, with its resulting hypocrisy and corruption, or shall we work for its repeal?"

MRS. McCORMICK CENSURED BY AN M. E. CONFERENCE

Criticize Liquor Stand in Resolution.

Danville, Ill., Sept. 15.—(AP)—Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, Republican candidate for United States senator, was criticized by the Illinois Methodist conference here today, which adopted a resolution offered by the committee on public policy.

"In the primary last April," the resolution said, "Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick received the endorsement of the dry forces of the state, and, by announcing herself as a dry, secured the primary nomination to the United States senate; but she has seen fit, by what to us seems to be political chicanery, to put herself in a position where she has forfeited the confidence of the moral forces of our state."

Adoption of the resolution followed extended debate. A motion to table an entire paragraph referring to the Democratic and Republican parties was lost by a vote of 124 to 53.

"The political situation in Illinois," the resolution said, "is not only confusing, but threatens to overthrow the moral victories that have been won by the churches in recent years. While the church takes no interest in party politics as such, yet it is duty bound to take notice of any movement that affects moral welfare.

"For generations the church has been educating the people against the use of intoxicating liquor as a beverage, and stands today, as ever, against any attempt to legalize the liquor traffic.

"In Illinois the Democratic state convention has taken the position as favoring the repeal of the eighteenth amendment, of the Volstead act, and the repeal of all the state prohibition laws. The Republican party, from which we expected better things, has gone on record as willing to bind itself by a state referendum upon these same questions. We regret that the opportunity to become a leader in this great moral question has taken a backward step.

"We heartily concur in that portion of the resolution adopted on Saturday by the Laymen's association of this conference, which reads as follows:

"We maintain that it is the duty of every one who believes in the eighteenth amendment to show the faith that is in him this year by word and deed. We can not be true to our conscience if we remain inactive. A majority of the men and women of Illinois believe in the eighteenth amendment and the enforcement of the laws enacted under it. We should go to the polls in November and by our votes on the three proposals prove it to the nation and world, and at the same time demonstrate that the dry forces are yet a steadfast, aggressive, militant body.

"'We furthermore pledge our loyal support to those candidates whose stand in favor of the dry cause is clear cut and positive. We are determined also to energetically oppose all candidates and measures favoring the liquor traffic in any way whatsoever.'"

SLUGGED BY BURGLARS; DIES.

Garland Birch, 69 years old, a Negro, died yesterday at the county hospital of injuries incurred on Sept. 1, when he was slugged by two marauders whom he surprised while they were breaking into his home at 5516 Calumet avenue.

ASKS $27,950,000 BONDS FOR CITY BUILDING WORK

A proposal to place bond issues totaling $27,950,000 on the Nov. 4 ballot was made yesterday by Ald. John S. Clark [30th], chairman of the council finance committee. The plan will be placed before the finance committee on Sept. 22, and if the committee agrees a recommendation will be made to the council, which will meet on the same day. The bond issues proposed by Ald. Clark are:

|---|---|
| Bridges | $10,000,000 |
| House of correction | 1,100,000 |
| Street lights | 2,000,000 |
| Ogden avenue viaduct and bridges | 5,000,000 |
| Completion of Ashland and Western avenues and La Salle st. | 7,000,000 |
| Fire department building repairs | 1,750,000 |
| Additional playgrounds | 500,000 |

Issuance of these bonds, according to Ald. Clark, would exhaust all but $50,000 of the city's bonding power. He pointed out, however, that the city will retire $7,000,000 of outstanding bonds in January.

NEW GERMAN POCKET APPARATUS AIDS THE DEAFENED

Can be had on free trial

From Germany comes a small electrical appliance that bids fair to become the greatest boon to deafened people in many years. So small is this new appliance that it can be conveniently carried concealed in the clothing with as little bother as a watch. This newcomer, Teutonophone, is a product of post-war Germany and is being demonstrated and distributed in Chicago by Associated Hearing Aids Co., 5 So. Wabash Ave.

Teutonophone indicates a striking advance over former type earphones. Its power to amplify sounds for even those with only a small percentage of hearing is amazing—yet it is as clear as a bell and produces enlarged sounds with a mellowness of tone not before attained. Included in this hearing aid is a remarkable tiny appliance, a button-like transmitter the size of a silver half dollar and an earpiece small enough to be worn inside the ear without a headband. The weight of this instrument is about two ounces.

While the instruments are superbly made and finished, they are being offered to the deafened at unprecedentedly low prices—so that no one with defective hearing need deprive himself of the benefits of Teutonophone. To appreciate thoroughly the benefit and comfort these instruments offer to deafened persons, an actual test is essential, because mere words cannot portray them adequately.

The distributors of Teutonophone will be pleased to mail complete information regarding these instruments to any one writing to them. They will be glad to demonstrate them privately at their offices daily from 9 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

WETS AND DRYS WATCH PRIMARY RESULTS TODAY

Prohibition Issue Enters Many Contests.

BY ARTHUR CRAWFORD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—The prohibition issue, which defeated three veteran dry Republican members of the house last week, may cause further havoc tomorrow as the final primaries of the year take place in Massachusetts, New York and Wisconsin.

Besides the Republican senatorial contest in Massachusetts, which has attracted wide attention, several fights over congressional nominations, particularly in Massachusetts and New York, will tend to show the trend of sentiment on the wet and dry question.

N. Y. Drys Have Fights.

Several present dry Republican members of the house from upstate New York who in previous years have won renomination without much difficulty, are involved in lively fights. These include Representative S. Wallace Dempsey, chairman of the house rivers and harbors committee; Representatives James S. Parker, chairman of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce; Representative Frank Crowther, the New York member of the powerful ways and means committee, and Representative Gale H. Stalker, who was co-author with Senator Wesley L. Jones [Rep., Wash.], of the Jones-Stalker "five and ten" prohibition penalty law.

Representative Dempsey is opposed by Walter Gresham Andrews, who has declared for repeal of the 18th amendment and has assailed Mr. Dempsey for failure to discuss the prohibition issue. Representative Parker's wet opponent is Theodore A. Knapp, while the wet opposition of Representative Crowther is being furnished by E. Watson Gardiner. Reuben B. Oldfield is opposing Representative Stalker.

Factor in Other Districts.

Prohibition also is a factor in several other Republican congressional primary contests in New York state. In the district now represented by Representative James M. Fitzpatrick [Dem.], former Representative B. L. Fairchild, a wet, and Charles B. Witter, a dry, are seeking the Republican nomination. In the district where Representative J. M. Wainwright [Rep.], a dry, did not seek reëlection the Republican candidates include Robert A. Patterson, a Tarrytown banker, who is on the dry side of the issue, and Charles D. Millard, a wet, who has the support of the regular Republican organization, and John M. Holsworth, also a wet.

Representative E. F. Cooke [Rep.], who represents one of the Buffalo districts, recently announced himself for repeal of the 18th amendment but is being attacked by Albert C. Killian, a wet opponent, for failing to declare himself earlier.

The only two Republican members of the house from New York City, Mrs. Ruth Pratt and F. H. La Guardia, are wet. Mrs. Pratt has opposition in tomorrow's primary but prohibition is not an issue. Mr. La Guardia is unopposed.

Issue in Massachusetts.

In Massachusetts the wet and dry issue is a factor in several of the congressional contests. Representative A. Piatt Andrew, one of the few wets among present Republican members from this state, is being opposed by Mrs. Martha N. Brookins, a dry.

Chief interest in Massachusetts centers in the contest over the Republican senatorial nomination in which former Senator William N. Butler, a dry, is opposed by Eben S. Draper, a wet.

Prohibition is a leading issue in tomorrow's Democratic state convention in Delaware. Former Senator Thomas F. Bayard, an active wet, and Josiah Marvel, Democratic national committeeman and president of the American Bar association who has dry support, are leading candidates for the senatorial nomination.

If Mr. Marvel should be nominated both senatorial candidates would be dry, as the Republican convention recently renominated Senator Daniel O. Hastings on a dry platform. Mr. Bayard has received support from Republican members of the Du Pont family who are wet.

tending forces, one believing in democracy and one believing that the powers of government should be placed in the hands of the rich.

"It is a campaign of issues and not of personalites. Upon each great issue the progressives have a specific program."

George Gilkey, chairman of the regular Republican state committee, in his final statement spoke of "a conspiracy of political opponents to break down Gov. Kohler's character and standing."

Gilkey said Kohler would win by 100,000. Others in the regulars' camp expressed fears that overconfidence might keep Kohler supporters away from the polls and perhaps place the governor in jeopardy.

Democrats Seek Unity.

The Democrats sent up a shout for their followers to keep in their primaries and vote for Charles E. Hammersley for governor—he has no opposition. Two years ago the Democrats' primary vote was 41,000 out of a total of 567,500. The Socialist vote two years ago was 12,000, nearly all of it coming from Milwaukee, and the left wing Socialists are clamoring for all adherents to stick by Frank B. Metcalfe, their candidate. The Wisconsinized Socialists, however, are expected by their leaders to throw about 75 per cent of their vote to the La Follette candidates.

The La Follette camp has been snuggling up to the Democrats, and Senator Blaine has not neglected to point out that two years ago he was for Al Smith for president.

In the congressional contests the veteran John M. Nelson of Madison is accounted in danger. He was national chairman of the La Follette-Wheeler third party campaign committee in 1924. He is opposed in the Third district by Platt Whitman, former state insurance commissioner, who has the backing of the regulars, and by John S. Donald, former secretary of state, who is drawing some progressive support. If Platt rolls up a large vote in Dane colunty the division of the La Follette vote might make him winner.

7 Hours in Bed and Not 7 Minutes of Sleep!

The Toll Acidity Takes

You go to bed dog-tired, but the minute you hit the pillow all sleepiness vanishes. If you do sleep at all, it's only in snatches and you wake out of these "stupors" with a strange, startled feeling, sometimes in a cold sweat. Morning finds you a rag, gaunt and hollow-eyed and barely able to crawl out of bed.

Acidity is due to our unnatural eating habits, our excessive smoking and irregular hours. The excess acid upsets digestion and causes acid-indigestion with gas and heartburn. It causes putrefaction and fermentation in the gastro-intestinal canal which frequently results in ragged nerves, sleeplessness, logy days and general loss of strength and vitality.

A remarkable new corrective of acidity has been developed by a famous 100-year-old pharmaceutical house in Germany. This new, improved magnesia comes in the form of small white tablets called Magnesia Oxoids which do not have to be chewed, but which may be swallowed whole. Magnesia Oxoids, upon contact with the acid in the stomach, generate nascent, or active, oxygen! Now, active oxygen, as any doctor will tell you, when generated within the digestive tract does just the things required for acidity. It stimulates the secretion of the alkaline mucus. It checks the putrefaction and fermentation in the gastro-intestinal canal. It exercises a stimulating effect upon the activities of the intestinal walls and aids the movement of the bowels.

All three effects are necessary to the true relief of acidity and Magnesia Oxoids supply them in a perfectly natural manner.

Make This Acidity Test

To ascertain just how "acid" you are, make this acidity test. Get a bottle of Magnesia Oxoids from Walgreen's Drug Stores, Economical Drug Stores, or any other druggist, on our money-back guarantee. Take two after each meal. Mark the change in your physical condition—note how more sound and restful your sleep and how more cheerful and active your days. If, after taking contents of one bottle, you don't sleep better and have more "pep" and power, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money.

ENGINEERS GET JOLT FOR DELAY ON SUBWAY JOB

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

Chairman Joseph B. McDonough of the council local transportation committee and President Faherty of the board of local improvements walked in on the subway engineers yesterday afternoon and gave them a jolt about delays.

McDonough and Faherty entered while the engineers, with Chairman George Wisner in the chair, were discussing procedure.

"I appreciate it takes time to get out plans," Faherty told them, "but you will have a lot of things to settle pretty soon. If you engineers can't agree, we will find a way. I have a subway plan myself."

He exhibited a drawing of a cross section and added that he and the alderman are working together.

"There has been criticism in the newspapers of the progress," said McDonough. "You can expect to get a blast pretty soon unless you turn out tangible results. Aldermen have been asking me why things are not started. I want a report of progress to submit to the city council Sept. 22 and weekly reports thereafter."

Chairman Wisner remarked that he thought there would be more progress next week when he got a reply from the utilities on what space they will take in the subways.

"I've been dealing with the utilities for four years," broke in McDonough. "Take the bull by the horns, decide what is fair, make the companies sign up accordingly, and get going."

Tells of Rising Values.

"Since we have been talking of widening North State street," said Faherty, "property vaue has increased $10 to $15 a square foot. In ten years property there will be worth $10,000 a front foot. Let us get going.

"Your $12,000,000 estimate of the cost of the mezzanine floor in the State street subway is too high in my opinion. Five million dollars would be more nearly right. The property owners should pay 65 per cent of the cost of the subway and the city the other 35 per cent."

"There is gossip about dissension among you engineers," added McDonough. "I believe that you should work together, work harder and work faster."

Hearing on "L" Leases.

A hearing was held yesterday on the petition of Ald. Arthur F. Albert to cancel the lease of the North Shore electric line by which the elevated operates trains to Niles Center. The alderman tried to show the Illinois commerce commission that between 1925 and 1929 the "L" has paid the North Shore approximately $1,185,485 in rentals, but has gotten comparatively little passenger traffic out of the arrangement.

For nearly three hours Albert sought in vain to prove that the rentals were paid. Finally the hearing was continued till Oct. 17 to wait the arrival from Springfield of the records in the elevated fare case to complete the rental proof.

Several times the hearing provoked laughter among the lawyers, commissioner and spectators. Ald. Albert put William Hughes Clarke, opponent of the transportation franchise, on the stand as his "expert." He qualified by saying that he is acquainted with the financial and operating results of the "L" system.

Expert Is Under Fire.

Attorney Ralph Bradley for the North Shore line asked Mr. Clarke what public utilities he had financed in Illinois. Mr. Clarke said that he had aided in financing the North State Power company.

"Where is that located?" asked Bradley.

"Around Galena," answered Clarke.

Q—Did you ever do any financing on the elevated of Chicago? A—I am not sure whether I bought some of the Northwestern "L" bonds.

"Mr. Clarke has not been qualified as an expert," commented Bradley, "and I object to his testifying as such."

"He's as well qualified as the officers of the company who tell the commission what they are told to tell," snapped Ald. Albert.

"The court reporter will strike out all that comment," ordered Robert H. Farrell, assistant commissioner.

"I have my expert here and the proper foundation has been laid for him to testify as an expert," said Albert.

"You and the commission disagree," said Farrell.

Pacific Flyers Overcome Fighting Way Back.

OMINATO, Aomori Prefecture, Japan, Sept. 16 [Tuesday].—(AP)—Harold Bromley, Tacoma aviator, whose fourth attempt to fly across the Pacific ended on the beach near here early yesterday when a damaged exhaust pipe and adverse weather conditions forced him to return to Japan, today was less sure about re-attempting the flight.

He said lack of finances might compel him to abandon his plan to span the Pacific from Japan to Tacoma, although he said he was unable to make a definite statement.

Bromley planned to return to Shiosukari, seacoast village on the beach where he and his co-pilot, Harold Gatty, landed, to study the feasibility of removing the plane to Samishiro beach, starting point of the flight.

Find Flyers Semi-Conscious.

Only a few fishermen witnessed the landing of the monoplane City of Tacoma yesterday. They found both flyers lying on the sands, pale, sick and semi-conscious when they ran to the plane. The fishermen notified the police station, from where a physician was dispatched immediately, but the flyers soon recovered.

After the flyers arrived here from Shiosukari in a dilapitated automobile, Gatty concluded a narrative of the flight with the statement:

Flyers Lost Bearings.

Gatty said noxious gases filled the plane. He told how after leaving Samishiro beach the weather became threatening and steadily grew worse as the plane preceded northeastward along the Kurile island chain.

Fogs set in, he said, and the flyers lost their bearings. They endeavored unsuccessfully to force the plane to climb above the fog. Apparently as the result of pressure involved in this effort, Gatty declared, the exhaust pipe was damaged.

"Escaping fumes entered the plane," Gatty continued, "and to escape suffocation we opened windows and let all fresh air into the plane possible. This gave us some relief, but when we reached the northern extremity of the Kuriles the exhaust pipe exploded and gas filled the cabin. We knew we had to return. We fell into semi-consciousness now and then."

Atlantic Weather Worse; Ammel Again Delays Hop

Roosevelt Field, L. I., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Capt. Roy W. Ammel, Chicago broker, who is planning to fly the Atlantic alone will not take off for the next two days at least. In an hour's discussion of weather prospects with Dr. James H. Kimball today he learned that conditions over the Atlantic were getting worse instead of better and that there would be no good flying weather for several days. He did not fly his plane today.

SLEEPY WATER is effective in getting to the source of disease, restoring the normal health balance of the system. Its mildly alkaline character neutralizes the acid condition that causes many ailments. Its combination of valuable minerals stimulates the growth of healthy cells, cleanses the system of acids, toxic poisons and other wastes. It has a soothing sedative effect on the nervous system.

We have many letters from grateful users and clinical data on file testifying to the therapeutic qualities of SLEEPY WATER in providing relief from Diabetes, Rheumatism, Neuritis, High Blood Pressure, Bright's Disease, Stomach, Kidney, Bladder and Gall Bladder troubles.

SLEEPY WATER is recommended by many physicians. Write or telephone today for helpful and interesting booklet, "The Waterway to Health."

For all SILKS use the new
CARBONA
Grease Absorbent
POWDER
REMOVES GREASE SPOTS WITHOUT LEAVING A "RING"

Most silks are now "weighted" or "loaded" with foreign substances to make them appear of better quality. Liquid cleaners dissolve this "weighting" or "loading," and this causes "rings" on Silks. We have therefore created Carbona Grease Absorbent Powder for use on Silks only. This Powder will not affect "weighting" or "loading" in any way—it absorbs Grease Spots instead of dissolving them, and no "rings" can result from its use on Silks.

For all other Fabrics use Carbona Cleaning Fluid

Finally, We Threw All the Superlatives Out of the Window

SIX advertisement writers tried to tell you about October Cosmopolitan. They failed—because each of them got so enthusiastic he used such expressions as "greatest magazine ever issued," "most beautiful publication in the world." All of this had been said before, not only about Cosmopolitan but about any number of other magazines. So finally we threw all the superlatives out of the window and decided to tell you the plain story of what's in the issue and why we think it may interest you.

IF YOU LIKE ROMANCE—

Fannie Hurst has written for you a novel of a Grand Passion, BACK STREETS . . . Adela Rogers St. Johns will play on your heartstrings in the love story of Emmy Lou and Tony Durango of the films, whom a million women loved . . . Royal Brown takes you into the life of that girl who had always been a bridesmaid and shows you what she did FOR THE LOVE OF MIKE . . . In Norman Anthony's story you wait for a bus and see what happens to THE MIND-THE-TAINT GIRL when Peter Crosby, Jr., comes along in his expensive car . . . Just a few samples, these.

IF YOU LIKE HUMOR—

Go to Hollywood with Anita Loos, who wrote "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," and read about that pure young man, Elmer Bliss, who leads you to THE BETTER THINGS OF LIFE . . . You will chuckle over the sad plight of the man who married a mermaid, in Lord Dunsany's THE MERMAID'S HUSBAND . . . And who could be more humorous than Joan Lowell, who wrote "The Cradle of the Deep," telling how she remodeled a 250-year-old house . . . And, of course, O. O. McIntyre gives you a good laugh in BE YOURSELF!

IF YOU ARE CURIOUS ABOUT THE EMOTION CALLED LOVE—

George A. Dorsey will tell you some things about mating you may never have heard before. If you are married, thinking of getting married, or avoiding getting married, here is something to read.

IF YOU LIKE THRILLS—

Let your blood tingle as you begin a real thriller—WHITE FACE—by Edgar Wallace . . . Irvin S. Cobb doesn't try to conceal from you the murderer, in his story, THE MASTERPIECE, although that murderer eluded the police for months. We thought there had been too many stories about racketeers until we read COME ACROSS by Peter B. Kyne . . . Rafael Sabatini takes you on a voyage with Captain Blood, in the days when pirates roamed the seas instead of city streets.

IF YOU LIKE POETRY—

We mean grand swinging verse that has gusto and drama—you are going to enjoy reading of the fate of that gallant ship, THE WANDERER, as told by John Masefield, the new poet laureate of England.

IF YOU LIKE PRIZE FIGHTS—

Then read what a man who thought nothing of fighting 60 rounds with bare knuckles has to say about the sissies who call themselves gladiators. His name is James J. Corbett and he declares YOU CAN'T MAKE FIGHTERS OF CRY-BABIES.

IF YOU LIKED—OR DISLIKED—WOODROW WILSON

Now you may read for the first time what happened during the Paris Peace Conference to turn him into a palsied, broken, old man—all revealed in letters from his Paris home by the White House Social Secretary, Edith Benham Helm.

No matter what your tastes in reading may be, we believe you'll find much to interest you in October Cosmopolitan's 24 features—and all for only 25 cents.

WORK, NOT TALK, SPRAGUE PLEDGE IN RACKET WAR

U. S. Is Expected to Take Hand in Drive.

"Indiscriminate talking is harmful in war. And this is war."

Col. A. A. Sprague, chairman of the Association of Commerce committee on the prevention and punishment of crime, sounded this keynote yesterday for the law enforcers after a conference at the Mid-day club at noon. Final plans for the war against racketeering, as ordered by Chief Justice John P. McGoorty of the criminal court in a special charge to the grand jury, were considered at the meeting.

The conference was attended by State's Attorney Swanson, United States District Attorney George E. Q. Johnson and Col. Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Association of Commerce and head of the "Secret Six" committee of the association. The officials refused to elaborate on the brief statement of Col. Sprague, but said that the action to be witnessed by the public in the next few days would speak for them.

See U. S. Joining Battle.

The presence of District Attorney Johnson at the conference was taken to mean that the federal forces of the district would unite with the prosecutors and police in the war on racketeering.

District Attorney Johnson has been successful in prosecuting gangsters for evasion of income taxes and he is expected to make use of this weapon against the racketeers as rapidly as evidence can be gathered.

Assistant State's Attorneys Charles J. Mueller and Charles Lounsbury, who have been delegated by Prosecutor Swanson to carry on the fight for the state, were reported to have interviewed several racketeer victims yesterday. The appointment of these two prosecutors, who will take over the work heretofore done by Attorney Marshall Solberg, the $12,000 a year prosecutor, specially appointed at the request of certain Association of Commerce interests, was reported to have been indorsed yesterday by Judge McGoorty and other civic leaders. The two prosecutors are to be given a free hand, it was announced.

The first result of the coöperation between the civic organizations and the prosecutor's office was seen yesterday in the speedy voting of true bills against three men, who are charged with trying to extort $10,000 from Congressman Oscar De Priest.

Those named in the true bills are Julius Link, Solly Lason, and Joseph Goldstein. Goldstein is not yet in custody, although the other two men were arrested on Saturday night when they were trapped collecting the money. The information on the plot first came to the "Secret Six" committee and this group worked with Assistant State's Attorney C. Wayland Brooks in bringing about the arrests.

Aaron Moshiek, who was thought to have some connection with the extortion plot, surrendered yesterday. He was released soon afterward when he told Prosecutor Brooks he was "through with the rackets forever." He proved that he had nothing to do with the scheme.

McGoorty Issues Statement.

"The second week of the drive against racketeering opens with every evidence of an aroused public opinion in its support," said a formal statement issued by Chief Justice McGoorty yesterday.

"Efficient and vigorous police work in crime detection and apprehension, manifest appreciation by the state's attorney and his staff of a demanding situation, definite assurance of able and vigorous prosecution led by efficient and courageous assistants, supplemented and aided by various civic bodies, manifest an intensity of purpose to carry on.

"The most gratifying and potent factor in crystallizing public opinion resulting in concrete action during the last week, has been the press. The great metropolitan newspapers of Chicago have unitedly made a profound appeal to the public conscience and therein have exemplified the first traditions of their profession."

CRIMINAL COURT.

James Regulas, crime against children, sentenced to 1 year in the Bridewell by Judge Phillip Finnegan.

William T. Baker and Keith M. Collins, robbery, sentenced to 1 year to life each in the penitentiary by Judge Harry M. Fisher.

Three Children Are Dead from Eating Unripe Fruit

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 15.—(AP)—Three children are dead and a fourth is seriously ill from what physicians described as leucomaine poisoning, a result of eating unripe fruit. They are the children of Robert R. Lowe.

STATE F. OF L. WARNED OF PERIL OF RACKETEERS

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 15.—(AP)—A warning against racketeers who are seeking "to creep into the labor movement to gain control of the treasuries" was sounded at the opening session of the Illinois State Federation of Labor convention here today.

President Robert G. Fitchie told the delegates, "organized labor is now passing through the most dangerous condition it has ever known."

Associates of Fitchie, who is also president of the Chicago Milk Wagon Drivers union, declared he had reference to racketeers who recently have made efforts to gain control of several powerful Chicago unions.

Members of the so-called insurgent faction of the United Mine Workers of America were denied seats. The credentials committee, in announcing the banning of the miners, said it had no other choice in view of the adverse ruling by President William Green of the American Federation of Labor.

YOU ARE PAYING for the NEW PACKARD EIGHT

Why not own one?

AGAIN this year the story of the new Packard Eight is not a sensational one. Packard did not reach its world leadership among fine car manufacturers by sensational means.

The story of the new Packard Eight is the sound and sensible story of a fine car made even finer. That is what Packard has been striving to do and has done each year for thirty years. But no new Packard of recent years has embodied so many refinements and improvements as this one.

Eight years of successful eight-in-line experience result in a powerplant and chassis it now seems impossible to further improve. Precision workmanship is protected by automatic lubrication. Packard designed and built bodies—beautiful with the grace of line always characteristically Packard—increased power, still better performance, still smoother and more quiet luxury of travel—these things distinguish the new car. They are worth experiencing.

But the greatest thing we offer you in a Packard is a sound conservative investment in truly fine transportation—an investment never depreciated by needless changes in design—a long-time investment in motor car satisfaction.

You are probably paying for the new Packard Eight whether you own one or not. If you drive a car of its size and power, we know you are and we can prove it. So why not own one? Operating costs are no greater for a Packard Standard Eight than for any other car of its size regardless of its list price. Depreciation on the Packard is actually less, for you like others will keep it far longer than you would any ordinary car.

Records show that Packard owners keep their cars nearly twice as long as the cars they traded in, and that the chances are nine out of ten that you, having once bought a Packard, will never buy any other make of car!

Allow us to figure your ownership cost for you without obligation. You may find that a new Packard Eight can be yours for a surprisingly small down and monthly payment. If your used car is of average value there may be no down payment necessary.

SECOND ONLY TO A NEW PACKARD IS A USED PACKARD

To Avoid Grease Scum on Glassware

BY MARY LEE WORK

An easier way to do dishes and 2 other hard jobs. Try it yourself and see

Most women are troubled with a cloudy, greasy film on dishes and glassware no matter how carefully they wash them.

You can avoid this entirely with a preparation called Climalene—used according to the directions below. It's the same preparation that smart shops use to make the china and glassware you see on display shine and sparkle so marvelously . . . And in addition, it cuts dishwashing time in half and keeps one's hands lovely.

It makes two other hard jobs easier too—family washing and cleaning silver. You can get a package for 10 cents (12-oz. package) at any grocery store.

Women who use it save themselves hours of needless work. You too, can find time to enjoy life—shop, go to the movies, do many of the things you now think only a woman with servants can do.

To Make Dishes Sparkle Like Jewels

Add one teaspoonful of Climalene to a dishpan of water, use only ¼ the amount of soap you now use. It instantly cuts the grease from dishes and cooking utensils, makes glassware sparkle and china gleam. The Climalene-softened water, plus certain bland cleansing agents, cuts your dishwashing time ½ or more—saves ½ or more the soap you now use.

To Avoid Faded Gray Washings

Use 2 tablespoons of Climalene, and ¼ the usual amount of soap. Clothes emerge soft, spotless, utterly without fading. For soap fade and soap eat are ended this way. In recent tests men's blue shirts were washed 75 times without noticeable fade; sheerest French hosiery 100 times or more—to prove the blandness of this way.

To Clean Silver Without Rubbing

Add one teaspoonful of Climalene to 2 quarts of water in an aluminum pan. Immerse the silver—bring it to a boil. Then rinse silver, and wipe dry. That is all. All signs of tarnish disappear. Even the most intricate and highly embossed silver patterns are perfectly cleaned.

Why It Cleans

Climalene instantly takes all the harshness out of Lake water, medium hard water, and hard water, Makes it soft and gentle as rain water. So soft it does the work with ¼ the soap you now use. At the same time, due to certain bland cleansing agents, it instantly DISSOLVES all grease, dirt and grime, and thus cuts your working time ½ or more, in washing, cleaning and in the dishpan.

"I'M VERY WELL AND NOT DYING!" PONTIFF INSISTS

Pilgrims Told Rumors Came from France.

BY DAVID DARRAH.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, Sept. 15—Pope Pius XI broke his silence today for the first time on the subject of the disquieting rumors about his health, which have been circulating Europe and America all summer. He set completely at rest all fears about his supposed illness or approaching demise, and suggested that such reports, circulated without foundation, were invented in France and probably had some connection with the controversy between the Vatican and the insurgent Action Francaise, the French royalist and Catholic group.

For this reason the pope chose as his audience a group of French teachers, who belong to the Catholic Association for Free Instruction, for the pronouncement about his health. He said:

"Up to today the pope is well, in fact very well, as the pilgrims can see for themselves. As for the future, the pope is in the hands of God, and he could be in no better hands, and God's will will be done today as it was done yesterday and will be done in the future."

Refers to Two Rumors.

This pronouncement was made after the usual ceremony of kissing the ring. The pontiff said he wished to profit by the visit of the French pilgrims to speak of several rumors, which came especially from France, of which the second was not without relation to the first.

The first rumor, continued Pope Pius, was to the effect that the pope was ill, in fact almost dying. He announced that he was receiving from all parts of the world touching letters of filial interest in his health.

Then, after refuting this rumor, the pontiff continued that the second unfounded report was to the effect that the pope had renounced his rigorous and decisive attitude towards the Action Franciase, that he had undergone an evolution of ideas, and was on the point of modifying his views towards the French recalcitrants.

Hasn't Changed His Mind.

"On the contrary," continued the pope, "nothing has been changed, and it will not be the pope who changes. The pope, on the contrary, prays daily for his dear sons in France, not only for those who are obedient and submissive, but for the other unsubmissive ones in order that they may soon put themselves among the number of good sons, who give to their common father the consolation of which he has great need in the midst of the preoccupations which fill his life."

The pope's remarks about his health come ten days after reports that he had had heart failure and was dying. (This report was not printed in THE TRIBUNE.) The pontiff's explanation today gives authenticity to the semi-official explanations of rumors in Rome that they were an offshoot of intrigues in French and German Catholic circles over the next pope. In view of the strained political relations between the two countries, both are said to be interested in having a pope, who would be favorable to their cause.

In France the idea seems to have become established that Cardinal Pacelli, former papal nuncio to Berlin, and lately named secretary of state at the Vatican to replace Cardinal Gasparri, was a probability at the next pope.

FRUIT CROP OF NATION WILL BE NEARLY NORMAL

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Fruit production of the entire country will be close to normal despite the ravages of the drought in several states, the department of agriculture predicted today in its fruit crop forecast of Sept. 1.

"The index of average yield per acre of 15 fruits combined indicates about 19 per cent higher yield this year than in 1929, but 9 per cent below the average of the previous ten years," the report stated. "It now appears that the production of all fruit this year will probably be somewhere around the five year average from 1924 to 1928."

Apples and peaches are below average, grapes are about the same, and all other fruits are expected to exceed the average production, the report stated.

The economical operation and the low cost of maintenance service prove the quality of Graham cars beyond any question.

CONTEST BOARD AAA CERTIFIED TEST

All performance claims herewith made are based on a Certificate of Performance issued by the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association No. 2268

Technical Report and Certificate of Performance . . .

Certified Test No. 2268 Summary of Results

It should be understood that statements made herein are applicable only to tests made under the supervision of the American Automobile Association Contest Board between September 6 and October 5, 1929, over the Pike's Peak Automobile Highway and Colorado Springs and Calhan Road, and the conditions stated, except in so far as the legitimate inferences might be extended.

In consideration of the readings, progress reports, calculations, analyses and general data submitted and attested to by the official representatives of the Contest Board, and in further consideration of the strict compliance of the sanctioner with the various regulations, we do certify to the statements made herein.

Between September 6 and October 5, 1929, three popular nationally known brands of motor oil were tested side by side with CONOCO Germ-Processed oil on Pike's Peak under the supervision of the American Automobile Association Contest Board.

The Board's findings have been expressed briefly in the "fourteen points" below.

1 That the test procedure was followed accurately and that no deviation therefrom occurred which might seriously affect the soundness of any conclusions based upon the data;

2 That a reduction in the rate of wear, occurring during the use of CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil over that occurring with the other oils used to the extent of 76.4 per cent was shown during these tests;

3 That greater stability of the subject oil during these tests was shown by records of examination of drained oils being nearer the viscosity of the original or fresh oil and by chemical tests of drained oils with the fresh oils;

4 That frictional temperatures occurring during the use of the subject oil were lower than temperatures occurring during the use of the comparables;

5 That higher compression pressures were obtained with the use of the subject oil during these tests than with the use of other oils. It would be directly inferred that this was caused by better ring seal;

6 That using the subject oil and during each test, greater gasoline mileage for economy was obtained than during the use of the comparables;

7 That less oil consumption as shown by the records of these tests occurred with the use of the subject oil;

8 That carbon deposits collected from the combustion chambers and cylinder heads and weighed by the official chemist were shown by the records of the test to be less after the use of the subject oil than after the use of the comparables;

9 That the subject oil showed a reduction in the case of crank-case dilution during these tests;

10 That during these tests the subject oil showed improved compression pressure, decreased rate of crank-case dilution and decreased gasoline consumption, indicating an improved ring seal;

11 That a reduction in the operating fuel and oil cost occurring during these tests with the use of the subject oil is substantiated by the records;

12 That with the use of the subject oil there occurred less deviation from cycle to cycle in compression pressure at starting speeds (as shown by the records) would indicate that improved compression at higher speeds might have occurred during these tests;

13 That the reduction in the rate of wear occurring during these tests with the use of the subject oil as shown by the records would indicate a longer motor life;

14 That while there is no reason to suppose that results similar to those of this test would not show under other conditions, it is important that references to these findings be accompanied by the statement that, in so far as the report is concerned, they cannot, as conclusions, be extended generally. However, the inference that they might be so is reasonable and rational, although not conclusive.

Free booklet, "Pike's Peak Tests Confirm CONOCO'S Challenge," gives you complete details of these unusual, fact-finding tests. Ask for it at any CONOCO station or the stations of CONOCO dealers.

Don't Let Those Little Bald Spots Become Big Ones

See Thomas' at Once

Almost before you know it, those little bald spots on the (1) frontal, (2) crown or (3) temple may become large bare areas—unless you do something NOW to stop your abnormal hairfall at these points, and promote natural hair growth. The Thomas' scalp treatment presents a dependable method of keeping those little bald spots from becoming big ones. Thomas' treatment not only stops falling hair, but it promotes a healthy scalp condition, conducive to the growth of hair.

Twenty or thirty years ago it was almost impossible to prevent baldness. Today, the modern, scientific Thomas' treatment has replaced old-fashioned, haphazard methods with modern, scientific precision. This reliable, proved treatment actually goes to the basic source of your own specific scalp trouble—and by overcoming the cause, results in restoring the scalp to a normal, healthy condition. In this manner Thomas' scalp treatment acts as Nature's assistant and makes it possible for hair to grow naturally where it has been hindered by some abnormal scalp condition. Dandruff infection is relieved and hairfall stops.

The Thomas' are reliable scalp specialists. They will tell you frankly if your trouble does not come within their scope of treatment—and they accept for treatment only those for whom they conscientiously feel they can produce the anticipated results. This code of ethics has resulted in their growth to a chain of more than 45 offices, from coast to coast, in fifteen years.

No charge is made for a complete Thomas' scalp examination at any time. Come into the nearest office today and learn the truth about your hair and scalp.

A Statement by the Cadillac Motor Car Company

Concerning the Cadillac and La Salle Program

THE bringing out of the Cadillac V-16 a few months ago and now the new Cadillac and La Salle V-Eights, and early in October the new Cadillac V-12, may give rise to some question as to our manufacturing program.

It is our desire that Cadillac and La Salle owners and the motoring public be apprised of the facts.

The La Salle will remain companion car to Cadillac. It was so introduced, as such it has greatly succeeded and as such it will continue.

Obviously the number of motor cars which any manufacturer may sell in a given price field is finally governed by the ability of the public to buy them.

Cadillac cars having gained almost universal acceptance in the finest car field, any considerable expansion must be through cultivation of a broader market in lower price ranges.

Our experience has been in building fine cars. The Cadillac organization could not adhere to its fine car ideals and successfully produce a low priced car, but through a more complete coverage of the fine car field it was apparent that we could give greater value and appreciably lower prices.

For the broader market, therefore, we created the La Salle out of our Cadillac experience and developed it as a quality car.

For the highest priced fields we have produced the sixteen-cylinder Cadillac and the twelve-cylinder Cadillac. And between the very broad market for the La Salle and the relatively narrow market for twelve and sixteen cylinder cars, there is a large market for Cadillac V-8's.

These lines of cars contribute to one another a tremendous influence in sales, a marked advance in values and make possible the low prices at which Cadillac and La Salle cars are sold.

Were it not for La Salle, all Cadillacs would be higher in price; and were it not for the Cadillacs, La Salle prices would necessarily be so high as to defeat the purpose for which the La Salle was designed.

Each of these lines is dependent one upon the other—the Cadillac V-16, the Cadillac V-12, the Cadillac V-8, and their companion car, the La Salle.

THE GERMAN ELECTION.

Interpretation of a phenomenon like the German election is at this distance extra hazardous. What it means to Germany, to Europe and to the world must wait upon events. But the American observer, drawing cautiously upon our own experience of popular elections, will be inclined to discount radical inferences.

The extraordinary growth of the extremist parties would be from our viewpoint a most alarming portent if it is to be taken at its face value. That the so-called Fascists should spring from twelve seats in the reichstag to over a hundred can hardly comfort any one who believes that what Europe and western civilization most need at this moment is peace and stability. To increase the political power of a man like Hitler can hardly contribute to either. On the other hand we in America are acquainted with what we call a vote of protest, which represents a reaction against unsatisfactory conditions rather than either confidence in the character of the party benefited or approval of its policies.

Germany has been passing through great tribulations with which its form of parliamentary politics is ill fitted to deal very successfully. Parliamentary government in Europe generally has not met efficiently the problems of reconstruction which the vast destruction and demoralization of the war created. Hence there has been widespread reaction against it in countries the experience and traditions of which have not prepared them for so drastic a test. One form or another of autocratic control has been adopted, bolshevism in Russia, Fascism in Italy, dictatorships in Spain and other countries.

But for Germany we continue to have faith in republicanism. The Germans are the most stable and orderly people of the continent, with a very high level of character and intelligence. If any people in the world are fit for self-government and popular institutions they are. The republic was of course launched upon stormy seas with a depleted equipment and heavily laden. It is natural if not indeed inevitable that it would have a dangerous and difficult voyage, at least in its first stages. But we have confidence, based we think on fundamental conditions, that the republic will survive and move on to quieter weather. The present situation is discouraging and fraught with peril, but it is characteristic of a strong and intelligent people that crisis brings forth its greatest powers.

The increase in the parliamentary strength of the reactionary parties cannot be welcomed by any one who desires peace in Europe or believes in the possibilities of popular government. Yet its potentialities for mischief may be overestimated. It is reasonable to believe that it will unite moderate opinion and the substantial interests committed to stability and reconstruction, which have hitherto been divided upon what to us in America seem to be relatively unimportant issues. Certainly, from the American viewpoint, it would be beneficial to the republic if the differences which have split German party politics into many ineffectual wrangling groups were swept away and the deeper issues clarified and concentrated upon. Compromise and unification for effective government have taken place within party organization in Great Britain and America, where parliamentary or party government has met the most serious issues successfully. On the continent the process of compromise and coöperation has been thrust into parliament and the process of government with the inevitable effect of keeping both in a perpetual turmoil which has insured the instability and inefficiency of both. It would be well for Germany if it learned this lesson. It puzzles us that it has not done so. German patience and sense of order, German genius for organization and practical achievement are sorely needed in its political affairs.

WHEN NORTH AND SOUTH AMERICA CO-OPERATE.

An American culture is finding form and new expression south of the Rio Grande, says Dr. Jorge M. Chavarri, consul for Peru, and Romance peoples down the world as far as Patagonia are breaking from a cultural provincialism attached to Spain or Paris, as the north broke from London, to find a mutual exchange and intellectual independence within the western system. Trade and tourist traffic between the north and south increases, art and educational coöperation improves, and the growth of credits and investments since the great war is most encouraging. The intellectuals and students as well as business men of the North and South Americas find more and more in common. From Ibero-American lands some 660 students now find their way to North American universities. With a recent Guggenheim Foundation devoted to this end, and a further adjustment by our universities to the needs of foreign students, this number will increase.

The new South America, of which Dr. Chavarri is an example, like the new North America, is conscious more and more of the western pattern and integrity of living and will move away from cultural dependence on Europe towards a native western plan of life and human values. Dr. Chavarri is himself, we understand, a graduate of Northwestern university, a young liberal and a brilliant student who brought into the somewhat provincial life of an average American student body new ideas and attitudes and amiable but upsetting criticism. More emissaries from student South America will be all to our advantage.

Coöperation in the western hemisphere in education and in trade, in finance and in art and literature will be the key to our development for many generations. It is no accident that Mexican painting is today, according to good authority, the most significant and vital in the Americas, or that modern poetry finds one of its finest expressions among the western Romance peoples. The north has much to learn from South America and the Ibero-American peoples can gain in turn from coöperation with their north neighbor.

JUDGE ERICKSON CORRECTS US.

Judge Erickson protests against and corrects the statement that he reduced the bonds of the gangsters, Condi and Alderman. He did not overrule the decision of Judge Lyle in this respect, but merely approved the bond offered in their behalf by the bondsman, Anselmi.

We are glad to have this correction and to give it the same publicity the erroneous statement had. But we are not able to share Judge Erickson's view of the propriety of the whole proceeding. His approval of the bond was not sustained, for the bond was found faulty when investigated the following morning, and we would repeat that there was in the reputation of the applicants and the bondsman a warning against hasty action which any judge should have recognized, even in the small hours of the night.

We have, we think, as much regard for civil right and due process of law as Judge Erickson, but we are also aware, as we think he must be, that the right of bail is grossly abused to the defeat of justice and the weakening of the defense of the community against habitual criminality. In due time the legal means of dealing with this evil will be established by judicial decision or by legislative amendment or by both, but in the meanwhile we think it not too much to expect our judges to resolve doubts in favor of public security and not in favor of individuals notoriously at odds with it. We see no reason why a judge need fear that individuals who are able to procure promptly a bondsman who schedules property of the value of $140,000 will lack the means to enforce their constitutional rights by due process of law even to the highest tribunal. Haste to their rescue does not seem to us to indicate merely a jealous regard for the rights of the oppressed obscure. Professional criminality is neither weak nor obscure. It is powerful and brazen and this is a fact of which any judge might properly take judicial cognizance.

CHICAGO AS AN AIR PORT OF ENTRY.

As the central airport of the United States Chicago should be made a port of entry. With Canada one hop away in several directions air trips now must be broken at Detroit or elsewhere for customs examination, or the arrivals must wait for customs men to come out to the air fields. In either case it is a time wasting, complicated process that should be simplified.

With transportation made agreeable and simple by the air route Canada might well become the destination of a week-end trip for business or for pleasure on the part of many residents of Chicago. London, Ontario, Hamilton, Montreal, and a dozen other towns and resorts of Canada are within easy reach, and the stimulation of more travel thereto would be of mutual advantage to both countries.

Chicago is more than a domestic airport; it can well become a port of international consequence. Better regulations as to entry and customs will help greatly toward that end.

A BUSINESS STIMULATOR.

Business, both wholesale and retail, in Chicago seems to have been benefited by the presence in the city during the summer of large numbers of out of town visitors. Many of them came for conventions like that of the bar association and to attend the air races, the music festival and the ball games, to mention only a few of the many attractions which Chicago has offered this summer.

Through the Association of Commerce, Chicago maintains a convention bureau, but we have no doubt that the bureau would appreciate assistance from unofficial sources. Efforts can be made by alumni to bring their college reunions and football games to Chicago. Members of business associations and fraternal organizations can urge that national and sectional conventions be held here. No city is as well equipped to entertain large numbers of visitors. A little salesmanship will turn the trick.

Editorial of the Day

STUPID AND UNPATRIOTIC.
[Detroit Free Press.]

The action of the Anti-Saloon League of Illinois in sponsoring a woman "dry" as an independent Republican candidate for the senate, against Mrs. Ruth McCormick, shows how little assistance the country need expect from the league in cleaning up the mess that organization forced upon it through the prohibition amendment.

There is not the slightest chance in the world of the league's candidate being elected to the senate. All that she can do is to embarrass Mrs. McCormick's chances of election; and, if she is successful in bringing about Mrs. McCormick's defeat, to elect James Hamilton Lewis, a Democrat and, constitutionally speaking, a dripping wet. This is the punishment which the Anti-Saloon league intends to visit upon Mrs. McCormick for pledging herself to vote on the prohibition question as her constituents have shown by a referendum that they wish her to vote.

The intimidatory methods employed by the Anti-Saloon league to obtain its appointed ends were never more clearly revealed than by this action. The league, which is willing to sacrifice anything to ram prohibition down the throat of a reluctant people, says plainly enough that the betrayal of a senator's constituents is the price of its approbation and indorsement. This revelation of its bull headed disregard of the primary ethic of representative government ought to be sufficient to rally to the support of its intended victim all those who believe in constitutional government, as well as all those who have come to realize that the country is off on the wrong foot on the question of liquor control.

The only way that question will ever be settled satisfactorily is by compromise. The refusal of the Anti-Saloon league to listen to reason writes it off the list of organizations working honestly and helpfully for a liquor control system that will be acceptable to the country as a whole and which will effectively promote temperance.

WEIGHT OF CLOTHING.

THE material from which clothing is made is a matter of minor consequence as far as comfort is concerned. The weave is of much greater importance. In warm weather comfort is promoted by clothing which is open and light in weight. In cold weather the need is for a garment which is closely woven, impervious to air and moisture, so far as its outer layer is concerned, and with plenty of air spaces in other parts of the fabric. Either cotton or wool can be woven so as to meet these requirements. At the same time, cotton is more easily fabricated into comfortable summer garments and wool into comfortable winter garments.

If a cotton garment becomes wet it clings to the skin. This makes it cold, and when the weather is cold that is an unpleasant and harmful quality. The wet garment chills the skin and whether or not it does harm depends upon just this chilling. On a very hot day sweat soaked garments cause no chilling and do no harm.

The need for comfort in cold weather is best met by an outer layer close and thick enough to turn water and air. Underneath this the fabric should be loose enough to hold air in the fabric. When this trapped air is warmed and dry it insulates and holds in the heat and moisture from the body. It is this air within the clothing and around the skin that determines comfort. Skins tanned with the fur inside meet the cold weather needs exactly. The skin sheds water and stops the wind. The fur inside traps moist air. The nearer a fabric conforms to the specifications of skin tanned with the fur inside the warmer it will be.

MANY POSSIBLE CAUSES.

C. W. writes: What is the cause for one's heart to miss beats? Do you think it is heart trouble? It has done this for two years. I seem well every other way.

REPLY.

Among the possibilities are nervousness, irritable heart, organic heart disease, goiter, excessive use of tobacco, and excessive use of coffee. A physician should be able to say why your heart beat intermits, and whether you need do anything about it. In some instances the symptom is unimportant.

BUTTERMILK AND FAT.

L. H. B. writes: If I go on a buttermilk diet for rheumatism will it make me fat? I am 5 feet 6 inches and weigh 200 pounds. If the milk will reduce my fat how much should I take each day?

REPLY.

If you eat about as you have always done and drink a pint or more of buttermilk in addition, you will put on weight. If you cut your diet in half and drink a pint of buttermilk daily in addition you should lose weight.

Drinking buttermilk will not have any material effect on rheumatism.

SWIMMING AND FAT.

Mrs. K. W. T. writes:

1. Does swimming make a person thin?
2. Does it make the heart beat fast and cause it to pain?
3. Is this a nervous heart?
4. Are two cold showers a day during hot weather detrimental to health?

REPLY.

1. No. The only fat athletes are the swimmers.
2. Not especially.
3. Have your heart examined. Examination after some violent exertion will be most liable to disclose trouble if there be any.
4. No.

CONSTIPATION AND SALT.

Mrs. W. E. F. writes: I have found a simple and cheap remedy for constipation. I have been constipated for thirty-six years and had to take a laxative every night, but I never take one now. I take a half teaspoonful of salt in a large glass of warm water half an hour before breakfast. The first time it made me a little sick, but never afterward, and it has never failed.

FRIEND OF THE PEOPLE

Letters to this department must be signed with names and addresses of writers.

TAX TITLES.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—If real estate property in Illinois is sold for taxes [1] how long before the purchaser can get a clear title for same and how long a time has the owner to release same? 2. If same is a home occupied by the owner, how long can he hold the property? 3. When taxes are not paid, but put up for sale and no bidders, what will be the final result?

1. Ordinarily, tax titles are not so handled as to make the tax deed valid in itself, but it is regarded as a sufficient paper title so that if the property is vacant and the grantee pays the taxes for seven years, the title would then become good under the seven year statute.
2. No lapse of time would make the title good where it is occupied by another person.
3. They are forfeited to the state of Illinois, so that they are a lien upon the title.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

NO GARBAGE RECEPTACLES.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—[Friend of the People.]—The owner of the building across the alley from us has not furnished a receptacle for garbage and other refuse but has merely made a partition of boards extending into the alley where all refuse is dumped. The dogs and cats of the neighborhood spread this garbage all over the alley. R. M. G.

Report is made that notice has been served on owner of building referred to to remove rubbish from alley and to provide regulation receptacles for the accommodation of refuse output. Location will be kept under observation to see that this is done promptly.

CONTRACT WITH MINOR.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—I bought clothing from a credit firm with agreement to make weekly payments. I lost my job suddenly and have not been able to live up to my contract. They threaten court action and as I was 19 when I bought the goods, and had no guarantor sign for me, can they sue me?

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

BIG TEN FOOTBALL.

FOOTBALL practice for Big Ten college elevens opened officially yesterday. Which means that the world series, in which the Cubs may or may not participate, will be hardly out of the way before the gridiron heroes are embarked on their conference schedules. It promises to be a season just as difficult to forecast as those of the last several years. It is customary at this time, however, to draw up a tentative rating on advance "dope," dope which is just as uncertain as that of the baseball variety.

Therefore the Wake-Line has gathered for college followers estimates of relative strength from various sources, coördinated into a general perspective. Please bear in mind it is not our estimate, but what we have been told.

Under this consensus Northwestern, Michigan, Illinois, and Purdue are placed in the first flight. Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Ohio State are ranked in the second division. Chicago, Indiana, and Iowa, because it has only one conference game, are in the lower bracket. At the end of the season we may laugh at this grouping.

Taking up these colleges in order, Coach Hanley at Northwestern perhaps has the eleven best starting men in the conference. Several coaches have told us that. But eleven men are not enough under modern conditions. Purple secondary strength is problematical, below that of several rivals. The Evanstonians have a bruising schedule, opening with Tulane, champions of the south, followed on successive Saturdays by Ohio State and Illinois. Northwestern's final rating will depend on whether the limited number of high grade players "wear out."

Michigan, which with Purdue and Ohio State was credited with a strong freshman squad a year ago, now available as sophomores, for the last two years began so slowly that a meeting of the Grand Rapids alumni was imminent (you remember the G. R. alumni, don't you?) and ended with a flourish. It had power last season, but was not accounted a "smart" eleven. Michigan elevens usually are "smart." With veterans remaining and new material coming up, Coach Kipke has great prospects.

Illinois has a versatile backfield, with the new sophomore wonder already well advertised. Zuppke usually produces a strong line. If he can fill those forward vacancies the Illini will be tough foes. We never despair when Zup loses a senior team. He seems at his best in developing sophomores and has a habit of turning out a champion outfit from new men with a few veterans for seasoning. The Wake-Line, on this basis, expects formidable strength at Illinois.

Purdue lost great scoring power when Welch and Harmeson graduated. It had good substitute backs, however, has a good line from tackle to tackle, and promising sophomores. Undefeated last season, the Boilermakers have a much harder schedule this season which will provide a trying test.

Minnesota, under new coaches, Crisler and Vileman, has veterans back, although losing heavily in stars from both line and backfield. We are told the freshman material was not up to usual Gopher standards. Alumni, while not downhearted, look to a year of building up.

Wisconsin needs a stronger line for its double wing back attack. Unless the line is strengthened the Badgers will be good, but hardly title class. Some year those Badgers are coming into their own, and this may be the year.

Ohio State is more or less a dark horse. General opinion, however, is that the Buckeyes need another year of building up before entering the first flight.

Chicago, always dangerous in any one game under Stagg's coaching, has not material or reserves for title ranking. Indiana, which usually surprises one or more opponents each season, is in the same category. Iowa, heavily penalized by its recent ruction with the Big Ten, will start rebuilding and has only Purdue as a Big Ten opponent.

Slithers and spits in the crimson foam—
But the old flag flying still!

But the old flag flying still!
Giant grim and Dodger dour
Peer through the battle smoke
And curse the pennon that will not down—
And the old flag flying still!

"Who calls it quits? Jump headlong, hear!
Lifted each gunner his grimy face,
Teeth clenched, eyes piercing and unafraid.
"We're with you, Captain, give 'em hell!"
Was the answer there—

CRIME'S BODYGUARD

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

16 YEARS AGO TODAY

SEPTEMBER 16, 1914.

WASHINGTON. — Evacuation of Vera Cruz was ordered by President Wilson. The American soldiers and marines who, under Gen. Funston, have held Mexico's principal seaport since it was seized by the fleet on June 21 last, will embark for home as soon as transports can go for them. The reason given by the President is "the entire removal of the circumstances which were thought to justify the occupation."

PARIS.—The great battle of the Marne has been succeeded by maneuvering by which the opposing forces hope to gain the advantage in position for the huge contest which will start within a few days and which may prove the crisis of the campaign in France. Gen. von Kluck, commander of the right wing of the German army, has made a stand in a strongly entrenched position north of the River Aisne, on a line marked by the forests of l'Aigle and Craonne. The main German forces under Gens. von Buelow and von Hausen, the duke of Württemberg, and the Crown Prince Friedrich Wilhelm stretch along the River Aisne to the hills beyond Reims and thence to Verdun.

BERLIN [By Wireless to Sayville, L. I.]—It was officially announced that Gen. von Hindenburg telegraphed Emperor William that the Russian army of Vilna, composed of the 2d, 3d, 4th, and 20th army corps, two reserve divisions, and five divisions of cavalry, has been completely defeated by the Germans. The Russian casualties were heavy.

PETROGRAD.—The Russian general staff announced that no fighting has occurred in the last twenty-four hours in East Prussia.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

SEPTEMBER 16, 1900.

GALVESTON. — More than 20,000 persons of the 38,000 living in this city before the storm are in need of aid. Three-fourths of the city's population are absolutely destitute as a result of the disaster. Many men, formerly well to do, are reduced to poverty and must begin life's struggles over again.

CHICAGO.—Baron Curt von Biedenfeld, a former officer of the Prussian army, who in November, 1898, while living in Chicago, shot and killed Charles A. McDonald, a detective, but was acquitted after a long trial, has written a book in which he severely criticizes Americans in general and Chicago in particular. He says that "if any one wishes to learn how to lie he will find America the best school." Of Chicagoans he writes: "The Chicagoan has so far no rival in America as far as cheek and independence are concerned." The baron's wife was Miss Cummings, niece of Columbus R. Cummings.

PHILADELPHIA. — Reports from the Scranton region that 75,000 anthracite miners had walked out, combined with the 25,000 or 30,000 who had already laid down their tools, strengthen materially the confident statements of United Mine Workers' leaders that few, if any, collieries will be in operation by Monday. It is estimated that 145,000 men will be idle. A large store of bombs was found at Bunker Hill, a hamlet near Hazleton, Pa., a stanch union settlement of Italian miners.

FORT SMITH.—Col. Parker and Secretary Irwin leave here tomorrow for Bluff Creek, Colorado territory, via Fort Riley, to meet Gen. Sanborn, Supt. Murphy, Kit Carson, and W. W. Bent, to make a treaty with the Cheyennes and Arapahoes on Oct. 4.

CHICAGO.—A party of distinguished English capitalists arrived here last night and are at the Tremont house. They were received by a committee appointed by the Board of Trade, consisting of J. H. Bowen, Ira Y. Munn, W. F. Coolbaugh, J. C. Dore, C. L. Wilson, T. B. Blackstone, George L. Dunlap, A. N. Towne, H. E. Sargent, C. G. Hammond, S. A. Smith, William Sturges, John F. Tracy, John L. RADIO PRONUNCIATION

Benton Harbor, Mich., Sept. 6.—I have noticed with increasing disgust the inaccuracy of pronunciation in broadcasting of announcers and news readers when reading foreign names and foreign words. The simplest words which are so familiar to people of any culture are given a nerve curdling Americanized vowel sound which is nothing short of ridiculously ignorant.

Why tolerate a nasal tone and a hit or miss just-as-you-please pronunciation of foreign words, since these foreign words are used repeatedly every day in giving the names of musical selections and foreign news? With our country harboring thousands of Europeans and South Americans of culture, not to speak of our own educated people, will it not be worth the effort of a few hours' study for those who speak to the public to do it correctly at least?

MRS. F. M. SWIFT.

NO FAITH IN LEGAL PROSECUTION.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—The experience of James Crawford with out of town hoodlums smashing his car recalls to my mind a similar experience, only in this case we took it out of their hides right then and there; simply kicked the tar out of them and sent them on their way with carefulness and discretion as their watchword.

This procedure was adopted after an experience in Judge Max Luster's court last spring. Two hoodlums had impersonated police officers late one night and cornered my two clerks immediately after closing the drug store. They searched them, all the while threatening and cursing. The clerks had no guns and very little money. Just at the time a flivver squad passed and one of the clerks called to the officers. The hoodlums attempted to escape, but were arrested. At the hearing they got a continuance. Before court opened the second day one of the hoodlums arrived with a huge envelope, which he gave to the bailiff. I was present myself. The hoodlums grinned triumphantly at me and the clerk. The case was dismissed almost as soon as it was called with the remark that "no crippled boy could impersonate an officer." It is true one of them limped slightly, but neither was a boy. Each was at least 26 years old.

WILLIAM C. ADAMS.

TREES FROM TOADSTOOLS.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—I sincerely hope the electorate of Chicago will duplicate their decisive negative vote of last November in the forthcoming November election on the $2,500,000 bond issue of the Cook county forest preserves. The lack of care of the forest preserves is an absolute disgrace and there is no attempt to preserve their beauty. Some of the political appointees don't know the difference between a tree and a toadstool, nor could they recognize them.

EDGEBROOK.

TESTIMONY OF A TICKET AGENT.

Villa Park, Ill., Sept. 8.—The writer was a night ticket agent on the elevated north side line for almost 100 nights during the summer of 1916, working the stations from the loop north to the end of the system at that time, and the saloons were open on every side all night. They were required to lock up at 12:00 m. and they simply locked the front door and opened the rear door, or used a family entrance at the side.

During the time I occupied these stations at night there were only four nights in almost 100 that I did not have to go out, or send out, and call the police to rid the stations of drunks and disorderly characters.

I have been on the same job on the Metropolitan branch of the elevated system for almost eight years, beginning in the early spring of 1923 and working at night the same as I did on the north side in 1916, and in the seven and a half years without the saloon I have had to call the police six times. There is no man in Chicago that has a better chance to know how much drunkenness there is on the streets than the men out here in these elevated stations during the silent hours of the night. I can make oath that I have not seen a drunken American in any station I have worked for the last five years. I have seen some drunks, it is true, but they were chuckle headed foreigners.

W. C. IRVINE.

BUCKINGHAM FOUNTAIN.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Perhaps those in charge of the Buckingham fountain do not fully appreciate its importance to the public. Viewing its major display is not a chance occurrence, but a deliberately planned event. It was a paramount reason for a friend of mine making a stopover in Chicago. When we arrived at the fountain just after 9 o'clock last evening we learned the time of the major display had been from eight to nine o'clock, the change beginning with that evening. Words cannot describe our keen disappointment, since this friend will not be here on another night when there is a major display and will not be near Chicago again for several years.

I feel this or any other change in the display of Buckingham fountain warranted at least a notice in a conspicuous place in THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

6,500 IRISH MADE FORD TRACTORS IMPORTED BY U. S.

In 7 Months Factory Does $11,000,000 Business

BY HUGH CURRAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

DUBLIN, Ireland, Sept. 15.—Government statistics issued today for seven months' trade, ending as of July 31, indicate that agricultural and industrial tractors and tractor parts exported during that period were valued at about $11,000,000. All were the products of Henry Ford's factory at Cork.

Of the total output of agricultural tractors, namely 13,552, almost half went to the United States. These tractors enter the United States free of duty under the tariff law which exempts agricultural implements from import charges. Of the remainder, Australia, with 947, was the next largest purchaser. Canada took 758, Argentina 690, Germany 584, France 495, and other countries smaller consignments.

Russia Is Big Buyer.

The output of industrial tractors during this period was 1,661, most of which went to Great Britain, France, New Zealand, and Japan. Only five went to the United States.

Tractor parts exported were valued at more than $3,000,000. Russia was the largest purchaser, taking nearly two-thirds of the total. The balance went to the following countries in the order of their values: The United States, Great Britain, Italy, Germany, and Turkey.

Owing to the fact that work was stopped at the Ford works during July and August and the fact that the full staff is not yet working, export figures for later months probably will show a drop.

Ford Tells His Views.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, Sept. 15.—On the eve of his departure for Germany to attend the Passion Play at Oberammergau, Henry Ford gave his views tonight on four major points, as follows:

First, he intends to manufacture automobiles abroad henceforth instead of shipping them from America or assembling them from parts shipped from America.

Second, he will pay the American scale of wages in Europe, despite the fact that French mechanics earn only $1.12 per day.

Third, he believes industry in the United States will eventually operate but nine months of the year, with the employes engaged in agricultural work the other three months.

Fourth, he is convinced the entire world will adopt prohibition before long.

WOMAN WRITER TO TAKE FAMILY NAME, PATTERSON

Mrs. Eleanor Schlesinger, recently appointed editor-in-chief of the Washington Herald, yesterday filed a petition in Circuit court here to change her name to Eleanor Medill Patterson. Mrs. Patterson's husband, Elmer Schlesinger, a lawyer, died suddenly on Feb. 20, 1929 while golfing at Aiken, S. C. Formerly the Countess Gizycka, she resumed her maiden name, which is the same as her mother's Eleanor Medill Patterson, at the latter's request.

Mrs. Patterson and her family have long been known in Washington in official and other circles. She is the granddaughter of Joseph Medill, founder of THE TRIBUNE, and is a writer of novels and signed articles. She maintains a legal residence in this city.

FRENCH ATLANTIC FLYERS TO VISIT CITY THURSDAY

Maj. Dieudonne Coste and Lieut. Maurice Bellonte, French flyers who flew from Paris to New York, will arrive at the Curtiss-Reynolds-Wright airport Thursday afternoon. Final plans for their reception were announced last night by the aviation committee of the Association of Commerce, sponsoring the Chicago visit.

The French flyers, accompanied by a party of seven flying in three planes, will fly to Chicago by way of Lansing, Mich., Joliet, and Elgin. An escort of airplanes will fly to Elgin and accompany the flyers to the city.

A banquet will be given Thursday night at the Hotel Sherman with Col. Robert I. Randolph, president of the Association of Commerce, as toastmaster. Invitations have been tendered to Gov. Louis L. Emmerson, members of the French consulate, Maj. Gen. Frank Parker, Admiral Walter J. Crosley and American Legion officials.

TREATY REVISION 'GHOST' ALARMS ALLIES AT GENEVA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

GENEVA, Sept. 15.—Another sensation was sprung in the league of nations this afternoon, when the dreaded ghost of the revision of treaties stalked into the assembly hall.

Count Albert Apponyi, the Hungarian delegate, brought up the question in his speech by declaring that the allied powers did not have the right to ask defeated nations to accept treaties in the spirit of resignation until they themselves had executed the reciprocal obligations proposed in the treaty of Versailles.

The only other excitement of the day was the conference between Foreign Minister Aristide Briand of France and Foreign Secretary Arthur Henderson of Great Britain. The talk resulted in a decision to recommend to the assembly that Briand's plan for an European federation be referred to a special committee for study and that the result will be submitted to the assembly next year.

Since the British had previously insisted that the project be referred to the sixth committee—which would mean burial—the French consider this decision as a triumph for Briand's thesis.

Mother, keep your baby safe from loose pins and buttons

Vanta

Baby Garments

No Pins No Buttons

Mother, protect baby's tender body from pins that come unfastened and buttons that turn edgewise. Protect him, too, against the dreaded danger of a swallowed pin or button. Keep baby safe and always comfortable by dressing him for the first two years in Vanta Baby Garments, the softest of garments that fasten with dainty bows of twistless tape. No twisting or turning of baby to dress him. Never too tight or too loose. Adjustable too, as baby grows.

Doctors and Nurses Recommend Vanta

Thousands of doctors and nurses advise the use of Vanta Garments until baby is two years old. Not alone for safety from loose pins and buttons, but because Vanta garments are scientifically made to fulfill every requirement for health and protection. Vanta, you know, has originated almost every improvement in baby garments that has been made during the last half century.

Every Prescribed Weight —Guaranteed Non-Shrinkable

Also Vanta Self-Help Garments

After baby is two years old, Vanta Self-Help Garments, bearing the Red Heart label, make it easy to teach him to dress himself, thus saving mother's time and at the same time training baby's mind.

Buy Vanta Garments and Vanta Baby Bess Hosiery at your favorite store. All stores have them. Made by EARNSHAW KNITTING CO., INC. NEWTON, MASSACHUSETTS.

PERUVIAN REVOLT SEEN AS UNITING ALL SO. AMERICA

Nations Rally to Support of New Regime.

BY C. N. GRIFFIS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LIMA, Peru, Sept. 15.—The fears of clouds looming up on the international horizon, as a consequence of the Sanchez Cerro revolution, have in recent weeks been dissipated. At none of Peru's frontiers has there been any incident which might be considered untoward.

On the contrary, the rapid recognition of the Peruvian government by adjoining South American governments has given a greater aspect of political cohesion on this continent than there has been since the days of the Spanish vice royalty. Whether this may eventually solidify a South American political bloc remains to be seen.

No Anti-American Feeling.

There has been no serious anti-American feeling evidenced in Peru. All of the Americans who were detained for a few hours or a few days, owing to their connections with government contracts, have been released, and all have expressed their willingness to render full accounts.

Criticism of government expenditures, as far as Americans are concerned, may be made on questions of policy; but it is extremely unlikely that anything in the nature of grafting will be charged against them. It has been announced that the regular officers of the United States naval mission will continue their contract here, but their status has been changed from an executive to a consultive capacity. Capt. Charles Gordon Davy, head of the naval school, has voluntarily resigned that post for personal reasons, and the final decision on Commander Harold B. Grow's case is yet to be taken.

35 Prominent Men Jailed.

LIMA, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Thirty-five prominent political and military men were reported tonight to have been arrested today "on political grounds" by the military government. Among them was Gen. Manuel M. Ponce, head of the Provisional Military Junta that took over the government in Lima after the resignation of President Leguia. Col. Sanchez Cerro refused to accept the Ponce Junta at the time and it speedily resigned to make way for his Junta. Pedro José Rada Gamio former foreign minister, and many ex-congressmen were among those detained. Rada Gamio is seriously ill. He was carried away in an ambulance.

U. S. Recognition Near.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Prospects of American recognition of the provisional Uriburu government in Argentina without undue delay appeared more certain today after Secretary of State Stimson returned to his duties from an extended vacation. He gave immediate attention to the problem raised by the recent revolutions in Argentina, Bolivia and Peru.

FIVE LATIN "SISTERS" HAIL 109TH YEAR OF FREEDOM FROM SPAIN

GUATEMALA CITY, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Five Latin sisters—Guatemala, Honduras, Costa Rica, El Salvador, and Nicaragua—today celebrated the 109th anniversary of their independence.

All five countries comprised the captain generalcy of Guatemala when independence from Spain was declared Sept. 15, 1821. A sovereign and unified government was achieved without bloodshed and the five countries were held together in the central American federation for some time. Although separate governments have been formed, all five republics of central American regard Sept. 15, 1921, as the date of their beginning.

The anniversary today was the occasion for military parades and presidential receptions in the five capitals.

HOOVER'S SON ILL; QUITS AIR JOB FOR A REST

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15—(AP)—Herbert Hoover, Jr., has temporarily given up his work as a technical radio adviser for the Western Air Express and gone to the President's camp on the Rapidan to recuperate from a slight illness.

At the White House tonight it was emphasized that the illness was not serious, but that he was simply taking a leave of absence for two or three months.

Fire Starts Among Oily Rags; Damage Is $5,000

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—A loss estimated at $5,000 was caused by a fire late tonight said to have started among oily rags in the warehouse of William Braeger & Co. at the south end of the Clinton street bridge on the Kinnickinnic river. Fish netting stored in the building was destroyed.

FARMERS SEIZE FEDERAL DRY IN GRAFT ATTEMPT

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Fond du Lac, Wis., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Captured by a gang of farmers, William M. Graves, a federal prohibition agent for the eastern Wisconsin district headquarters in Milwaukee, was charged today with attempted extortion.

His wife, Elsie, also was captured when she brandished a .45 caliber revolver in an attempt to help her husband to escape. Authorities, however, said they would not prefer charges against the woman.

Bound Over for Trial.

Graves waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to Circuit court for trial in November when arraigned this afternoon before Judge H. M. Fellenz in Municipal court. Bond was fixed at $750 and was furnished. The offense with which the dry agent is charged provides a penalty of two years in state's prison.

The warrant was signed by Charles Pranskuns, Waucousta farmer.

Graves made a written confession in which he admitted his attempt to collect $100 from the farmer. He charged, however, that when he first visited the Pranskuns farm he caught Pranskuns in a barn in which two stills were in operation. Pranskuns denied he had ever had a still.

Suspended by Herbert.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Action by the federal government in the case of William M. Graves, federal prohibition agent charged with attempted extortion at Fond du Lac, rests with prohibition headquarters at Washington, Levi H. Bancroft, United States district attorney here, said tonight.

Graves was suspended today by Col. John Herbert, district prohibition administrator in Chicago, pending investigation of the state's charges by an agent of the department of justice.

Graves has been working out of the Milwaukee office for about two years and was connected with the Chicago office for a short period.

ONE BANDIT SHOOTS ANOTHER, MAKING THIS HOLDUP UTTER FAILURE

Carroll, Ia., Sept. 15.—(AP)—A clanging burglar alarm today frustrated an attempt by five bandits to rob the Carroll County State bank, but they carried with them as they escaped a wounded companion.

The wounded bandit was shot by one of his companions as he started to walk out of the vault. The assistant cashier, George Werdel, narrowly escaped serious injury when a bullet from a bandit gun passed through his coat sleeve, grazing his elbow.

As three of the bandits entered the cage while a fourth waited in the lobby, George Hess Jr., cashier, stepped on the burglar alarm.

The noise was believed to have frightened the men and they ran from the bank without obtaining any money. It was at that time that one of the bandits and Werdel were shot. They escaped to a waiting automobile and are believed to have headed for Sioux City.

YES, BUT GIVE ME THE LEVIATHAN

There is no set so critical as the smart sophisticates who cross the Atlantic . . . liners become personalities . . . details become characteristics. On piers, in dining salons, in smoking rooms conversation invariably begins and ends with the LEVIATHAN, World's Largest Ship . . . "Her staterooms are so spacious that positively eight or ten people can assemble in one for tea or tete-a-tete without the slightest crowding" . . . "Yes, and every one has a telephone" . . . "I have never seen a night club in Paris or London or New York to equal the brilliance of the Club Leviathan" . . . "And such chic! I never saw so many smartly gowned women as in the dining salon" . . . "Nor did you ever taste such caviar and coffee" . . . "Isn't that Ben Bernie dance orchestra marvelous—I could dance to Cherbourg" . . . "I telephoned to Dallas from the middle of the ocean; the connection was so clear my wife thought I'd missed the boat" . . . "I don't even have to think; these stewards do that for me." Leisure, luxury and sublime lassitude . . . idyllic foil for the fast tempo of life . . . LEVIATHAN invests you with it for 5 days, 6 hours on the blue Atlantic.

PHILADELPHIA

where coverage and cost simplify the advertiser's program

IN Philadelphia, advertising conditions are most unusual. In this great metropolitan center, one newspaper does a thorough merchandising job, reaches nearly every home in city and suburbs.

The coverage and advertising cost of The Evening Bulletin, in Philadelphia, set a new standard of efficiency in market service for the advertiser.

Philadelphia and suburbs contain 572,600 homes; The Bulletin's net paid circulation is 555,711 copies daily, almost entirely concentrated in this area. Larger than any Philadelphia Sunday newspaper; more than double the circulation of any other Philadelphia evening newspaper; almost as great as all of the Philadelphia morning papers combined.

The buying power and the stability of a market can be gauged by the number of its individual homes and home owners. Philadelphia presents the largest community of home owners in America ... the greatest sales insurance any market can offer.

The Evening Bulletin was planned for Philadelphia more than a third of a century ago. For thirty-five years it has grown in the confidence and respect of business and of the home, without premium, prize or coupon, without shock headline or circulation contest.

Until, today—the Philadelphia Market is the Bulletin Market. A market of three million people, with its billion dollar potential in yearly retail sales; with its greatest construction program in history giving additional purchasing power; with its 4,987 manufacturing establishments, so varied in their manufactured products that unusually steady employment prevails; with its port and rail facilities providing easy accessibility, and economy of distribution—

With the greatest community of home owners in America guaranteeing stability and permanence in sales.

A great market! A unique opportunity! Sell in the Philadelphia Market Area, where the sales facts and cost figures merit the attention of every advertiser today.

HURLEY PLEDGES U. S. TO AID ALL RIVER PROJECTS

Ends 2,000 Mile Boat Trip Down Mississippi.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New Orleans, La., Sept. 15.—(Special)—At the end of the 2,000 mile water trail upon which he embarked fifteen days ago, Secretary of War Hurley tonight dwelt glowingly upon the possibilities of the Mississippi river as a navigable stream and pledged the coöperation of the war department in pushing forward all projects to improve the channel in the upper river and curb the flood danger in the lower section.

Never before had a cabinet officer undertaken such a thorough study of the inland waterways question. Maj. Gen. Lytle Brown, chief of army engineers, and Maj. Gen. Thomas Q. Ashburn, head of the government barge line, who accompanied the secretary, hailed the innovation as an indicaton that red tape would no longer hamper progress in waterway development with their chief at Washington possessing an intimate knowledge of the problems which must be met.

From Menace of Flood.

The expedition was made by steamer and plane, the secretary flying over important projects and gaining a comprehensive knowledge of the advances being made in construction. He ended the inspection trip today with a flight from Baton Rouge over the Atchafalaya floodway and Bonnet Carre spillway, which will protect New Orleans and lower Louisiana and Mississippi from the menace of floods.

The secretary found three distinct problems to be dealt with. From St. Paul to St. Louis, the maintenance of a six foot channel has been difficult because of the lowness of water this season, and towns along the river have been demanding the deepening of the channel to a nine foot depth.

To these complaints, the secretary replied, "Show your desire to coöperate by using the six foot channel for transportation of freight. Prove that a nine foot channel would be a profitable investment to the government and its barge lines."

Lack of Employment.

Secretary Hurley stressed the fact that the government would not spend its money to benefit any particular locality because of lack of unemployment in that area or because political pressure had been applied.

"We have departed from the idea that this is a local matter," he declared. "The inland waterways are national in scope and national in the benefits which they will bestow. There will be no dipping into the pork barrel in connection with the appropriation and spending of waterway funds."

At St. Louis, the secretary was told by business men and officials that the diversion of 12,000 cubic feet of water per second from the lake at Chicago and down the Illinois waterway to the Mississippi was all that had kept boats moving on the river during the months of August and September.

West Palm Beach, Fla., Sept. 15.—(AP)—Lucy Cotten Thomas, former actress and widely known beauty, widow of the late Edward Russell Thomas, New York and Palm Beach millionaire, was awarded $1,099,000 here today in full settlement of her claims for dower rights against the estate of the former sportsman and owner of the old New York Morning Telegraph.

STUDENT KILLED AT CANNING PLANT.

La Salle, Ill., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—An hour before the end of job to resume studies at the University of Wisconsin, Florin Reed, 20, Barren, Wis., fell into a conveyor at Mendota and was killed.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: Tired

CLAIMS SHARE IN CAPT. MORRISON'S ESTATE AS SON

A new claimant to the estate of Capt. Edward W. Morrison, known as the "millionless millionaire," who died last December, appeared before Probate Judge Henry Horner yesterday. He is Capt. William Edward Foulkes, 4216 Langley avenue, who claims he is the illegitimate son of Capt. Morrison. He asks the court to declare him an heir to the estate, estimated to be worth $3,000,000.

Capt. Foulkes is 71 years old and has a long white beard which is nearly identical with the one worn by Capt. Morrison. Like the man whom he claims is his father, he was for many years a canal boat captain. He appeared in court with his attorney, State Senator Harry Starr, and his two daughters, Miss Itha Foulkes and Mrs. Velda Cook.

"My father believes he is the son of Capt. Morrison and Mary Prange, who was a domestic in Capt. Morrison's home. It is uncertain if they were ever married. Investigation has shown that father was born at 759 West Harrison street, which was Capt. Morrison's home and the house in which he died last year.

"Mary Prange later married Edward Foulkes. She died when my father was 7 years old. Edward Foulkes married again and they raised my father. Fifty years ago a Capt. Donovan, a friend of my father's, told him who his parents were. He never investigated his parentage, however, until he saw a picture of Capt. Morrison and read of his death in the newspapers."

BOND FIXED AT $105,000 BY LYLE IN NEW COURT

Judge John H. Lyle started his work in the felony court yesterday by holding Harold E. Smith, 33, an ex-convict, in $105,000 bonds on seven charges of robbery. Smith was the first defendant brought before Judge Lyle in his new court and he promptly disposed of the case by denying a continuance and fixing the high bond.

The judge, who recently started a war on gangsters and hoodlums through the use of the vagrancy law, stepped out of his courtroom at noon long enough to make a speech before the Junior Association of Commerce at the Hotel Sherman.

"When a gangster was taken to the detective bureau criminal court judges have many times telephoned the police and asked that he be booked immediately to facilitate his release on habeas corpus," he said. "How can justice be administered with the judiciary functioning like that?"

Noted Swedish Flyer Who Hunted Nobile Dies in Crash

H. K. GILBERT, BANK OFFICIAL HERE, DIES AT 61

Henry Kidder Gilbert, 61 years old, a resident of Chicago since 1880, died yesterday at the Ambassador hotel, where he had made his home for some time. Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

H. K. GILBERT.
[Koehne Photo.]

Surviving him are the widow, Mrs. Anne C. Sargent Gilbert, and three sons, John, Henry K. Jr., and Horace. Mrs. Gilbert formerly lived in Evanston. They were married in 1895.

Mr. Gilbert was well known in financial circles. At the time of his death he was the Chicago representative for the Chase National bank of New York City. Previously he had served in a similar capacity for the American Exchange bank there. Until 1923 he was president of the Oliver Typewriter company. He was a member of the Cliff Dwellers and the Chicago club.

CAPTAIN BOY-ED DIES OF FALL; WAS DEPORTED IN 1915

HAMBURG, Germany, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Capt. Karl Boy-Ed, 58 years old, naval attaché at the German embassy in Washington before America's entry into the world war, deported for unfriendly activities in 1915, is dead from the effects of a fall off his horse near his estate, Groenwoldhof, near here. He died from internal injuries soon after entering a hospital.

Capt. Boy-Ed, son of a Turkish father and a German mother, the latter a popular novelist, was director of the former kaiser's propaganda for a greater navy and chief lieutenant of Grand Admiral von Tirpitz, secretary of the navy.

On Feb. 11, 1921, he was married in Germany to Miss Virginia Mackay Smith, daughter of the late Bishop Mackay Smith of the Episcopal diocese of Pennsylvania. The couple had become acquainted while Capt. Boy-Ed was in Washington. At one time when he was sought in Washington, but could not be traced, social circles in Philadelphia let it be known that he was hiding in the Mackay Smith home.

Keaton, Courtroom Slayer, Sentenced to Be Hanged

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 15.—(AP)—Superior Judge B. Rey Schauer today sentenced Frank D. Keaton, Inglewood, Cal., real estate man, to be hanged at San Quentin penitentiary for the murder of Motley H. Flint, Los Angeles financier. Flint was shot to death in a courtroom during a civil trial.

SKY HARBOR PUT UP AT AUCTION TO PAY CREDITORS

Sky Harbor, the half million dollar airport west of Glencoe, went on the auction block yesterday by order of federal court to satisfy creditors. Only a few bids were received by P. A. Paulson of the Chicago Title and Trust company, receivers for the air field, and the sale will be resumed again on Sept. 29.

The highest bid for the equity in the airport was $10,000, made by the United Aircraft corporation, the principal creditor. All bids were taken under consideration. Sky Harbor was completed last year by the Chicago Air Service corporation at a cost of more than $500,000. Mortgages, mechanic's liens, and other claims total approximately $535,000. The property consists of 220 acres of land improved with runways, lights, hangars, a modernistic administration building, and seven airplanes.

CHAS. L. NELSON FUNERAL RITES WILL BE TODAY

Funeral services for the late Charles L. Nelson, for sixty years a resident of Chicago and identified with the millinery trade here for many years, will be held at 3 o'clock today in the chapel at 6110 Cottage Grove avenue. Burial will be held at Oakwoods cemetery.

Mr. Nelson, who was 65 years old and a native of Sweden, died at his home, 7320 Ridgeland avenue, on Sunday.

He began as a boy with Edson Keith & Co. and later helped organize the millinery firm of Gage Bros. & Co., of which he served as vice president for many years. At the time of his death he was Chicago representative for three eastern manufacturing concerns.

BURNS FATAL TO GIRL.

Burns received on Sunday from burning naphtha in the kitchen of her home caused the death yesterday of Miss Helen Hohn, 19 years old, of 2417 West 45th street.

FUNERAL RITES FOR CONKLIN TO BE TOMORROW

Funeral services for Oscar B. Conklin, president of the Lincoln Trust and Savings bank, Irving Park boulevard and Lincoln avenue, will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. from the Constellation Masonic temple, 3900 North Damen avenue. Mr. Conklin died yesterday after a long illness at the age of 66 years.

Mr. Conklin was born in Davenport, Ia. He came to Chicago when he was 16 years old. Forty years ago he started in the real estate business in the Rogers Park neighborhood. He organized the Lincoln Trust and Savings bank in 1910 as a private institution, later getting a charter for a state bank with the late Theodore G. Behrens.

Mr. Conklin is survived by his daughter, Dorothy, who lives at the home at 763 Michigan avenue, Wilmette.

Konjola

MRS. J. A. HLAD
5425 W. 23rd Place, Chicago

. . a new and different medicine that has made good

No one is asked to put his faith in Konjola. Far better to know that Konjola has triumphed in tens of thousands of cases that have defied and resisted all medicines and treatments tried. Konjola stands, not on a foundation of promises, but on one of facts . . . victories . . . successes. Ask your druggist . . . he KNOWS about Konjola. But right now read the words of Mrs. Hlad:

"I was bothered with stomach trouble for two years, with gas forming after eating and causing pains that lasted for hours. I had belching spells, and could not get the proper sleep. But three bottles of Konjola and all this trouble passed away. I am glad to tell what Konjola did for me in so short a time."

3,000 Laundry Owners Here for Convention

Some 3,000 members of the Laundry Owners' National Association of the United States and Canada were in the city yesterday to attend the annual convention of the organization at the Palmer house. In opening the meeting W. J. Henning of Toronto, president of the association, reviewed the progress of the laundry business during the last 80 years. He spoke of the recent establishment of the American Institute of Laundering at Joliet to work for the benefit of the industry. Manufacturers may send their products to the institute to be tested for their laundering qualities before being put on the market, he said.

STORMS SWEEP SOUTH ILLINOIS; RAINFALL HEAVY

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Storms swept central and southern Illinois from the Mississippi virtually to the Indiana line last night and early today. Mount Vernon and surrounding territory was hit by a tornado, buildings in other sections were struck by lightning and destroyed, stock was killed and crops damaged.

Electric and telephone lines were down in many places. Rainfall in a score or more of communities, where there had been a drought for months, totaled from two to nearly three inches.

Mount Vernon suffered most. A dozen or more persons were hurt, none seriously, when a tornado unroofed buildings, including the Emmerson hotel, the city's tallest structure, blew down two smokestacks, bowled over poles with telephone and light lines and uprooted trees.

Dahlgren, twelve miles southeast of Mount Vernon, also felt the full fury of the storm. The Christian church there was destroyed, the public school building unroofed and a number of other structures damaged.

The Pana district also was hard hit. Lightning struck and destroyed ten barns and three houses, a number of horses, mules, and cattle were killed.

??? are YOU in normal HEALTH

If you're finding it hard to pull yourself out of bed these mornings, here's something to think about.

Persons in normal health should feel rested, ready to get up and go in the morning. And, if they don't feel that way they should quickly find out why. More than likely it's simply a matter of sluggish or impaired digestion. With this comes a slow poisoning that results in listlessness and tiredness.

Most frequently this may be quickly corrected by including one pint of Brook Hill Acidophilus milk in the diet for several weeks. Brook Hill Acidophilus milk is a conditioner for the intestinal tract that enables it to perform its functions properly.

Just try Brook Hill Acidophilus milk for a few weeks and note how much better you feel. Ask your doctor. He will recommend it.

There's an interesting free booklet on the benefits of Acidophilus milk available to you. Return the coupon now.

IT'S A SAD STORY HELEN TELLS OF HER AND POSNER

That $50,000 Caused Her So Much Trouble.

New York, Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Because Helen Kane wouldn't say she had lent Murray Posner $50,000 to get him out of his financial difficulties, he came up to her room at the Drake hotel in Chicago and tried to choke her, she testified today in the bankruptcy proceedings against the Bond Dress company.

The baby talk girl has testified before that her gentleman friend threatened to kill her, but this morning she gave all the terrible details and then burst into tears.

Doesn't Care for Subject.

"That's a very sensitive subject," she said over her handkerchief, but with Referee Peter Olney's encouragement she recovered and went on with her testimony. Before she had gone very much farther, however, Posner himself was called to the stand and promptly denied the whole story.

"Isn't it absurd and ridiculous," C. Edward Benoit, counsel for the Irving Trust company, receiver and trustee for the dress concern, asked Miss Kane, "that your friend and lover—he said he loved you—should threaten to kill you?"

Miss Kane admitted that it was, and that she really didn't think he would carry out his threat. But she was very much frightened and when he had his hands on her throat she was so frightened that she screamed for help, she said, and even called the house detective to protect her.

Says Once Was Enough.

Posner had come to Chicago, she testified, and asked her to lend him $7,500, adding that he already had repaid the $50,000 that she had given him when they were in Hollywood. She had telephoned her bank in New York to make sure he had deposited the money. But when he asked for $7,500 to pay lawyers' fees she refused him, she asserted.

"I had had a lot of unhappiness because of the other money and I didn't want to lend him any more," she said.

"Didn't you have even $7,500 worth of confidence in Mr. Posner?" Benoit asked.

"Yes, I had confidence in him," she insisted, "but I didn't want any more unhappiness."

The hearing today was one of a series to determine whether that $50,000 that Posner deposited to Miss Kane's account in August is her money or whether it belongs to the creditors of the bankrupt Bond Dress company.

Los Angeles, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Conway Tearle, film actor, was sued by his divorced wife, Mrs. Josephine Park Tearle, today for $3,100 allegedly unpaid alimony. Two months ago Mrs. Tearle obtained judgment in San Francisco for $9,932 unpaid alimony, of which she claims the $3,100 still is due.

MAYOR CURLEY AND RIVAL USE FISTS AT "MIKE"

Boston, Mass., Sept. 15.—(AP)—Mayor James M. Curley of Boston and Frank J. Donahue, chairman of the Democratic state committee were involved in a fight in the broadcasting rooms of station WNAC tonight just after Donahue had delivered a bitter arraignment of Curley.

Daniel H. Coakley, Boston politician, said that his son, Gael, had been hit three times while protecting Donahue from the rush of Curley and his supporters and that he would ask for a warrant for Curley's arrest.

Donahue and Curley both broadcast tonight. Donahue accused Mayor Curley of violating the corrupt practices act and of telling John J. Raskob, Democratic chairman, that John F. Fitzgerald, the mayor's candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, was a "clown."

Witnesses at the studio said Curley cried, "He can't get away with that." The mayor and his supporters then confronted Donahue and Ely's backers. A scuffle ensued. Later there was another encounter on the street in which, Coakley charged, Curley again hit his son, Gael Coakley.

COLORED AID OF SWANSON 'SASSES' COP; ARRESTED

Euclid Taylor of 5652 South Park avenue, a Negro assistant state's attorney, was arrested early today while driving on South Park way in an automobile said to belong to Jack Reynolds, well known to south side police, and booked on disorderly conduct charges.

Taylor, who is about 25 years old and who was said to have driven the automobile in which Octavious Granady, Negro candidate for ward committeman, was slain in April, 1928, and obtained his position as assistant state's attorney following the collapse of prosecution in that case.

Patrolman Christ Covington of the Wabash avenue station explained that he had recognized the automobile in which he had arrested Reynolds some time ago and had stopped it expecting to catch Reynolds.

Taylor became abusive, according to Patrolman Covington, and continued his tirade at the Wabash avenue station. He was permitted to sign his own bond for appearance before Judge McCarthy tomorrow.

BARE 'TAPPING' OF TRANS-ATLANTIC WIRELESS PHONE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 16 [Tuesday].—Despite utmost precautions, it is revealed that secret "tapping" of important business and private conversations between America and England over the trans-Atlantic wireless telephone is going on nightly, not only in this country but on the continent.

According to this morning's Daily Express, a strong suspicion exists that confidential information between commercial houses in New York and London is being deliberately "overheard" and passed on for the use of business rivals.

The engineers at the general post-office are said to be aware of the situation, but so far have not succeeded in devising a system to prevent wireless eavesdropping.

Acid, Gassy Stomach of Years Disappeared Quick

"My Stomach Is In Great Shape Now," says the user of New Formula Acidine

"Had been an acid stomach sufferer for years," says Howard T. Games, of Merchantville, N. J. "Decided to give Acidine a trial about two months ago. All my old ailments have disappeared and my stomach is in great shape now." That's what thousands say about this amazing new formula, Acidine. End burning acid stomach, gnawing pains, before and after eating, belching, gas, bloating, heartburn or dizziness with Acidine. Acidine is a scientific formula entirely different from other remedies. Contains Japtase, an effective starch digestant, which quickly liquefies 800 times its own weight of starchy food, under proper conditions. Five other scientific ingredients neutralize excess acid, stop gas formation and soothe irritated stomach lining. No other remedy contains this scientific combination to end acid stomach troubles. That is why Acidine relieves in cases where all other remedies have failed. Don't suffer acid stomach disorder which causes you endless misery and prevents you eating and drinking what you want. End gassy sleepless nights at once. Buy Acidine at any drug store. Test it, the druggist will refund your money if you are not pleased. You take no chance. The risk is ours, the benefit, yours. Don't be any longer without the joy Acidine will bring you—get it today at any drug store or write Health Laboratories, Inc., Pittsburgh, Pa.

THREAT OF TAX STRIKE MADE BY REALTY LEADER

Burden Must Be Lighter, N. C. Farr Says.

Threat of a tax strike in 1931 by owners of real estate if action is not taken to relieve them of what they regard as an unjust burden imposed on realty through excessive taxation was made yesterday by Newton C. Farr, president of the Chicago Real Estate board.

Mr. Farr made his statement in announcing that the board of directors of the realty board at its meeting yesterday adopted a resolution recommending that the membership of the entire board approve the passage of the proposed income tax amendment to the state constitution, which will be voted upon in November. Members of the realty board will vote on their stand Wednesday night, and it is expected they will approve the amendment.

Wants Personal Tax Paid.

"There are a great many wealthy people who should be paying many times what they are now doing on their personal property and if we can't get relief we shall see that these people dig up," Mr. Farr said.

"Owners of real estate now stand with their backs to the wall. We can't go any further with present real estate taxes. The way things are going now there may be no real estate taxes paid in 1931 and in the event of a real estate tax strike it is likely that the Chicago Real Estate board will support it.

"Everybody sees that real estate carries too big a tax burden and yet no one does anything constructive to relieve the situation.

Farmers Oppose Tax.

"Under the proposed amendment if an income tax law is passed by the legislature it will apportion the tax collected 85 per cent to the community from which it is obtained and 15 per cent to the state. For this reason the farmers are fighting the amendment. In the event an income tax is adopted they want the state to get all the proceeds.

"We want relief for Cook county real estate from the tax burden and if the proceeds from an income tax are all turned into the state treasury Cook county property owners will still be where they are now."

Members of the board of directors of the realty board include the following: Arthur W. Draper, Hyde W. Perce, James W. Belanger, Frederick J. Phillips, S. O. Stone and Henry G. Zander Jr.

ENTERPRISE BEATS SHAMROCK IN SECOND RACE

ALERT START BY YANKEE YACHT DECIDES FIGHT

Winner Home First by 9 Minutes.

Will Restore Ballast

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 15.—(AP)—The great ballast mystery ended tonight where it started—with the decision of Sir Thomas Lipton's board of strategy to put back the 2,000 pounds of lead removed prior to today's losing race with Enterprise.

Newport, R. I., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Enterprise, a yacht that slips as softly through rugged seas as a sandal-footed maiden through a woodland glade, glided away from Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock V. again today to take the second race of the America's cup series.

It took Enterprise 3 hours, 40 minutes, and 44 seconds to complete the thirty mile triangular course, and Shamrock 3 hours, 50 minutes, and 18 seconds. The 9 minutes and 34 seconds' difference was more than twice the margin by which Enterprise won the first race Saturday.

Old Lady Fate was busy today, as usual. There was not a handful of spectators on hand, compared to the number that followed the races Saturday, yet every foot of today's contest was visible to the naked eye and the sun got busy on the job and bathed the afternoon in one of its brightest solvents.

It Looks Like Enterprise.

There can't be much doubt about the outcome of the series now. The manner in which the Vanderbilt boat has met both challenges of Shamrock and turned the invader back with infinite decision assures America of keeping the America's cup for this country for another spell. Obviously no power of mind or matter can boost the Shamrock up ten minutes within the next two days.

The race was so grotesquely uneven today that the boats had not been off their marks five minutes when Enterprise found herself so far ahead that she was able to tack across Shamrock's bow, thus cutting off the invading boat's wind just as though Skipper Vanderbilt had nailed Skipper Heard by the gullet and compressed his thumb and forefinger. This was executed when Enterprise Suddenly whipped around and bore directly across before Shamrock and straight down wind.

This meant that, as Enterprise passed through Shamrock's orbit, she cut off the full force of the wind and caused Shamrock's sails to drop dead along their riggings.

Vanderbilt Tacks Again.

After that Enterprise found herself almost in the wake of her rival and appeared to have gained nothing except the satisfaction of showing off a little before the people. Skipper Vanderbilt at once went out to get the distance back, and presently was able to tack over again. This time he seemed to discommode Shamrock no little and there was quite a bit of agitation aboard the British boat.

It was noted that Shamrock's jib fell into a decline at once and folded up so that she lost ground, or water, rapidly, and presently Enterprise was a quarter mile or so out ahead and bustling along smartly.

As the two boats approached the first turn it was discovered that they had been sailing directly with the wind instead of out southwest toward Block Island, as the course provided. It then became necessary for them to tack sharply to starboard and they did so, causing many of the less expert spectators to believe that the first buoy was being passed.

Both Tack Again.

Both boats then rode directly off at right angles with the blow, tacked short again, and whipped around the buoy to turn into a southeast course and put out to the open sea.

Enterprise reached this first turn, which actually was more than ten miles of sailing because of the tacking that was done, in 1 hour and 20

Belfast Gloomy Over 2d Defeat of Lipton Yacht

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, Sept. 15.—(AP)—News that the Shamrock V. had suffered a second defeat from the Enterprise in the America's cup races spread gloom throughout Belfast tonight.

Cheers for the victor were mingled with sighs for the vanquished as the news was broadcast to a crowd of several thousand that had waited for hours in Royal avenue, the heart of Belfast.

"The Enterprise must be a vastly superior boat," surmised Captain Richard Henderson, an official of the Royal Ulster Yacht club, which issued the challenge.

"Perhaps the third time will be different, but it is clear the Shamrock is tackling a formidable sloop with a superb skipper."

University of Chicago's football candidates, sixty strong, gather around Coach A. A. Stagg for their first instruction of the 1930 campaign. The veteran coach, who is beginning his 39th season at the Midway, welcomed the athletes at 10 o'clock in the morning, supervised the distribution of uniforms, and then ordered unlimbering exercises. After a two hour session the squad lunched together and returned to the gridiron in the afternoon. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Stagg Calls Out His 39th Maroon Squad

BY WILFRID SMITH.

For the thirty-ninth season a University of Chicago football squad greeted Amos Alonzo Stagg yesterday at the Midway. The youngsters and their coach immediately set about their lessons, for in three weeks comes the team's inaugural test, which will be followed on successive Saturdays by four Western conference and three intersectional games.

Coach Stagg's career is a continuous thread woven into the athletic history of the university. Perhaps, when he met the sixty candidates yesterday for the 1930 varsity, he thought of similar meetings. Perhaps he remembered that day in 1892, a year before Chicago entertained world visitors at it Columbian Exposition, when he greeted his first squad on the prairie on which million dollar buildings since have been erected.

Taught by Example.

Then Coach Stagg was football's missionary bringing to the west the game that Yale, his alma mater, and other eastern schools had produced with modifications of rugby. In those days he taught football by example, playing by the side of undergraduates.

Coach Stagg may have reflected yesterday on subsequent generations of Chicago's teams which scored triumph on triumph and were acclaimed champions. But if these reminiscences passed before his mind he gave them scant heed. Another campaign was at hand and its problems commanded his attention.

With what material will Chicago oppose Princeton and battle for the conference championship? This question, Coach Stagg says, can be answered only by the development of his squad.

"This is the largest squad that ever reported on the first day," he remarked during a lull in the morning drill. "However, it is not a selected squad. All men from last year, varsity and freshmen, may report. In 39 years I have never cut a player from the squad save when he failed to practice consistently."

Veteran Backs Report.

Chicago bases its hope on a veteran back field which possesses more than average ability. These veterans, Paul Stagg at quarter back, Capt. Errett Van Nice and Joe Temple, half backs, and Walter Knudson, full back, have speed and can pass. These abilities permit an open type of game which so completely overwhelmed Princeton and Washington last year.

CUBS TAKE 1,200 WORLD SERIES TICKET ORDERS

Uncle Sam's postal service wasn't greatly disturbed yesterday by the first batch of applications for world series seats in Chicago, provided the Cubs finally win their way into the fall classic.

Only about 1,200 orders, each calling for two seats, were received on the first business day following the club's announcement that applications were in order.

Applications must be made by mail and restricted to two seats, and remittance in bank draft, certified check, or money order must accompany request. Tickets must be purchased in strips of three, $19.80 for box seats and $16.50 for grand stand reserved. Address Chicago National League Baseball Club, world's series office, Chicago, Ill.

ROBINS WIN 11TH STRAIGHT; BEAT REDS, 13 TO 5

Herman, Bissonette Make Four Hits Each.

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

[Copyright: 1930: By The Chicago Tribune.]

Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 15.—With a number of the St. Louis Cardinals lolling in ringside chairs awaiting the opening of their series on the Brooklyn grounds tomorrow, Uncle Wilbert Robinson's Nonsense Boys went in for broad humor in the closing game of their series with Salvation Dan Howley's Cincinnati reclamation class today, winning their eleventh consecutive game amid sounds of hilarity.

They made 17 hits all told, including four apiece for Babe Herman and Del Bissonette, and the score was 13 to 5.

As in their previous game, the Nonsense Boys staked the Cincinnatis to three runs in the first inning to make their tricks look harder, but, even so, the winning seemed more a prank than an effort. Being disengaged for a day after their brief series in Boston, the Cardinals declared a hack driver's holiday and gathered together in a section of box seats, which were in no great demand of a Monday, to scout the Robins.

Scouts Are Baffled.

They went away baffled, however, because it didn't seem reasonable to suppose that any ball club could be as goofy as the Robins without a conscious effort to be goofy. "They wouldn't fool us, would they?" inquired Mr. Branch Rickey, much puzzled.

The result was decided before the first inning ended. Salvation Dan's earnest band of missing men took their places on defense, feeling right proud of their three runs and looking a little startled, like men who hadn't known their own strength. Yawning Bob Meusel had busted a home run into the slum quarters of the two bit seats and another had scored when Stripp and Cuccinello doubled.

Ray Moss, the starting pitcher for Uncle Wilbert's club, was then relieved and Lefty Clark came in to face Harry Heilmann, an old former ex-ballplayer himself. Heilmann lined out, but Ford singled and Cuccinello arrived with the third run. Johnny Gooch then fouled out, closing the incident and the fun began to transpire, although it took a few minutes to prepare the situation.

Wright Hits Homer.

With one man out Gilbert walked and Herman sent him to second with a single. The customers, about 10,000 at a generous guess, were twisting their score cards and projecting their necks in eager expectancy when Glenn Wright, the principal brain of the Brooklyn team, hit a moral home run on the bounce into the circus seats in center field. Mr. Meusel's snores broke off as the ball approached, but he had been sleeping pretty soundly out yonder and he just ran along behind the baseball with his night shirt flapping around his shanks and shooed it over the low fence on the bounce as the athletes on the bases went into their comic routine.

Herman waited on first and Gilbert dallied on second as though expecting Meusel to catch the ball, which was a delicate touch of humor in itself, when Wright gamboled past Herman yelling, "get out of the way and let a guy run that can run."

So yelling he passed Herman, who presently got going himself and scored behind Gilbert, but the umpires had to inform Wright that he was out for passing a preceding runner on the bases. This reduced the moral home run to a technical single, and there being no better way to account for a put out in which noboby handled the baseball, it was decided to give the credit to Mr. Ford at second, as he is considered a nice fellow and very deserving. Nevertheless, Wright was credited with two runs driven in and the laugh-of-the-week club voted

Primo's Tent Show Ready to Move into Stadium Ring

LEON SEE.

The Roby workout attracted more than a hundred 50 cent customers and twice that number who climbed telephone poles and buildings to see over the brown canvas walls enclosing the ring when Carnera belabored his employés. There was a great jabbering of Italian from the front row seats, to which Carnera replied in kind, and at the end of each round he was greeted with applause. This encouraged him to further endeavors, and he sent his pillow-like gloves thumping against the naked chests of the lads paid to accept these intimacies.

It Was All Fun to Primo.

It was fun to the Italian, whose 280 pounds mounted on size 17 feet stretched so high in the air his six foot spar mates scarcely could muss his black thatch of hair. And certainly they were unable to bother him with ineffectual blows delivered with a fear of retaliation.

Al Walker, colored heavyweight, employed solely because he boxes backward; that is, with his right in front of his left, stayed two rounds. For most of the time he retreated before Carnera, careful not to be trapped into a display of enthusiasm. Then came Frank Caldori. He took more punishment than usually is accorded in a training bout.

"That guy just don't like me," he paused to remark to no one in particular, as he thrust wobbly legs through the ropes. Jack McAuliffe, the most persistent member of Carnera's troupe, who has appeared in frequent exhibitions and on one occa-

N. B. A. Ranking Puts Stribling 2d, Carnera 3d

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 15.—(AP)—All present champions of the various prize fight divisions were recognized by the National Boxing Association delegates in their annual convention here today.

The association recognized Max Schmeling, of Germany, as king of the heavyweights. A surprise or two came as the other candidates were ranked according to the association's views on their merits. Young Stribling was ranked number two in the heavyweight ranks. Number three position was awarded to Primo Carnera, while Jack Sharkey was ranked number four.

The association voted to give Primo Carnera a clean bill of health and overthrew all suspensions against the giant Italian. This action was taken in the form of a resolution in which the association voted not to accept or recognize any suspension placed on a fighter by a state not a member of the N. B. A.

In accepting the suspension placed on Carnera by the prize fight commission of California, the N. B. A. acted wrongly, the resolution read. California is not a member of the association.

If Cubs Lose 3 More—Hang Out the Crepe

There still is a chance for the Cubs, but it's a slim one. The loss of half of yesterday's double header tossed them deeper into third place in the steam heated National league race. They now trail the leading Robins by one and one-half games and are one-half game behind the second place Cardinals. The situation is such that the Cubs probably will put themselves out of it with three more defeats, unless the two other contenders should suddenly go into a slump.

At Brooklyn's present rate of progress, a program of six victories in their remaining games doesn't appear improbable. The Cubs could only tie the Robins then by capturing 8 out of 11. The Cardinals could tie with 8 wins out of 12 starts. In that event each would have a final rating of 90 victories and 64 defeats.

Should Brooklyn win only 5 more, the Cardinals 7 more, and the Cubs 8, the standing at the finish would be:

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Chicago | 90 | 64 | .584 |
| Brooklyn | 89 | 65 | .578 |
| St. Louis | 89 | 65 | .578 |

First place will be at stake today when the Cardinals and Robins get in the cage together at Brooklyn. The Robins must win to hold their present advantage. If the Cubs can beat the Giants this afternoon and the Cards whip the Robins, the standing would change to:

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| St. Louis | 83 | 60 | .580 |
| Brooklyn | 84 | 61 | .579 |
| Chicago | 83 | 61 | .576 |

Let the Giants wallop the Cubs and Brooklyn beat the Cardinals, and the Chicagoans would almost be out of the scramble, as follows:

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Brooklyn | 85 | 60 | .586 |
| St. Louis | 82 | 61 | .573 |

Wilson Hits No. 50 in Second Game.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 15.—It is barely possible that there have been worse Cub performances since the National league put a team in Chicago in 1876, but until some patriarch comes up with proof you can set down today's first game with the Phils as the sloppiest on record.

After losing the opener, 12 to 11, on another of those Lefty O'Doul homers, the Cubs came back in the second contest and played well enough to beat the Phils, 6 to 4, though the Philly wrecking crew again made them miserable in the ninth.

The first game was more like a ball player's nightmare than an actual contest. The Phillies first had the Cubs licked, 5 to 0, in the third inning as a result of some hitting, confusion between Wilson and Heathcote in right center, and an error by English. Then the Cubs made seven runs in the fifth and added one each in the sixth, seventh and eighth, so that as the Phils went into their eighth the Cubs were leading 10 to 5.

It is scarcely believable but the 1929 champions at this point curled up to the extent that the Phils made six runs and took the lead, 11 to 10, at the end of the eighth.

Cubs Tie Score in Ninth.

The Cubs came back in the ninth for a run to tie the score, but it was wasted effort. Elliott, who got credit for both the Cubs' setbacks in this series, led off the ninth with a single but was plucked off first by two new hands, Zack Taylor and Charley Grimm. O'Doul, at bat, told Elliott not to fret, and then smacked one of Bud Teachout's pitches for a homer.

As a result of the painful activities of the day the Cubs are deeper in third place than ever, being a game and a half behind the alert and fearless Robins and half a game behind the eminently intelligent Cardinals. They also lost a game to the Giants, their foes of tomorrow, whom they now lead by 3½ games.

Hack Wilson made his fiftieth homer in the second game and Cliff Heathcote made five hits during the afternoon, including two homers and a double. Woody English got a homer in the first game and George Kelly made four hits in the first game and one in the second.

Bell Delivers All Day.

Lester Bell was a headsup ball player all afternoon. He contributed a double and single to the big fifth inning of the first game, drove in a run with a sacrifice fly in the seventh inning, and drove in the tying run with a sacrifice in the ninth inning of the first game. He also drove in the first two runs of the second game with a single.

Guy Bush, who was a big washout as a relief pitcher in the eighth inning of the first game, pitched a five hit game for eight innings of the second game. He blew up a bit in the last inning of the day, but managed to stagger through without calling for succor.

Petty for the Cubs and Hubbell of the Giants are slated to do the pitching in the opening of the three game series at the Polo Grounds tomorrow.

FIRST GAME DETAIL

The Phils got off to a one run lead in the first inning of the first game. After English and Heathcote had fanned and Hornsby flied to Klein the tail-enders started their offensive with a fly by Brickell which Cuyler caught. Thompson doubled off the right field wall and scored on Friberg's line single to center.

The Phillies third afforded the first of the day's startling spectacles. Hornsby made a nice stop to get Brickell, but Thompson singled to center and went to third on Friberg's single to left. Thompson scored on Klein's sacrifice fly to Heathcote. Hurst singled to left, Friberg going to third. Whitney singled to left, Friberg scoring and Hurst stopping at second. The bases were full when English booted Davis' grounder. Thevenow sent a gentle looper to right center, and to the amazement of the assemblage Wilson and Heathcote put on a you-take-it act. It was the first of a series. The ball dropped for a single, scoring Hurst and Whitney, Davis stopping at third. Hack, in his embarrassment, picked up the ball and threw it to the general direction of the infield, getting an error for himself and enabling Thevenow to proceed to second.

Bell Throws Out Friberg.

In the last of the fourth our boys cast aside their clown raiment and put up a snappy defense, the peak of which was reached on a swell play by Bell on Friberg's slow roller for the third out.

Then came that tremendous fifth inning. Bell opened with a double off the center field wall. Blake fanned, but English, still pretty grim about that error in the third, knocked a homer over the right field wall, scoring Bell ahead of him.

JEM EARNS HIS DIPLOMA FROM PLATER CLASS

Beats Handicap Stars by 8 Lengths at Crete.

BY FRENCH LANE.

It isn't often that a $2,000 selling plater within a month develops into a handicap performer that can win.

But Jem, a 4 year old son of Friar Rock-Cubanita, has done it in Chicago this season.

On Aug. 12 Jem, entered to be claimed for $2,000, beat a bunch of cheap horses at Hawthorne in handy fashion. Two days later he stepped into a $2,500 claiming race and won just as handily from that bunch. He was running in the silks of G. W. Ogle at the time.

Claimed by Mrs. Denemark.

Just eight days later Jem got into a $3,000 claiming affair at Hawthorne and he also won that skirmish. The task was performed without much of an effort. Other owners were beginning to suspect by this time that Jem was a better horse than the kind he had been running against. So out of the $3,000 race Jem was claimed by Mrs. Emil Denemark of Chicago.

Jem got his next chance at Lincoln Fields on Sept. 1. This time he was entered to be claimed for $4,000. Some good horses were running against him. But he trimmed them just as impressively as he had the cheaper platers at Hawthorne.

In the feature race at Lincoln Fields yesterday, the Sunflower purse, Jem was sent in against a band of handicap stars that included Typhoon, Rolled Stocking, Jean La Fitte, Golden Auburn, and others.

Fans Expect Jem to Lose.

The crowd didn't believe that this selling plater fellow could come close to beating such a crowd. Also the track was muddy, and all of Jem's brilliant triumphs here had been scored on fast tracks. Jem was to meet his Waterloo in this contest, everybody was certain.

Now read what happened.

When the start came Jem was rushed to the front by Jockey R. Finnerty. He sped out into a lead of four lengths. Jean La Fitte, Typhoon, and Golden Auburn tried to keep step, but when they looked toward the leader Jem had pulled out into a lead of seven lengths. At the head of the stretch the ex-selling plater was on top by eight lengths. Then he went into a ten length lead.

Wins by Eight Lengths.

Those that were trailing him were bewildered. They began staggering, and in horse talk probably said "What's the use of trying to catch that fellow?" They didn't catch him. He galloped on to an eight length triumph. Typhoon, the short priced favorite, stumbled home second to beat out the Frenchman, Fleche D'Argent, by five lengths. The selling plater of a month ago was the hero of the hour despite the fact that very few had wagered on him.

He ran the mile and a sixteenth in 1:51 2-5, slow time, but the track was very muddy. In the mutuels he paid $17.04 to win, $7.28 to place, and $4.74 to show. Typhoon paid $4.30 to place and $2.98 to show. Fleche D'Argent paid $4.84 to show.

So be a little careful how you talk about a selling plater. Tomorrow he may be a handicap star.

INFECTION FATAL TO REISLER, ONCE DEMPSEY'S PILOT

New York, Sept. 15.—(AP)—John J. Reisler, known in sporting circles as "John the Barber," manager of Jack Dempsey before he became heavyweight boxing champion, died in a hospital today of an infection caused by an ingrown hair on a finger.

At his deathbed were his wife, four sons, and two daughters. He had been in the hospital three weeks. Funeral services will be held in Brooklyn Wednesday.

Reisler came into the public eye through his long litigatioin over the management of Dempsey after the latter had won the championship. He contested the right of Jack Kearns to manage Dempsey, claiming a prior contract.

Reisler was a barber by trade. He conducted an elaborate shop in the West Forties, a remodeled theater, where the manicurists, billed as "former Follies beauties," would break into a tap dance for the customers if the tip was sufficient.

Sammy Mandell Beats O'Neill in 10 Round Bout

Sox Errors, Senators' Bats Combine to Rout Lyons, 14-9

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

Too many fellows plotted against Ted Lyons yesterday to permit him to succeed in locating his 22d victory of the current campaign. He was attacked on one side by Senator hits and on the other by White Sox errors. Under the circumstances he wisely resigned before the finish of a sad battle that closed with Washington out in front, 14 to 9. By taking the final the Senators completed a season's record of 14 victories against 8 defeats in their arguments with Bush's team.

JOE CRONIN.

The first mishap in the woe-laden opening inning was Watwood's muff of Appling's throw on Myer's grounder. Rice singled and Myer hastened to third. Manush grounded to short and Appling assisted the enemy by pegging wild to second, Myer scoring and Rice going to third. Rice counted while Cronin was forcing Manush. A pass to Judge and three strikes for Harris were the next incidents. Hayes singled and Cronin ran home. Spencer singled and Judge scored. Then Jones singled and Hayes carried in the fifth and last run of the inning.

Sox Score Two in Third.

Three hits with a pass were used by the Sox to gather a couple of runs for themselves in the third. Tate's single started it. The next two batters bumped into forceouts. Watwood was given a pass. Then the two tallies were accounted for by singles off the bats of Reynolds and Jolley.

It shouldn't be necessary to furnish the exact details of how five more Washington fellows came home in the sixth. It began with Judge doubling. Harris beat out a bunt to Lyons. Then Appling booted another, Kamm pegged wide to the plate, Jones singled, and Lyons retired. A newcomer named Wehde threw the remainder of the inning and was able to retire the side after a sacrifice fly and Manush's double had rounded out the total of five runs.

In Washington's seventh, Dutch Henry, the man of many defeats, was pitching, so there was no surprise over the scoring of two runs on three hits and a pass. The Sox also had a little cheap fun in their half. Cronin uncorked a pair of wild throws. Watwood and Appling peeled off two baggers. Tate and Pinch Batter Fothergill contributed singles. All this resulted in a cluster of five runs, but the south siders still were three shy of a tie.

Cronin Hits Home Run.

Cronin atoned for his errors and at the same time varied the monotony of singles and doubles when he appeared in the eighth. He slashed a homer into the first floor of the left field seats, after Manush had opened the inning with a single off Walsh.

The Athletics will call around today to complete their training for the world series. The Sox will challenge them with Faber and Thomas in a double header this afternoon. Mack probably will employ Grove and Shore.

PAR FOR WOMAN GOLFERS CUT BY SEVEN STROKES

The Women's Western Golf association yesterday took official cognizance of the increasing golfing ability of its members by making a somewhat drastic reduction of par. On an average, par was cut from 85 strokes to 78. The change, which will mean a new computation of handicaps in the association, will be effective next year.

Up to 200 yards, par three.
201 to 375 yards, par four.
375 yards and up, par five.

There will be no par six holes, except by special authority in tournaments.

CUBS LOSE FIRST TO PHILS, 12-11; THEN WIN, 6 TO 4

O'Doul's Home Run in 9th Again Beats Bruins

second. Cuyler doubled to left, Hornsby scoring and Wilson stopping at third. Kelly singled to left, Wilson scoring and Cuyler stopping at third. Cuyler scored and Kelly went to second on Hartnett's sacrifice foul fly to Friberg. Bell, up the second time, made his second hit of the inning, a single to right center, which scored Kelly, but Lester was out when he tried to stretch it to a double. The score was Cubs, 7; Phils, 5.

Cubs Score in 7th, 8th.

Singles by Cuyler and Kelly and Bell's sacrifice fly produced a run in the seventh and the score became 10 to 5 in favor of the Cubs when Heathcote knocked a homer with none on in the eighth,

And here's the record of that disgraceful eighth:

Thompson singled to right, scoring McCurdy and putting O'Doul on third. Then Friberg doubled, O'Doul scoring and Thompson stopping at third. Petty relieved Blake and Klein rolled a single past Hornsby into right, scoring Thompson and Friberg. The Phils still needed a run to tie. Sherlock was sent to bat for Hurst and Manager McCarthy countered by sending in Bush. Sherlock doubled to center, another of the Wilson-Heathcote you-take-it blowups, Klein scoring the tying run. Whitney singled to left, scoring Sherlock and the score was 11 to 10 in favor of the Phils. Davis forced Whitney.

Kelly Gets 4th Hit.

Cuyler opened the ninth with a pop to Whitney, but Kelly made his fourth hit of the game, a single to center. Farrell was put on to run for Kelly and went to third when Hartnett singled off the top of the right field screen. Farrell scored and Hartnett went to second on Bell's sacrifice fly to Brickell. D. Taylor ran for Hartnett. Stevie batted for Bush and fanned.

Elliott led off the Philly ninth with a single to left, but was caught napping on a snap throw from Zack Taylor to Charley Grimm. When Elliott came sadly past O'Doul, who was at bat, Lefty could be heard in the stands saying "Never mind kid." Lefty then stepped up and knocked the ball over the wall in right center for that saddest of homers, to win for the Phillies, 12 to 11.

SECOND GAME DETAIL

There were only two hits and one walk in the first three innngs of the second game. Heathcote singled off the right field wall with one out in the first inning but went down with Hornsby in a double play.

Whitney walked with two down in the second inning and Brickell singled with two out in the third but died when Thompson fouled to Kelly. English, Heathcote and Blair went out in order in the fourth, but in the Philly end Cuyler had to make one of the greatest catches of his career to head off a run. Hurst doubled with two out; then Whitney made a great drive to left center. Ki caught it high over his head with one hand while running toward the left field stand, pulling it down just as he plunged into the screen.

Cubs Score Pair.

The Cubs manufactured two runs in the fifth, Wilson drew Collins' first pass and went to second on Cuyler's single to center. The pair moved up on Kelly's sacrifice bunt and both scored when Bell singled to left. Bell stopped at second on Zack Taylor's single to left, but the latter was caught napping and Bush grounded out.

Heathcote Gets Fifth Hit.

Kelly led off the seventh with a single and stopped at second when Thompson muffed Bell's grounder. The runners moved up while Collins was throwing out Zack Taylor and Kelly scored on Bush's sacrifice fly to Brickell. Heathcote opened the eighth with his third hit of the game and fifth of the day and stopped at second on Blair's single to center. Cuyler forced Blair, Heathcote taking third. The inning ended with Kelly's fly to Brickell.

The Phils got men on second and first with one out in the eighth, but were unable to progress farther.

After Bell had grounded out in the ninth Zack Taylor singled to left and went to third when Bush singled off the right field wall. English singled to center, scoring Zack. Heathcote popped to Thompson and Blair forced Bush.

Hurst led off the ninth with a double and went to third on a wild pitch. Whitney walked, Rensa struck out but McCurdy batted for Thevenow and again delivered a single, scoring Hurst and putting Whitney on third. O'Doul batted for Collins and singled to right, scoring Whitney and putting McCurdy on third. Brickell forced O'Doul, McCurdy scoring, but the game ended when Thompson flied to Wilson.

Owner Wrigley Plays Hide and Seek at Cub Game

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 15.—William Wrigley Jr., owner of the Cubs, joined the team here today and proudly watched the first three innings from his box at the end of the Chicago dugout.

When the nine blew up for four runs in the fourth, the gum millionaire disappeared under the stands, but during the course of the Cubs' seven run rally in the fifth inning, Mr. Wrigley emerged and again sat proudly in his box.

During the eighth inning debacle Mr. Wrigley disappeared. And he did not come back to see Hack knock his No. 50 in the second game.

Pirates Held to Three Hits, Lose to Giants, 6 to 1

New York, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Fred Fitzsimmons' three hit pitching turned back the Pirates today and broke New York's five-game losing streak, the Giants winning, 6 to 1, in the final game of the year between the two clubs. Pittsburgh won the season series [illegible] 8.

Steve Swetonic, Pirate hurler, was hit hard in the first two innings but after the shaky start settled down and looked like a [illegible] pitchers' duel, holding the Giants to three hits for the remaining six innings.

WILDCATS WEARY WHEN PRACTICE SESSION CLOSES

Hanley Sends 48 Players Through Stiff Drill.

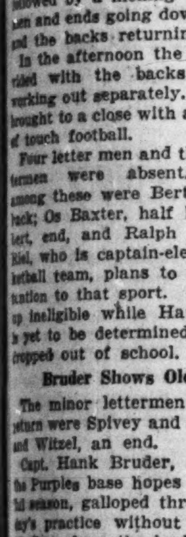
Opening practice at Northwestern university yesterday found the Wildcats participating in the heaviest drill ever ordered on the first day. Among the 48 candidates only those reporting in the best physical trim survived the rigorous morning and afternoon sessions without acquiring sore muscles and other aches.



DICK HANLEY.

Coach Dick Hanley, who had forewarned his athletes, had little sympathy for the boys who wound up the day leg weary and run down generally.

Calisthenics Start Work.

The morning session started with the customary calisthenics and was followed by a kicking drill with linemen and ends going down under punts and the backs returning the ball.

In the afternoon the squad was divided with the backs and linemen working out separately. The day was brought to a close with a spirited game of touch football.

Four letter men and three minor lettermen were absent. Prominent among these were Bert Riel, quarter back; Os Baxter, half back; Ted Eggert, end, and Ralph Haug, guard. Riel, who is captain-elect of the basketball team, plans to devote his attention to that sport. Egbert turned up ineligible while Haug's eligibility is yet to be determined. Baxter has dropped out of school.

Bruder Shows Old Speed.

The minor lettermen who did not return were Spivey and Davis, guards, and Witzel, an end.

Capt. Hank Bruder, around whom the Purples base hopes for a successful season, galloped through the first day's practice without showing any ill effects from the broken leg which kept him out of the lineup a year ago. He was the fastest back on the field, and in the kicking practice he was booting them farther than all others.

a 180 pound full back who prepped at Crane Technical High school, Chicago, and Bob Wallace, a half back from Morgan Park Military academy, form a trio expected to relieve the veterans. Birney is an excellent kicker, and with Knudson, who has developed during the summer, probably will handle this important assignment.

What kind of a line will the Maroons have? Here lies the weakness which threatens to eclipse the cheering reports on the back field. Pessimistic alumni are entitled to fear the worst. Four varsity letter men reported yesterday. And one of them, Walter Trude, a tackle, may not be eligible. Trude is one up on his make-up examinations and has one to go.

The other veterans are Sam Horwitz, guard; Andrew Brislen, guard, and Tom Cowley, an end. Bernard Wien, a minor letter man, is seeking an end position, but he too must hurdle scholastic requirements. Stanley Hamburg, who also received a minor letter last year at guard, will help carry the load this fall.

Plans Running Attack.

Stagg expects to use the same type of attack he worked out for last season. For a better name he calls it a "flanker" offense. One and sometimes two back field men flank the team on either end of the scrimmage line. Primarily it's a passing attack with strong running strength. Whether it is successful depends largely on the quickness of the green linemen to learn their duties and finally on their ability to carry out the assignments.

You will see Chicago punting from spread formation with the kicker at least 15 yards behind the line of scrimmage. Here the tactical advantages gained and results will depend on the fundamentals, blocking and charging.

For two weeks Chicago will drill twice daily. At 10 o'clock and again at 2:30 the lesson call will sound. The squad lunches at the Windermere hotel where Coach Stagg lectures on tactics and rules.

ILLINI FAST, BUT GREEN.

Champaign, Ill., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Hopeful that aggressiveness and speed will overcome inexperience, Coach Bob Zuppke today started his 18th football season at the University of Illinois with a squad of 70 candidates, which included only four letter men. The layout indicated a fast back field but a green line.

Tiny Huddlestun, 232 pound guard, who has served an apprenticeship of two years on the reserves, appeared at tackle, and Conover, another squadman of former years, at guard. With no ... of experience, Zuppke converted ... and Wilson, two sophomores who played in the back field as freshmen, into wing men. Owen and Swanson, freshman ends last year, were prominent.

MICHIGAN IN TWO SESSIONS.

Kipke, in forming five teams, chose the following the first team: Smith, center; Samuels and Grinnell, guards; ... and Draveling, tackles; Hewitt and Daniels, ends; Wheeler, quarter back; Capt. Simrall and Heston, half backs; and Hudson, full back.

Notre Dame, Ind., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Only 120, the smallest squad in several years, reported for the morning and afternoon football workouts at Notre Dame today.

Among the punters getting good distance and height were Carideo, Schwartz, Leahy, Koken, and Jask. The last two are newcomers at left half and quarter back, respectively.

Tim Moynihan, center on last year's team, returned to the campus today and will assist Bill Jones and Manfred Vexie as a freshman coach. A scattering of frosh reported today and about 300 are expected tomorrow.

Interest in Notre Dame's home games and the Army battle to be played in Chicago is manifesting itself in no uncertain terms. J. Arthur Haley, business manager of athletics, today stated that the Army sale is one month ahead of last year's orders for the Southern California game.

Haley said that the Navy game here on Oct. 11 undoubtedly will be a sell out and the other four home games will beat all records for crowds at Notre Dame. The present record is 24,000, made in the Minnesota game of 1927, and Haley predicts that this number will be surpassed at the opening game with Southern Methodist on Oct. 4.

76 BOILERMAKERS AT WORK.

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Seventy-six Boilermakers reported to Coach Noble Kizer this afternoon as Purdue's Big Ten championship football squad started preparations. Coaches and players lost no time in settling down to an intensive drill on fundamentals.

Although the squad hardly looked familiar without Ralph Welch, Red Sleight, Glen Harmeson, and Eb Caraway trotting up and down the turf, it appeared formidable. Twenty-one major letter men and six minor letter men were included in the squad, the letter men including Alex Yunevich, full back; Jack White, quarter back; George Van Bibber, tackle; Lewis Miller, center; George Stears and Horace Buttner, guards, members of last year's undefeated eleven.

SMALL SQUAD AT OHIO.

Columbus, O., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—One of the smallest first day squads in years reported to Coach Sam Willaman at Ohio State today. Only 79 uniforms were issued. Despite the heat, the team was sent through its first signal drill following two periods of limbering up exercises.

The following veterans have returned: Dick Larkins, tackle, who will be shifted to end, opposite Wesley Fesler; Sam Selby and Bill Griffith, guards; Haubricht and Bill Bell, tackles, and Grady and Horn, half backs.

HOOSIERS LACK WEIGHT.

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 15. [Special.]—Fifty-six Indiana university candidates greeted Coach Pat Page today. Practice consisted of limbering up work and running through formations. The material is the lightest in years. The squad worked on a wet field, the rainfall being the first in months in this part of sunbaked southern Indiana. The freshmen are to report tomorrow.

GOPHERS ARE HEAVY.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Only two of the available lettermen were missing today when Fritz Crisler began his first year as Minnesota football coach with a double practice session. They were Leroy Timm, back field man, and Al Oster, end. All other veterans and promising sophomores answered the first call this morning. More than 80 candidates made up the squad.

Crisler divided his men into groups, and had Tad Wieman, Frank McCormick and Sig Harris supervise courses in fundamentals. The Minnesota coach found his squad studded with heavy men, several of them topping the 200 pound mark, but he complained of lack of speed among the linemen.

SIXTY OUT AT WISCONSIN.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—A squad of 60 candidates greeted Coach Glenn Thistlethwaite of Wisconsin for the first practice of the Badgers' 1930 season today.

Included in the squad were 13 varsity regulars and 17 minor letter winners from previous years. Returning veterans are Capt. Gantenbein, Casey, and Jensen, ends; Kruger and Liethan, centers; Smith and Lubratovich, tackles; and Lusby, Behr, Hayes, Pacetti, Rebholz, and Oman, backs.

PANA, 9; SHELBYVILLE, 2.

Pana, Ill., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—The Pana Blues of the Central Illinois Hard Roads league, today defeated Shelbyville, 9 to 2.

Enterprise Beats Shamrock in 2d Race for Yacht Cup

minutes, with Shamrock just six minutes behind.

The second leg was the least adventurous of the three. It headed dead out to sea, or in the direction of the Spanish coast, and as there was no choice of wind, Enterprise ran directly along toward the buoy and Shamrock, now losing ground sadly, followed on her stern, still appearing to be having serious trouble with the jib. At one time it appeared that Skipper Heard was attempting to tuck away the staysail entirely in an effort to get his forward canvas to functioning, or at least to prevent its hampering his craft, which it appeared to be doing.

Shamrock 9 Minutes Back.

It was officially reported that 2 hours and 21 minutes had passed when Enterprise rounded the second buoy and turned back toward Newport, and another nine minutes elapsed before Shamrock came up to the turn and breezed around into the home stretch. There was a bit of a fog drumming up as the boats slipped down this course and when the pair had straightened out and leveled away for that reach back home Enterprise was seen to be at least two miles out in front.

They finished in about this position, Enterprise picking up a mere half minute before they paddled across the finish line, now almost lost in the gray fog. You could not make out Enterprise's ghostly gray steel mast as they glided home, but you could see the white expanse of sails and, now and then, a flash of the gray hull. Shamrock's visibility was a bit higher, the gaudy emerald green hull flashing brightly through the heavy atmosphere as swell after swell lifted her graceful prow high.

There wasn't so much hubble-gubble when the boats finished today, the horns tootled a bit after Enterprise got over and the men of Britain's challenger were seen to rise and decant a half hearted cheer for Enterprise. Enterprise's dampened crew returned the cheer with much more gusto and Skipper Vanderbilt howed and scraped a bit and looked a little sheepish about it all through his rimless spectacles, a habit he has when he's winning.

Lipton Admits Disappointment at Shamrock's Race

Newport, R. I., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—"It is very disappointing, very," was Sir Thomas Lipton's first comment after the Enterprise had crossed the finish line a decisive winner over the Shamrock V.

Sir Thomas had spent the latter part of the afternoon on the bridge of the Erin in company with Capt. Edgar Thomas. He had watched the American defender gradually drawing away from his challenger on the second leg of the triangular course. Through his glasses he saw Shamrock's heavy balloon jib put her down at every dive into the swells and pull back, as though it was doing as much to retard her progress as to drive her ahead. The scluggishness of the challenger on this leg of the course was the despair and principal point of comment among British yachtsmen.

After his first feeling of disappointment, Sir Thomas' face brightened, the old twinkle came into his eyes, as he exclaimed with a smile:

"But there'll be a big chance after tonight, I'm going to put the ladies in full charge."

SANDS POINT POLO SQUAD OUTPLAYS OLD AIKEN, 8 TO 5

Reds Buy Nick Cullop, Home Run King of A. A.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 15.—(AP)—Nick Cullop of Minneapolis, champion home run hitter of the American association, was purchased today by the Cincinnati Reds for a sum which Sidney Weil, Reds president, did not disclose. Cullop has been ordered to report immediately to Manager Dan Howley in Boston. He has hit 55 home runs this year and is batting more than .370.

TRIBUNE GRID TESTS TO DRAW ENTRY OF 500

The entry list for THE TRIBUNE'S forward passing and drop kicking contests for boys which will be held in seven sections of the city Saturday morning is expected to total more than 500. Final tabulation is being made. All entries received bearing yesterday's postmark will be accepted.

The preliminary tests will be held at Bessemer park, Washington park, Douglas park, Mills' stadium, Kelvyn field, DePaul university and Loyola university field. All contests will start at 9 a. m.

The winners or those tied for first place in these contests will meet Saturday, Sept. 27, at Mills' stadium to determine the four champions. These boys will be THE TRIBUNE'S guests at a college football game this fall.

L'ESPERANCE AND WESTLAND WIN BEST BALL PLAY

Al L'Esperance, pro at the Westmoreland club, and Jack Westland, amateur of Sunset Ridge, won the Chicago District Golf association championship yesterday over the Sunset Ridge course with a best ball score of 35—33—34—102 for 27 holes.

Dave Tosh, pro at Sunset Ridge, and Howard Walton, Sunset Ridge amateur, were second, defeating George Arnold, Kildeer pro, and Dick Martin, Briargate amateur, in the playoff. Both had 105. In the extra hole Tosh sank a birdie 3, Martin's putt for a half stopping an inch short. Arnold and Martin were awarded third.

L'Esperance topped the pros in individual score with 114, while Westland not only beat out the amateurs, but the pros as well, with his 108.

LOCATE HUNTING GROUND NOW, IS BECKER'S ADVICE

BY BOB BECKER.

It's not too early for the pheasant, duck and rabbit hunters in Chicago-American régime of "plenty of game for places where they can get some sport with the shotgun when the open seasons on game permit enjoyable days afield.

Although the average American sportsman hates to admit it, he has to face the fact that the old time American regimé of "plenty of game and hunt where you want to" is gone forever. On the contrary, wild life in America is not in the plenty class and it is difficult to find open country for hunting.

Many of our game bird species are having a tough fight to hold their own, to say nothing of making a steady increase in numbers. The shorebirds are a good example. The government has had to place a closed season on all species except jacksnipe. This fall we face a lower limit on ducks; the possession limit being 30 or two days' bag limits. All of these signs indicate that we do not have an abundance of game in North America. However, with sportsmen coöperating with the government and regularly constituted conservation agencies, we can have sport for years to come, providing everybody lends a hand.

With this situation has come the closing of millions of acres of land to free lance hunters, many of whom have always held that the game belonged to the public and never mind with the farmers who raised the game. We hunters are largely responsible for this situation, until recently, because until recently there has been little if any coöperation between the gunners on one hand and the landowners on the other.

Happily, this condition is improving. The farmer has his rights and they are being recognized. One of the finest ways to show this recognition is for hunters to go out now and make friends with one or more farmers and arrange for shooting privileges on certain tracts of land. This can be done and is being done by the smart hunters and they are getting shooting for a very small amount of money.

sion, at least, fought Primo in his own right, pantomimed for three minutes. For old time's sake Primo went along with him, making things easy for his buddy. Max Brown had an inning, then Mel Beckham, a welterweight from Gary, Ind., shadowboxed a session.

See Expects a Victory.

"Primo will win tomorrow night," Leon See, his manager, admitted after consideration.

Adrian Ebl, Primo's valet from the island of Martinique, agreed. Adrian has come to like the playful slaps that are his daily portion as he cares for Carnera's outfit, and his only worry is he will not be needed when Carnera sails for Europe next month.

"No one will fight us," Manager See, continued, using the editorial "we" as he spoke of the man he raised from an eighty cent a day carpenter to affluence in 18 months.

"Why should we stay? We have many fights in Europe. Paulino will fight in Spain. The German champion, the French champion, Pierre Charles, the European champion. Yes, they will fight us, but Sharkey and Stribling, they won't fight us.

Gross Is No. 23.

"Twenty-two fights Primo's had here. Jack Gross will be 23. And Primo has knocked them out. All of them save Godfrey, and he fouled in the fifth round.

"Nineteen men Primo fought in Europe. Fifteen he knocked out. Only three go the limit. Yes, Stribling beat him on a foul in Paris. You understand Primo didn't really foul him," See demanded as he mentioned the fight. "No, two judges said Primo hit Stribling after the bell rang. One said the bell didn't ring. I didn't hear the bell, you understand. There was such noise."

"What do you think about fighting Gross?" Primo was asked.

"Too small," he replied. And you can believe that's the only thought Carnera's given tomorrow night's bout.

Fight Decisions

At White City—Edgar Norman, Sweden, stopped Frankie Wine, Montana [7]; Ray Tramblie, Rockford, Ill., beat Steve Hess, Chicago [8].

At Oklahoma City, Okla.—Babe Hunt, Ponca City, Okla., beat Johnny Risko, Cleveland [10].

ROBINS WIN 11TH STRAIGHT; BEAT REDS, 13 TO 5

Wilbert's Used to It.

"That was a hell of a good smack you hit out there just now, boy," said Uncle Wilbert Robinson as Wright returned to the bench. "But you hadn't ought to ever run down a runner ahead of you. They got a rule against it, I think."

Uncle Wilbert's fury in such situations, is not what it might be but he is accustomed to them. On Memorial day this year Del Bissonette hit a similar home run but he, also, passed Herman and was out, and a couple of years back, Herman hit a triple which eventuated into a triple play at third where three runners piled up and were caught in a mass play.

After the mirth had subsided, Bissonette and Boone singled and the bases filled up again when Finn walked. Lopez scored all three with a double to the left field barrier and Red Lucas, the starting pitcher turned over his appointment to Larry Benton. Clark brought Lopez home with the sixth run with a single, but Benton tossed out the next hitter and the scene closed amid jeers.

Salvation Dan's boys made only seven hits after that, including a single by Cuccinnelo in the sixth who was brought home in ease and style by Heilmann's home run, another free ball for the bleacher customers of whom there were precisely none at all by actual count.

Hendrick Refuses to Run.

There was another high point in the comedy in the fourth inning, when Hendrick, waiting on third, positively refused to score on Herman's long single to right, but waited until the ball had been thrown in for a futile play at second, when he abruptly left his base and ran home, standing up, as Ford perused the label on the baseball. Two other runs were scored in this inning, but the process was very involved and this is only intended for a synopsis, anyway.

MAJESTIC AND GRIGSBY SHARES TARGET OF BEARS

Feature Chicago Stock Market Selling.

BY THOMAS FURLONG.

Capitalizing on the fact that Majestic Household has been forced to curtail manufacturing operations bear traders on the Chicago exchange made a concerted attack on the company's stock yesterday and on the shares of the parent firm, the Grigsby-Grunow company. The raid resulted in severe declines in both issues with the Grigsby shares dropping to a new all time low of 10⅛. Majestic suffered a net loss of nearly 10 points.

The fact that large scale production has not yet been started by Majestic furnished ammunition to the short sellers who used it effectively. The temporary curtailment in operations was caused by necessary readjustments in some of the manufacturing equipment, it was stated by company representatives.

Partially Supplied.

The company's dealers and distributing agencies have been partially supplied with refrigerators and the company is going ahead with plans for large scale production, it was stated.

Sales in Majestic alone exceeded 81,000 shares, while transactions in Grigsby approximated 39,000 shares. The low point of Majestic for the day was 33½ and final price was a bare fraction above that figure. The last transaction in Grigsby was made at 10⅝, as compared with the bottom price for the day of 10⅛, a record low. Both issues enjoyed a temporary recovery around midday brought about by short covering and supporting orders, but the rally was short lived and the close found the prices around their day's lows.

Missouri-Kansas Pipe Line was an early target of the shorts. After dipping to a record low of 14 the issues recovered to 15⅛, off 1½ for the day.

Elsewhere in the list final quotations were moderately below the level of last week's close. Trading in the investment group was centered in the Chicago corporation and Continental Chicago issues and resulted in no important price changes.

Reduce Dividend Rate.

Acme Steel was steady on light trade in the face of news that directors reduced the annual dividend rate on the stock from $4 to $2.50 by the declaration of a quarterly payment of 62½ cents. The reduction in the rate was decided on because of the decline in business volume, officials explained.

Among the miscellaneous shares which sustained losses of a point or more were Auburn, Borg-Warner, and Merchants and Manufacturers "A." Viking Pump was bid up 2½ on a trade of 100 shares.

Among the utility stocks trading was slow. Cities Service and Middle West, the volume leaders, showed an easier trend. Twin States Natural Gas, for which new financing is being carried out today, was dull.

The financing consists of an offering by Investment Securities corporation and E. R. Diggs & Co. of an issue of $2,500,000 of convertible six per cent debentures of the company which are dated Aug. 1 and will mature in 1933. Part of the proceeds will be used to finance the acquisition of 91 per cent of the common stock of the Midland Natural Gas company which was recently announced.

De Forest Radio.

What is the chance of De Forest Radio company stock coming back? I need the income from my investment and if this is not a good one I will buy something else. Please give me information on this company—C. M. D.

De Forest Radio company experienced an unprofitable first quarter of its new fiscal year which began April 1, 1930, although it was reported that the replacement tube business had been better than in the first quarter of the preceding year. Plants were operating at about one-third of capacity.

This company was incorporated in 1924 and carries on a business which was started in 1913. It manufactures and sells receiving and transmitting vacuum tubes, photo electric cells, neon lamps, etc.

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 1930, net loss was $208,919, which was equal to a deficit of 15 cents per share. The company was operated under receivership from June 24, 1926, to June 11, 1928, when a reorganization was effected.

In October, 1929, control of Jenkins Television corporation was acquired through an exchange of stock.

As of March 31, 1930, current assets were $1,382,210, and current liabilities were $81,958, leaving a net working capital of $1,300,252. There was a capital surplus of $600,000 and a profit and loss deficit of $37,769.

No dividends have been reported on the present shares.

We do not predict the course of the market.

$5,000 to Invest.

I am a teacher and I have $5,000 which I would like to invest. What would you consider a safe investment at a yield of 6 per cent, either stocks or bonds, bonds preferred?—Miss E. K.

If safety of principal and assured income are what you need most your funds should properly be invested in a number of highest grade bonds. You might keep a portion of your funds on deposit in a good savings bank, the amount depending upon how much money you want to keep available for quick use.

We do not suggest specific securities for investment. One reason for this is that we cannot be put in the position of boosting any particular stock or bond. Another is that it is impossible to say just what particular security is suitable for an individual without knowing details about that individual's circumstances.

The best plan for you is to get in touch with some bank or investment house of excellent reputation and have them suggest a number of securities. Then, if you will give us the names of the securities suggested we shall be glad to report on them.

U. S. BUSINESS, AT LEAST, QUITS SINGING 'BLUES'

Ayres, Friday See Better Outlook.

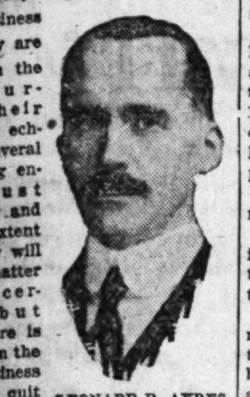
BY O. A. MATHER.

Two well-known American economists yesterday expressed the opinion that business and industry are definitely on the upgrade. Furthermore, their beliefs were echoed by several heads of big enterprises. Just how quickly and to what extent the recovery will come is a matter of less certainty, but at least there is consolation in the fact that business men have quit singing the "blues" and are striking a major chord.



LEONARD P. AYRES

Col. Leonard P. Ayres, vice president of the Cleveland Trust company, made an optimistic analysis of conditions in one of his periodical statements. And Dr. David Friday, formerly head of the department of political economy at the University of Michigan and at New York university, made cheerful predictions before the Bond Men's Club of Chicago. Dr. Friday recently returned from a study of European conditions.

"Business appears to be turning the corner and industrial activity seems to be increasing," Col. Ayres said. "Nevertheless, the processes of improvement are not yet so definite as to justify confidence in their durability. They have been demonstrably under way in recent weeks and some of them have been more than merely seasonal.

Low Point in July.

"The lowest point in the business depression so far appears to have been reached at the end of July. Since the first week of August industrial activity in some of the most important of the basic lines has been increasing and to a degree that justifies the hope, but not the conviction, that the lowest point of the depression has been reached and left behind.

"Increased output in some of the fundamental lines of productive industry appears to give evidence that a turn is in the making. Moreover, other economic indicators are acting as they have in past cycles when depression was giving way to the beginning of recovery. The decline of business has lasted more than a year. Bond prices have been rising for a good many months. Drives against stock prices fail to gather much headway. The long decline in commodity prices appears to have been checked, both here and in some foreign countries. This may be a real turn."

Not only is business in the United States definitely on the upgrade, but an international trade revival is imminent, according to Dr. Friday. He also predicted that bond prices will advance for at least six months.

To Keep Improving, He Says.

"Business from now on will be improving," he said. "When the final accounts are in it will be found that profits of industry as a whole in 1930 will be at least as good as in 1925 and 1926 and possibly higher. Dividend payments this year will total higher than any year before, with the possible exception of 1929. The payment of dividends is the most stable element in the financial and economic structure.

"It is not going to require nearly as much credit to carry and build up stocks of goods as in the last year, for the reason that commodity prices are low. Therefore money rates are likely to continue reasonable. Because of savings and high dividend and interest payments, there is a tremendous public absorptive power.

"The world is not in as bad financial or industrial shape as it seems to many. A large part of the difficulty has been political, but these difficulties are rapidly becoming dissipated. There is every reason to believe that an international revival in trade is imminent and I believe it will continue slowly but consistently."

Grace, Steel Chief, Pits His Word Against Eaton's

Youngstown, O., Sept. 15.—(AP)—Eugene G. Grace, president of the Bethlehem Steel corporation, pitted his word against that of Cyrus S. Eaton, Cleveland financier and leading opponent of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube-Bethlehem merger, when he was recalled today as a defense witness in the injunction suit against the merger.

CYRUS S. EATON. [P. & A. Photo.]

Eaton previously had denied that at a meeting of the principals in Cleveland on March 11, one day before the Youngstown directors approved the consolidation, he had said he was "unalterably opposed" to the merger.

Grace testified today that he did make such a statement.

Eaton also had denied a quotation imputed to him at the same meeting that he "had other plans for Youngstown."

Grace said he also made that statement in just those words. In direct testimony Eaton quoted J. A. Campbell, Youngstown chairman, as stating at the March 11 meeting that he did not have much to do with the merger negotiations, but that they were handled chiefly by Grace and Henry G. Dalton of Cleveland, a director in both companies.

Didn't Hear Statement.

Grace said he was willing to swear he did not hear Campbell make any such statement.

The re-introduction of the Bethlehem president came unexpectedly in the midst of an involved presentation of figures during the cross-examination of W. B. Campbell of Price Waterhouse & Co., the merger auditors.

Grace appeared in the courtroom this morning for the first time in days. It had not been unusual for him to go back to the east and return to Youngstown after extended absence. But the fact that his reappearance this time was for the purpose of testifying was not made known to the spectators until after the noon recess when Attorney F. H. Wood, Bethlehem counsel, asked permission to interrupt the cross-examination of George O. May, Price Waterhouse & Co. auditor.

Volunteers Testimony.

Wood's questioning of Grace was comparatively brief and when Attorney Luther Day of plaintiff's counsel took over the cross-examination it was brought out that the Bethlehem president returned to testify concerning statements made since his last appearance on the stand.

The March 11 meeting was held in the office of Pickands Mather & Co., Cleveland ore firm, four days after Eaton, according to his own testimony, was first informed of the Bethlehem deal. Eaton is a large stockholder in Sheet and Tube. He said that at the time he was working on a merger with Inland Steel of Chicago with the knowledge of Chairman Campbell.

Grace not only failed to recall Campbell saying that he did not have much of a part in the Bethlehem negotiations but volunteered the testimony that Campbell had started the negotiations and had led throughout. Day objected and the answer dwindled down to the statement that Campbell did most of the talking for Youngstown.

Concerning Eaton's alleged statement about being "unalterably opposed" to the merger, Day asked the witness if William G. Mather and S. Livingston Mather of Cleveland, Eaton associates, who were present at the March 11 meeting, sat near enough to hear the financier's remarks.

Grace said he thought they were in a position to hear. Both the Mathers testified, as witnesses of the court, that they could not recall hearing Mr. Eaton make the statement.

Day cross-questioned the witness at length on a meeting held in the Bethlehem offices on March 28, the day following a gathering in Youngstown when Eaton was quoted in a speech as saying that Price Waterhouse & Co. had made a "grievous error."

Purpose of Meeting.

Grace said the meeting was called to form a coördinated plan for presenting information to Sheet and Tube stockholders and not because of Eaton's charge. He was unable to recall definitely whether he had heard of Eaton's speech late on March 27 or the next day.

"Do you remember of ever characterizing Mr. Eaton's speech as mere idle chatter?" Day asked.

"I might have, but I can't recall," the witness answered.

The suggestion that outside accountants be called in to check the Price-Waterhouse basis for recommending the merger terms originated with George O. May of the auditing firm, Grace testified. He said he turned the matter over to Attorney Moore of Bethlehem counsel and that Youngstown approved the selection of the auditors, but he did not remember exactly how.

Grace at first admitted under questioning by Day that he must have known prior to April 8, the date of the Youngstown stockholders' meeting, that the committee opposed to the merger was trying to get information which was supposed to have been before the Youngstown directors on March 12. He later corrected the statement, saying that he may have heard of it first during the court proceedings. He said he felt that was a matter which concerned the Youngstown directors, that it did not impress him and meant nothing to him.

LIFE INSURANCE FOR 8 MONTHS IS 0.3% AHEAD OF '29

New York, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Although new life insurance purchases last month declined 8.7 per cent in comparison with August last year, the total of new business for the first eight months this year was 0.3 of one per cent above the cumulative total for the like period of 1929, the report of the Association of Life Insurance Presidents to the United States department of commerce shows.

The aggregate for August of all classes written by 44 member companies having 82 per cent of the total life insurance in all United States legal reserve companies amounted to $929,008,000, against $1,017,113,000 for August last year. The total for the first eight months was $8,678,501,000, against $8,651,501,000 in the like period last year.

Steel Operations in the Youngstown Dist. Steady

New York, Sept. 15.—Steel operations in the Youngstown district remain unchanged this week at 57 per cent of rated capacity, Dow, Jones & Co. reports. The Republic Steel corporation has blown out the Trumbull blast furnace at Warren, O., in preparation for its expansion into the largest furnace of the corporation. The cost of the improvement will approximate $325,000.

August Sales of 50 Chains Boost 8 Months' Total

Fifty chain store companies reporting sales for August brought the total for the first eight months this year to $2,577,353,306, an increase of 2.19 per cent over $2,521,873,933 for the corresponding period last year, a compilation by Merrill, Lynch & Co., shows.

BRITISH FOREIGN TRADE IS OFF FROM THE TWO PREVIOUS YEARS

END U. S. SUIT AGAINST OIL COMPANIES; AGREE TO STOP PRICE FIXING

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—(AP)—The department of justice announced today that the government's anti-trust action against the Standard Oil company of California and seventeen other oil companies had been terminated by entrance of a consent decree in San Francisco whereby the companies agreed to discontinue their "conspiracy" to fix prices.

The government charged that the Standard of California, Texas, General Petroleum and the Richfield Union and Associated Oil companies, through an intermediary named Long, contracted to purchase all the gasoline which the independents did not sell to others and that this contract permitted the major companies to control the supply and fix the retail price of gasoline.

The consent decree entered today by Judge St. Sure at San Francisco, declares the Long contracts illegal and void; and restrains the defendants from conducting their business pursuant to any common understanding to eliminate competition as to prices of gasoline.

The companies were believed by the government to hold control of gasoline prices in the five Pacific coast states.

Teagle Says European Oil Conditions Same as Here

New York, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Walter C. Teagle, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, returning today from abroad, said that oil conditions in Europe are like those in America. "The industry there is suffering from overproduction and depressed prices for both crude and refined products." Mr. Teagle said there "is nothing to the Spanish oil monopoly, which I have already emphatically denied."

Cites Possibilities of Consumer Co-operatives

BY SCRUTATOR.

Individualism in the economic life of the United States, if not actually frowned upon, is not the fair-haired boy of American legislation. It could be said without much stretching of the truth that the laws are in front of the conscious desires of most citizens in promotion of coöperative effort against little regulated individual enterprise.

Coöperation of farmers has been the subject of much writing of late. Their organizations have been permitted in many instances to do, if they wish, things which would make the usual type of business man liable to anti-trust proceedings.

But the approval of coöperation does not stop with farm producers. There is a wide recognition of consumer coöperation in state laws. The department of labor, in its monthly labor review, states that thirty-four states now have laws bearing specifically on the formation and the operation of their associations. These laws have been amended greatly in the last ten years, according to the department, in the direction of liberalization, of widening the field of the consumer coöperatives, of enlarging their powers and raising their standards.

Returns Profits.

A consumer coöperative, as it usually is defined in the laws, pays only a fixed return on the capital invested and returns the profits to its customers in the form of dividends, based on the amount of purchases. Most of the laws are favorable toward appropriating a certain amount of the profits for teaching the benefits of coöperation. Five states require such appropriations.

Except in isolated instances, the consumer coöperatives do not seem to have become tremendous factors in business. However, the monthly labor review found twenty-three of them in 1928 doing more than $100,000 annual business, and three with more than a million and a half dollars. In the northern states group it was reported there were more than 50,000 persons affiliated with eighty-eight coöperatives.

One of the most discussed experiments in this field is a creamery in Minneapolis-St. Paul. Started by striking milk drivers in 1920, it now has 425 employés and $821,000 in paid in capital. Sales last year were near three and a half million dollars. Customers are stockholders.

Filling Stations.

Another business in which possibilities for coöperative expansion are regarded as good is the retail filling station. A year ago there were some 400 of them and one of their advocates was quoted as stating they were all successful. Small capital requirements and ease of operation were given as factors in this success.

The value of consumer coöperatives could be demonstrated if monopoly conditions existed. Their economic justification would seem to be small unless they can actually sell at costs that are below those of profit making organizations in competition. Yet they get at least mild approval from legislators and government bureaus. They may some time have to be reckoned with on a big scale by merchandising corporations, although this seems now far in the future.

$30,000,000 LOAN SOUND BUSINESS, STONE ASSERTS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—The loan of $30,000,000 by Chicago and New York banks to the Grain Stabilization corporation which was agreed to yesterday in Chicago was approved by the federal farm board as "a sound business transaction," James C. Stone, vice chairman of the board, said today.

JAMES C. STONE. [Harris & Ewing Pho.]

Mr. Stone explained that as a result of the private loan the Stabilization corporation will be able to repay $30,000,000 to the board which will use it in other operations. He indicated that inasmuch as the board now has only about $10,000,000 of its funds uncommitted that the repayment at this time will be welcome.

Financial Advertisers Leave for Convention

About eighty financial advertising men will leave on a special train tonight for Louisville to attend the fifteenth annual convention of the Financial Advertisers association. The party will be headed by A. E. Bryson, president of the association, who is vice president of Halsey, Stuart & Co. An attendance of 500 is expected at the convention, which will have for its theme, "The Challenge of the Next Decade." The convention opens tomorrow and closes on Saturday. F. D. Sampson, governor of Kentucky, will be guest of honor at the annual banquet Friday evening.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 15.—Maybe its old jibboom was out of joint or possibly the heavy headwinds of selling and the dead calms it alternately encountered cramped its style, but any way the stock market found the going heavy today, unusually so. In fact, it went backwards most of the time. It was going that way at the finish.

Most of the activity was on the side of reaction and a poor lot it was. The buying, however, was just as poor. Neither action appeared to want to start anything that might detract brokerage house interest from a yacht race of some sort which was said to be in progress a ways up the coast.

The day got away to a rather inauspicious start with opening prices irregularly and in the main fractionally lower. As the forenoon wore on, the bear element—evidently remembering the ease with which it toppled prices over in its drive Saturday morning—launched out and for a time succeeded in making quite a show of itself.

Support Appears.

By noon prices were down generally from 1 to 2 points with a scattering of much sharper losses. Then the chief targets of the attack seemed to be meeting with enough support to make a stand and the selling dried up. Short covering rallied prices a bit here and there but the finals were anywhere from a fraction to 5 points below Saturday's figures.

The list as a whole got no suppoort at all from the recognized leaders. A handful of shares of miscellaneous description ran counter to the downward trend but most of them were second raters, obviously influenced by special conditions. Auto-Strop, A. P. W. Paper, Great Northern and Real

Standard Oil (New Jersey) and North American Trust Shares

The Largest Fixed Investment Trust*

THE next time you pull into a service station to fill up with gas and oil, consider what this country of ours would be without these essentials to motor transportation. Every day, for as far into the future as we can see, millions of motorists will be stopping at hundreds of thousands of service stations.

Oil has become a fundamental necessity—and one of the largest corporations in the field is the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey)—one of the 28 leading corporations the common stocks of which stand behind each North American Trust Share. This corporation, through subsidiaries, is one of the largest factors in the natural gas industry.

Among the other stocks underlying North American Trust Shares are United States Steel, American Telephone & Telegraph, Pennsylvania Railroad, American Tobacco and General Electric.

Available Through Your Bank or Investment Dealer

Points About N. A. T. S.

1—Each North American Trust Share represents an investment in the common stocks of 28 outstanding corporations, leaders in their respective fields.

2—An investment in North American Trust Shares is as sound as American industry itself. The products and services of the companies, the common stocks of which underlie this trust, are directly related to every phase of human life.

3—The underlying stocks, all of which are listed on the New York Stock Exchange, are deposited with the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, Trustee. The trustee issues 2,000 N.A.T.S. upon the deposit of 4 shares each of the underlying stocks together with applicable reserve fund and accumulations.

4—The 28 underlying companies have an average unbroken dividend record of 33 years, combined total assets of more than 24 billion dollars and combined surplus and reserves of over 6.7 billion dollars.

5—N.A.T.S. are readily marketable. In addition to the established market which has been maintained at ½ point below the asked price the holder of the smallest denomination of shares may liquidate through the trustee without penalty. The holder of 500 shares or any multiple thereof may convert through the trustee into the underlying stocks.

6—Each certificate carries coupons calling for semi-annual disbursement of all distributions received by the trustee on the deposited stocks. On June 30, 1930, a semi-annual income and capital distribution of $1.34 per share was made.

7—N. A. T. S. holders are offered rights semi-annually permitting reinvestment of all return in excess of cash dividends on deposited stocks at a discount from the asked price. This program results in retention of appreciation and maintenance of original diversification.

8—N. A. T. S. are available in denominations ranging from 10 shares to 10,000 shares. Thus an investment in the shares of 28 leading corporations can be made for less than $100.

9—Current price for N. A. T. S. per share is about 8⅜

WHEAT BULGES EARLY, BUT SELLS OFF TO NEW LOW

Shows ¼@⅝c Losses; Sept. at 79⅛@80c.

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Wheat made a strong start and a tame finish with an upturn of around 1c early on buying induced by strength in Liverpool. The bulge, however, was short lived and all deliveries weakened on persistent selling by houses with northwestern connections and sold off to a new low for the season. Short covering caused a rally from the inside figures, with the close at net losses of ¼@⅝c, September being 79⅞@80c; December, 85@85⅛c and May, 91⅞@92c at the last.

September wheat at the day's inside figure was 79⅛c, or within 2⅝c of the lowest at which it sold during July, 1914. Both the September and December deliveries are selling at the lowest prices for this season of the year since 1906.

Hedging Pressure in Wheat.

Local observers generally credited the northwestern selling of wheat futures to hedging against cash grain. There was also pressure from the local element on the prospective heavy increase in the domestic visible supply, and the lowest figures of the day were made when the statement was posted showing a gain of 7,585,000 bu, and making the total 198,673,000 bu, the largest on record, exceeding by 4,458,000 bu, the maximum reached in November last year. In 1929 stocks at this time of the year were 185,544,000 bu. Selling of wheat here against purchases at Winnipeg, presumably to close spreads, had some effect on the market at times, as did the selling of wheat against purchases of corn.

Dry weather in Argentina, lessened pressure of Russian wheat and short covering caused unexpected strength in Liverpool, which gained ⅞@1⅛d for the day. The upturn, however, was not reflected in any increase in the demand for North American grain, even though the supply on ocean passage decreased nearly 5,000,000 bu for the week. The world shipments of 12,755,000 bu fell below last year's clearances for the first time in some weeks.

Highly beneficial rains fell over a good part of the winter wheat belt, and will put the soil in better condition for plowing and seeding of the new crop. Private cables claimed the drought prevailed in western and southern Buenos Aires, and farmers were complaining, although a report to the United States department of agriculture said rainfall in the south for the week ending Sept. 1 was above normal, a one half inch rain being received.

Corn Prices Decline.

Corn market was on the downgrade with all futures at a new low on the present movement, the December touching 84⅝c or 15⅛c under the recent high. Commission houses were fair sellers early, but when December corn and wheat sold at practically the same price as the result of a bulge in the latter grain, spreaders started to buy corn and sell wheat. This widened the difference to around 1⅝c at the last. The finish was at net losses of ½@⅞c with September at 91¼@91⅝c; December, 86⅝@86½c, and May at 89@89⅛c.

There was little in the general run of the news that attracted attention, although shipping demand showed improvement with sales of 150,000 bu, while country offerings were limited. An increase of 107,000 bu in the visible supply raised the total to 4,690,000 bu, against 4,381,000 bu last year. Heavy rain over part of the belt is expected to check the too rapid maturity of the new corn crop.

While September oats showed fair strength the deferred deliveries weakened under scattered liquidation and hedging pressure, with the May selling at a new low for the season. September closed ⅛c higher at 36⅞c, with the deferred futures off ⅝@¾c, December 39⅝@39½c, and May, 42⅝c.

Rye showed pronounced weakness and closed 1¼@2¼c lower with selling here against purchases at Winnipeg and scattered liquidation carrying prices off rather sharply. September closed at 53⅝c; December, 58⅝c; and May, 65¼c.

SUGAR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw, was unchanged today with offerings more liberal. Although quiet, raw futures easier under liquidation and selling by houses with Wall street and Cuban connections, with final prices showing net losses of 2 to 5 points. Approximate sales were only 11,200 tons. Prices follow:

CASH·GRAIN NEWS

While North American cash wheat can be bought at the lowest price in 16 years there was no improvement in the foreign demand, although scattered lots of Manitobas were said to have been disposed of. Local handlers sold 75,000 bu to mills. Basis at the gulf remains unchanged on No. 1 hard winter despite reports of a limited inquiry with 2½c over December quoted for last half September loading.

Deliveries on September contracts aggregated 481,000 bu wheat; 85,000 bu corn; 27,000 bu oats, and 35,000 bu rye. There was 25,000 bu corn sold to go to store.

White corn in the sample market was steady as compared with the September while yellow and mixed were ½c lower. Country offerings to arrive were limited, and mainly held 2c above buyers' views. Premiums as compared with September follow: No. 1 and No. 2 mixed, 1¼c; yellow, 1½@1¾c; white, 5c; No. 3 mixed, ¾@1c; yellow, 1c; white, 4½c. Shipping sales aggregated 15,000 bu.

BUYING LIFTS COTTON

Buying by trade interests more than offset hedging sales of cotton and prices averaged higher, speculators exhibiting a more friendly feeling toward the market and at the top there was an advance of 10 to 16 points. Best prices were not maintained, but the finish showed net gains of 2 to 6 points on the active deliveries at Chicago while New Orleans was 1 to 6 points and New York 2 to 4 points higher.

The south shows decided determination to hold its cotton off the market, although the movement is increasing rapidly with generally fair weather in Texas and Oklahoma while rains were reported in other sections. Textile and trade reports as a whole remain unfavorable. Spots in New Orleans were unchanged at 10.65c with New York 5 points lower at 10.95c; Houston and Galveston, 10.85c. Prices follow:

BUTTER AND EGGS

Selling pressure resulted in fractional losses for butter and egg futures on the Chicago mercantile exchange yesterday. November butter dropped below 39c during the day, but firmed up later in the session. Final sales went at 39c, off ⅛c. December closed at 39¼c, off ⅛c. November eggs eased a fraction, closing at 26⅝c, off ⅛c. December eggs closed at 27½, off ½c.

While the statistical news of the day was fairly bullish in butter conflicting information regarding production tended to hold the market within a narrow range. The storage report showed 93,000 pounds more removed than a year ago, but some sources reported production increasing. Others declared the make shrinking. Selling was fairly broad at the opening, but short covering and new speculative buying firmed up toward the close. The eggs news was only slightly bullish, about 3,000 cases more being taken out in the four markets. Sales: Butter—November, 144 cars; December, 2 cars. Eggs—November, 110 cars; December, 1 car. Receipts: Butter—11,275 tubs; eggs, 12,300 cases. Prices follow:

OLD STANDBYS YIELD GROUND IN STOCK MARKET

Allied Chemical and Dye Down 8 Points.

Silk Hosiery were conspicuous among the dissenters.

The old standbys such as American Can, General Electric, Steel, Radio, Standard of New Jersey, American Telephone, Consolidated Gas, and Johns Manville retreated almost without a struggle. Steel was chalked over with a loss of more than 2 points at the close. Some of the others made even worse showings.

Assault and Battery.

Several important issues were rather severely battered. Allied Chemical and Dye was driven down for a loss of nearly 8 points. American Tobacco and Industrial Rayon each lost 7 points, while Diamond Match and Case Threshing Machine dropped around 5 points each. Others to come in for a drubbing were Eastman Kodak, Woolworth, R. H. Macy, Worthington Pump, Safeway Stores, Foster-Wheeler, A. M. Byers, Union Carbide, Gulf States Steel and Air Reduction. Losses of 1 to 3 points were the rule among them.

The utilities made a sorry showing as a group. American Power and Light sold off nearly 4 points and declines of 1 to more than 2 points occurred in Standard Gas and Electric, Electric Power and Light, American & Foreign Power, North American, Brooklyn Union and others.

In the oils losses of a point or so were suffered by Standard of New Jersey, Houston, and Texas & Pacific Land Trust. Coppers continued to show a heavy tone as a group, ruling lower throughout the day. The group today was a trifle unsettled by the reported move by leading producers to meet the 10¾ cent price being held by customs smelters.

TRANSAMERICA CUTS DIVIDEND RATE TO DOLLAR

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 15.—The Trans-America corporation, large bank stockholding organization, whose shares were admitted recently to the New York stock exchange, announced today a reduction in its dividend rate to $1 annually following declaration of a quarterly dividend of 25 cents a share. The previous basis was 40 cents quarterly, or $1.60 a year.

Formal action by directors today follows a statement by the management of Trans-America on July 14 that it would recommend to directors that the October dividend be 25 cents instead of 40 cents paid heretofore.

Directors of the Auto Strop Safety Razor company, Ltd., of Toronto, declared a cash dividend of 8 per cent and a 100 per cent stock dividend. The action revived reports in the street that negotiations between the Gillette Safety Razor company and Auto Strop were approaching a climax. It was believed an announcement of consummation of the proposed fusion would be made tomorrow or Wednesday. New financing in connection with the reported combine was believed likely.

TREASURY HAS TURNOVER OF A BILLION DOLLARS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—(AP)—More than a billion dollars went in and out of the treasury today in the regular quarterly financial transactions of the government.

The third quarter of this year's income taxes was due and collections of about $500,000,000 were estimated to have been paid. The large portion of income taxes were paid, however, during the first quarter.

The new treasury offering of $334,000,000 in certificates bearing 2⅞ per cent was issued. The certificates will mature a year hence. This is the lowest interest rate obtained by the government on any of its securities.

At the same time Secretary Mellon retired $351,000,000 in treasury certificates bearing 3⅛ per cent, which matured today; redeemed $50,900,000 in treasury bills, and made a payment of $35,000,000 in interest on the public debt.

Merchants Savings and Trust, Cleveland, Closed

Cleveland, O., Sept. 15.—(AP)—The state banking department closed the Merchants Savings and Trust bank and its one branch here today after examiners reported the bank unable to make collections on loans, most of which were on real estate. The bank had approximately $2,000,000 deposits, and $1,937,880 in loans and discounts.

PLAN TINY GOLF COURSE FOR THE CONGRESS HOTEL

Will Have an Entrance on Peacock Alley.

BY AL CHASE.

Indoor golf of the midget variety is to be one of the attractions of the Congress hotel's well known Peacock alley. John Burke, vice president of the Congress Hotel company, yesterday announced that most of the space formerly occupied by Blum's Vogue is being converted at an expense of approximately $10,000 into one of the most attractive tiny golf courses in the country. The outdoor scenic effects are to be the work of Cleomene Nelli, formerly with Lasky and designer of considerable art work in the Ambassador hotel, Los Angeles.

The new course will have a frontage of 150 feet on Michigan avenue and will open on to Peacock alley, directly opposite the balloon room. This is the first Chicago hotel to install an indoor golf course of this type. Mr. Burke states that it probably will be opened next Friday. The devices are the property of Miniature Golf Courses, Inc.

River Grove to Have Playground.

The Veterans' park district of Cook county has purchased a square block just west of River road and north of Fullerton avenue in River Grove for development as a playground. The sellers included Loomis M. Jacobson, John W. Trumbull and George Plummer.

The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad has transferred to the Western Electric company the northeast corner of West 26th street and South Cicero avenue, 522x70, in exchange for a parcel just west to be used in alteration of the road's right of way.

Gas Station Leases.

Frank and Joseph McDonnell have leased the southwest corner of 60th street and Wabash avenue from Rebecca Levin for ten years from Oct. 1, 1930, at an indicated term rental of $16,500, for a gas station.

Another gas station lease negotiated yesterday is the property at the southwest corner of 87th street and South Racine avenue. Borgia F. Hopkins leased it from Belle I. and Marion E. Magee for ten years with option to renew for five years at a rental equal to annual taxes.

The property at 2001-17 West Adams street, 175x121, improved with eight old houses, has been sold by the John Guy Owsley estate to Charles S. Pratt for an indicated $60,000.

CAFETERIA FIRM REPORT.

Wil-Low Cafeterias, Inc., reports gross sales for the 10 months ending July 31, 1930, of $3,430,492 and profit before depreciation, amortization, and taxes of $358,773 and after depreciation, amortization and taxes net profit available for dividends of $286,477. This equals $1.44 per share on the common stock for the ten months period.

GERMAN POLITICAL UNCERTAINTY LEADS TO DECLINE IN BONDS

New York, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Uncertainty over the political situation in Germany following the general election brought a wave of selling of Dollar bonds of the republic and industrials on the New York stock exchange today.

The new German International 5½s were the most heavily traded issue, reacting 1⅞ to reach the lowest quoted price since it appeared, and German 7s sagged to a new year's low. Agricultural bank bonds and several industrial bonds moved a point or more lower.

The volume of business was the smallest in several weeks and changes were narrow, with the preponderance on the upside. The brightest spot in the domestic section was United States governments. Buying interest centered in treasury issues and treasury 4¼s, 4s and 3¾s made the best gains.

Some observers were inclined to attribute the slackening in business—the total volume of sales was $6,936,000—to the large volume of new offerings last week. Today's new issues approximated $5,000,000 with two offerings for tomorrow totaling $22,500,000.

In addition to the sharp reaction that developed in German bonds, some of the South American issues worked lower. Several Chilean, Brazilian and Colombian municipal and industrial issues sagged. Further recovery was made by Argentine, Peruvian and Uruguayan issues.

STAFF OF TARIFF COMMISSION TO BE PUBLIC TODAY

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—President Hoover has completed selection of members of the new tariff commission and will announce them tomorrow, the last date allowed under the law.

John Lee Coulter of North Dakota, chief economist of the tariff commission and formerly president of North Dakota Agricultural college, will be named as one of the Republican members, according to reports today. Prof. Coulter, presumably would be the representative of agriculture on the commission.

The President already has announced the selection of Henry P. Fletcher of Pennsylvania, former ambassador to Italy, as chairman of the commission, and Thomas Walker Page of Virginia, an economist and former chairman of the commission, as one of the Democratic members.

If Prof. Coulter is appointed it is thought unlikely that the President will appoint E. B. Brossard of Utah, present chairman of the commission, whose political sponsor is Senator Reed Smoot [Rep., Utah].

Alfred P. Dennis of Maryland, present Democratic member, a close friend of the President, may not be reappointed because Pennsylvania and Virginia, states adjacent to Maryland, already have been given representation. Two Democrats remain to be announced.

Members of the present commission besides Mr. Brossard and Mr. Dennis are Thomas O. Marvin of Massachusetts and Sherman J. Lowell of New York, Republicans, and Lincoln Dixon of Indiana and Frank Clark of Florida, Democrats.

Every Investor Should Consider Bonds

Debenture bond prices have not advanced appreciably above the levels of 1929—the year of lowest prices since 1925. Present market conditions and low interest rates indicate a strong bond market in the near future accompanied by rising bond prices.

For safety and a good return we recommend Associated Gas and Electric Company Gold Debenture Bonds, due 1968—priced to yield over 5¼%.

The forked stick

A FEW hundred years ago, plowing was done by hand with a forked stick—then came shaped wooden plows drawn by oxen—then metal plows drawn by horses—and now we have the steel or chilled iron plow drawn by tractors.

Practically every modern mechanical improvement on the farm can be traced to an American invention—the steel and chilled iron plow, the thresher, the binder, the reaper, the tractor, the combine—all originated in this country. Today, American made farm machinery is used in every part of the globe.

This is another instance of the pioneer spirit of American industry. American business men are never satisfied with present performance, they are continually seeking to do a better job today than yesterday.

This bank is proud of its connection with American business, and it is our objective to serve American business men to the limit of our capacity. Our officers are always glad to take all the time necessary for this purpose.

NOW EVEN SMALL EMPLOYERS CAN BUY GROUP INSURANCE

Almost all employers are familiar with the advantages of group life insurance. They know that by insuring the lives of those who work for them they can speed up production, win greater loyalty and decrease their labor turnover. But the rule requiring 50 or more persons to be insured has made it impossible for the small employer to avail himself of this inexpensive but highly appreciated form of welfare work.

Now, however, Continental offers a Wholesale Life Insurance Policy that enables the employer of less than 50 persons to obtain insurance protection for them at low cost. Even employees who, because of physical defects, are barred from obtaining insurance individually can be protected under this plan. Ask your agent or broker to tell you more about Continental Wholesale Life Insurance, as well as the many other forms of insurance and surety bond protection offered by these great local companies . . . the only Multiple Line Insurance Organization with Home Offices in Chicago.

| Top yesterday, $9.15; average, $8.25. | |

Estimated receipts at Chicago today, 10,000 cattle, 22,000 hogs, and 27,000 sheep.

Top cattle held the high position established last Thursday in spite of liberal receipts, while hogs ruled strong to 10c higher on yesterday's trade. The largest supply of native lambs in about two years swamped the market and prices dipped 50c, but offerings moved freely at the reduction, indicating a broad outlet for lamb at prevailing quotations. There was a good clearance in all branches of the live stock trade.

Hog receipts at 33,000 were only moderate for Monday at this time of the year, and with local packers buying freely at last week's closing quotations there was a slight upturn in mid-session. Most closing sales were 5@10c above Saturday's average.

Medium and weighty butchers were scarce and showed most strength. The general average, however, held steady at $10.10, with the extreme top at $11.15, the same as last Friday and Saturday.

Eight local packers handled a total of more than 20,000 head, including 11,400 directs. Only 4,000 remained at the close. Five markets report 53,000 hogs in sight for today, against 58,600 last Tuesday, Chicago being the only market showing an increase. Local prices are relatively the highest in the country. The extreme high spot in the east was $11.50, while some middle western markets are selling top hogs at $10.50.

Today's Hogs Bid $11.15.

Medium weight hogs, averaging 210@260 lbs, were bid $11.15 for today's delivery on the "to arrive" market yesterday, but no offers were made at this figure. Trading in hog futures was active at steady to 5c lower prices, the close on October light and December mediums showing the reduction.

Light weights for October opened at $9.55 and closed at $9.50. September mediums sold at $10.85. Mediums for December opened at $9.15 and closed at $9.10, while $9.30 was paid for January mediums. During the last three weeks demand for winter contracts has been brisk. In that time 58 carloads of December and January hogs were sold, being about 60 per cent of the total number of contracts sold.

Cattle salesmen disposed of one of the largest supplies of the year without accepting concessions yesterday. Arrivals totaled 24,000, including 6,000 western range cattle. Demand again centered on highly finished light steers and yearlings at $12.50@13.00. About 55 yearlings averaging 1,015@1,035 lbs topped the list at $13.10, equaling the highest paid for cattle since June.

Lambs Attractive at $9.00.

All interests were on the market early in the day when an immense run of 35,000 natives and westerns made it possible to obtain choice lambs around the $9.00 line yesterday. There was a general movement of the record supply of natives toward the scales long before noon and few bands remained in first hands until the afternoon trade. Top natives brought $9.00@9.25 and westerns brought $9.15 and below.

Aged sheep and yearlings were scarce and unchanged. Feeders were scarce and in demand at $7.00@7.75.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 10,000 cattle, 22,000 hogs, and 27,000 sheep, against 6,229 cattle, 20,029 hogs, and 22,093 sheep on the previous Tuesday, and 13,469 cattle, 18,377 hogs, and 17,800 sheep a year ago.

CONTRACT LET FOR SECTION OF CHICAGO GAS LINE

Contracts for the construction of 113 miles of 24 inch high pressure natural gas pipe line have been awarded by the Continental Construction company to Henry Lemons, Inc., of Tulsa, Okla., Henry L. Doherty Co. announced yesterday.

The contracts are for part of the Texas-Chicago pipe line being built by Cities Service, Insull interests, Southwestern Development company, Standard Oil company of New Jersey, Texas corporation, Skelly Oil, Phillips Petroleum, and Columbian Carbon company to serve Chicago and the great lakes region.

Contracts for the Missouri river crossing, which will consist of ten 10 inch lines to be connected with the main trunk line on both sides of the river, have been awarded to Smith Brothers of Dallas, Tex.

Frank Phillips, president of the Phillips Petroleum company, said arrangements have been agreed upon for the Phillips Pipe Line company, a wholly owned subsidiary, to obtain an interest in the great lakes pipe line which will have its principal terminals at Omaha, Kansas City, Des Moines, Chicago, and Minneapolis.

Convertible 6% Gold Debentures

Dated August 1, 1930 — Due February 1, 1933

Interest payable semi-annually August 1 and February 1 at the principal office of the Trustee in New York, without deduction for Federal Income Tax not in excess of 2%, which may be lawfully paid at the source. Coupon Debentures in interchangeable denominations of $1,000 and $500, registerable as to principal only. Redeemable as a whole or in part at any time on 30 days' notice at 100 and accrued interest plus a premium of ½ of 1% for each full year of unexpired term. The Company agrees to reimburse Debenture holders residing in Pennsylvania, California, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Oregon, Washington, Connecticut, Maryland, Massachusetts, District of Columbia or Virginia for taxes levied by said States or District on the Debentures or income derived therefrom, properly paid by such holders, not exceeding the personal property or income taxes in effect therein on August 1, 1930, subject to provisions of the Debenture Agreement.

HIBERNIA TRUST COMPANY, NEW YORK, Trustee

Conversion Privilege: These Debentures are convertible at the option of the holder and subject to the provisions of the Debenture Agreement at any time after February 1, 1931 and up to but not after the tenth day prior to maturity, or, if called for redemption, at any time up to but not after the tenth day prior to the redemption date, at the principal amount thereof into Participating Class A Stock of the Company on the following basis:

After February 1, 1931 and on or before August 1, 1931 at $15.00 per share
Thereafter and on or before February 1, 1932 at $16.00 per share
Thereafter and on or before August 1, 1932 at $17.00 per share
Thereafter until the 10th day prior to maturity at $18.00 per share

No fractional shares will be issued but payment will be made for the same in cash on the conversion basis existing at the time of conversion.

The Company's Participating Class A Stock ($1.00 Cumulative Dividend) is listed on The Chicago Stock Exchange.

Business: Twin States Natural Gas Company, organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, owns and operates, either directly or through its subsidiary, Midland Natural Gas Company, natural gas properties totaling more than 57,000 acres in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky. There are on this acreage more than 450 producing gas wells, having a present daily production of more than 27,000,000 cubic feet per day, an open flow capacity of more than 87,000,000 cubic feet daily, and an estimated gas reserve of more than 340 billion cubic feet.

Over 90% of the gross income from the properties of the Company and of its subsidiary is derived from the wholesale distribution of gas under favorable contracts to several of the largest purchasers of natural gas in West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Kentucky, among which are the following:

Hope Natural Gas Co.
People's Natural Gas Company
Subsidiaries, Standard Oil Co. of N. J.
The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company
The Natural Gas Company of West Virginia
United Fuel Gas Company
Warfield Natural Gas Company
Subsidiaries, Columbia Gas and Electric Corp.

Carnegie Gas Company
Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company
Clendenin Gasoline Co.
Subsidiary, Union Carbide & Carbon Corp.
Monongahela West Penn Public Service Company
Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc.
West Penn Public Service Co.

South Penn Oil Co.
Equitable Gas Company
Subsidiary, Philadelphia Company
Hamilton Gas Company
Kentucky West Virginia Gas Co.
Subsidiary, Standard Gas & Electric Co.
Ohio Valley Gas Corp.
Montgomery Gas Co.
Subsidiary, Inland Utilities, Inc.
Columbian Carbon Company

The balance of the gross income is derived from the sale of gas by four subsidiaries of Midland Natural Gas Company to domestic consumers in Pennsylvania and West Virginia communities. Under the terms of the existing gas sales contracts, additional gas produced from presently drilled acreage will automatically have an immediate market.

| Common Stock (no par value) | 250,000 shs.* | 200,000 shs. |

* Subject to divisional liens in the amount of $754,670.  Further issuance of Debentures is limited under the conservative restrictions of the Debenture Agreement.  166,667 shares reserved for conversion of Debentures. * 40,000 shares reserved for the exercise of rights extended to holders of Participating Class A Stock.

Security: These Debentures are, in the opinion of counsel, the direct obligation of the Company, and constitute its sole funded debt, other than divisional liens in the amount of $754,670. Midland Natural Gas Company has outstanding $2,500,000 Convertible Debentures due 1935, and 116,887 shares of Participating Class A Stock, and with its subsidiaries has outstanding $1,033,780 of divisional liens. According to appraisals furnished by independent engineers, the combined properties have a sound value of $17,940,497. The Pro Forma Consolidated Balance Sheet as at May 31, 1930, adjusted to give effect to subsidiary financing subsequent thereto, to the additional properties acquired, and to current financing, discloses total assets of over $18,843,138. After allowing for all prior charges, together with the equity applicable to the Participating Class A and the Common Stock of Midland Natural Gas Company not owned by the Company, assets are equivalent to more than $3,500 for each $1,000 Debenture. Additional Debentures may be issued only under the conservative restrictions of the Debenture Agreement.

Earnings: Based on 1929 historical earnings, Clark & Krebs, Inc., Consulting Engineers, state that the properties of the Company and its subsidiary are at present, after operating expenses, all prior requirements, including interest and dividend charges, maintenance, depletion, depreciation and reserve for Federal Income Tax of Midland Natural Gas Company, but before Income Taxes of the Company, as more particularly set forth in the circular describing the issue, copies of which may be obtained on request, operating on a basis equivalent to an annual rate of 3.69 times the interest requirements on these Debentures.

Purpose of Issue: Part of these Debentures has been issued in connection with the acquisition of 91% of the outstanding Common Stock of Midland Natural Gas Company; the balance has been sold to provide funds to pay in part for additional properties, to provide funds for development, and for other corporate purposes.

Price 98¼ and accrued Interest to yield over 6.75%

These Debentures are offered subject to prior sale and allotment. Appraisals of gas properties by Clark & Krebs, Inc. Legal details incident to this issue have been passed on by Messrs. Chapman and Cutler, and Edward H. Tatum, Esq., of New York. Audits will be made by Barrow, Wade, Guthrie & Co. Definitive Debentures are ready for delivery.

News and Gossip of Stock Marts

Marking Time.

Most of the oil stocks seem to be marking time. There has been a great of uncertainty about this group in the last few months and the public has been unwilling to buy stocks except on decided weakness. Much of this uncertainty has been due to proration measures. Once the problem of overproduction is solved sentiment with regard to the oils will be immediately made more favorable. Improvement in the wholesale gasoline market is another possibility for the future.

Unusual Features.

The offering yesterday of American Mathis, Inc., stock has several unusual features. In the first place it is one of the first common stock offerings to be made since the crash in the market a year ago. Secondly, it is said to require considerable courage to bring out an entirely new car in our market at a time when the automobile industry is suffering from overproduction. It is unusual also in view of the fact that the company is appealing for funds directly, rather than through a bankers' selling group. The company plans to bring out a midget automobile of French design.

Resumes Operations.

It is said that the group which some months ago took hold of Dresser Manufacturing has resumed operations in the stock.

Revive Rumor.

A rumor, widespread a year ago, that the American Smelting and Refining company and the Kennecott Copper company were considering a plan to consolidate, has been revived in Wall street. At the offices of the American Smelting and Refining company it was stated yesterday that nothing was known there of such a proposal.

Sells at Peak.

Preferred stock of United States Steel corporation early yesterday sold at 148⅞, the highest price at which it has sold since it was issued in 1901. The senior stock of the world's premier industrial corporation at that level gives the investor a return of 4.70 per cent. This stock has an unbroken regular dividend record dating back to the time of organization of the company.

Insull Utility Rights.

Insull Utility rights expired last night, but will be honored today if the holder can give a reasonable excuse for delay in exercising them. The rights, which have been actively traded in on the Chicago exchange, entitled common holders to buy additional stock at $50 in the ratio of one share for each five held. Preferred holders got one new share of common for each eleven owned. Preferred rights closed yesterday at 7-16, while the last quotation on the common warrants was 1.

FINANCIAL NOTES

New financing for the Consumers' Power company takes place today with the offering of a $20,000,000 issue of first lien and unifying mortgage 4½ per cent bonds by a banking group comprising Bonbright & Co., the National City company, and Bankers' Company of New York. The bonds, which are of the 1928 series, due 1958, are priced at 101½ and interest, to yield over 4.40 per cent.

A $2,000,000 issue of New Orleans, La., 4½ per cent bonds, series C, due serially Oct. 1, 1932 to 1980, is being offered today by Halsey, Stuart & Co. and the First National Bank of New York at prices to yield from 3.75 per cent to 4.25 per cent, according to maturity.

CRUDE RUBBER USE INCREASES DURING AUGUST

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 15.—Consumption of crude rubber by American manufacturers increased in August, compared with July, but fell materially short of the figures of August a year ago. The Rubber Manufacturers association makes the total for last month 30,575 long tons. That compares with 29,245 long tons consumed during July, the increase figuring out at 4.6 per cent. The trade consumed 38,274 tons in August, 1929, and used 42,927 tons in August, 1928.

Imports of crude rubber into the United States during August totaled 34,558 tons, as compared with 34,084 tons in July. Imports during August, 1929, aggregated 38,292 tons, while those for August, 1928, totaled 29,805 tons. Imports of crude rubber during the eight months ended August amounted to 338,487 tons, compared with 401,051 tons during the corresponding 1929 period.

Business Personals

Official confirmation of the appointment of N. W. Jeran as general manager of the Chicago retail district of Sears, Roebuck & Co. was made yesterday by C. B. Roberts, assistant vice president in charge of central territory. Mr. Jeran, who has been sales manager of the Chicago district, will succeed T. J. Madden, who has left for Los Angeles to assume control of the combined southern California and Arizona districts. Mr. Jeran, who has been vice president of Becker-Ryan & Co., a Sears, Roebuck & Co. affiliate, also succeeds Mr. Madden as president of that company.

James E. Cairns, for a number of years connected with some of the leading La Salle street brokerage firms, has joined the Uhlmann Grain company.

Fred C. Marston, secretary and treasurer of Brooklyn and Queens Transit corporation, has been elected a director.

Universal Wireless Files Petition in Bankruptcy

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 15.—(AP)—Universal Wireless Communications Co., Inc., today filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in federal court here. Liabilities and assets were not listed. An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed against the company here and at Chicago some time ago and was opposed by the company. Today's petition was accompanied by a resolution of the board of directors, approving filing of the petition. This was understood to indicate opposition to the earlier petition would be withdrawn.

REPORT RUSSIA IS 'FIGHTING' U. S. IN WHEAT PIT

New York, Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Soviet Russia, according to reports in informed circles here, is eagerly seeking to "do its bit" toward furthering the business depression in America. Authenticated stories of the diversion of trade from the United States to Europe in an effort to force the establishment of diplomatic relations have been current for some time. Today it was said the Moscow government had been flooding the Chicago wheat pit with selling orders in a move to depress the world's grain market. These reports declared the soviet government had sold in the Chicago market last week wheat futures totaling approximately 15,000,000 bushels.

The persistent decline of the wheat market has been causing alarm throughout the world, and has brought financial hardship to farmers of this country, Canada, and in Argentina.

Efforts to confirm the report that Russia was selling wheat futures in the American market were not altogether successful, although there was no official denial made at Amorg Trading corporation, official soviet agency in this country.

Amtorg officials this afternoon refused to receive a TRIBUNE reporter or to issue any statement regarding the selling of grain futures.

Mortgage Foreclosure Against Kissel Is Asked

Milwaukee, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Application for foreclosure of a trust mortgage on the Kissel Motor Car company holdings at Hartford, Wis., was filed in federal court today by Melvin A. Traylor, of Chicago, trustee for holders of bonds issued by the company April 1, 1922. The bond issued was for $750,000 and the company granted a mortgage covering its plant, patents, formulas, and trade marks as security for the indebtedness. The unpaid balance on the issue is $523,100.

"Refuse Substitutes"?

Almost always, you know the advertised name.

You know what that name means, by past experience or because you have read the statements of the maker in newspapers and magazines.

What reason, then, has anyone to sell you something else—something offered as "just as good"—something with an unknown name and unknown quality?

Yet, if you do not watch, certain dealers will try it.

If you respect your own opinion, you will tell them gently and firmly, "No."

There is no advantage to you in buying an unknown article—even at a "bargain price"—because you have no way of judging its quality.

The dealer who attempts to sell such goods, does so simply because he hopes to gain an advantage in price or profit over other dealers who serve you with articles of standard quality, known to you by name.

Refuse substitutes; insist upon the advertised brand every time.

The publications in which you read about advertised articles insist upon knowing that all advertising statements are correct.

More than this, the manufacturer who seeks your good will through the printed pages knows that what he sells must give satisfaction—when he advertises, his whole hope of success is based upon winning and holding the good will of you and thousands of others like you.

PICTORIAL REVIEW believes that unknown substitutes rarely offer quality and purity as certain as you will find in known and advertised goods.

Because of this fact—because of a sincere desire to say a word for those stores which offer you articles of known quality—because PICTORIAL REVIEW wants to reach even more than the two and a half million families who are its regular readers—this frank discussion is published here.

The MURDER at the VICARAGE

BY AGATHA CHRISTIE

SYNOPSIS.

Mr. Clement is vicar of a country village in England. His wife, Griselda, is nearly twenty years his junior. The vicar's young nephew, Dennis, lives with them.

Col. Protheroe, a pompous parishioner, who makes life miserable for his daughter, Lettice, and his second wife, is expected at the vicarage at 6:15 one evening. At 5:30 the vicar is called to visit a dying parishioner and leaves word for the colonel that he will be late. On returning at 7 the vicar meets Lawrence Redding, an artist, who is living in a studio on the vicarage grounds, coming out of the house in an agitated state. The day before the artist and Mrs Protheroe had confessed to him their love for each other. In his study the vicar finds the colonel dead, murdered, apparently. No weapon is found. Dr. Haydock is called and he says Protheroe has been dead half an hour, and summons the police. A note, which the colonel started to write to the vicar, is headed 6:20. A clock, overturned when the colonel fell forward, stopped at 6:22, but it was always kept fifteen minutes fast.

Lawrence Redding and Mrs. Protheroe both confess to the murder.

Miss Marple, whose house adjoins the vicarage, saw Anne Protheroe going to the vicarage about 6:15. From there she went to the studio. She carried no handbag and had no place to conceal a weapon. Redding came along shortly after and joined her at the studio. They came out about twenty minutes later and walked toward the village.

Lawrence and Anne admit they had confessed the crime thinking the other had committed it. Lawrence said he had come back to see the vicar, after leaving Anne, and had found his pistol and thought Anne must have taken it.

Three people heard a shot, which they thought came from the woods, the evening of the murder—the vicar's maid, Miss Marple, and Mrs. Price Ridley, who lives near the vicarage.

Mrs. Lestrange, a newcomer in the village, who had called on Col. Protheroe the night before he died, sends for the vicar. Inspector Slack calls while he is there. The inspector is questioning everybody as to their whereabouts the evening of the murder.

INSTALLMENT XXVI.

THE INQUIRING INSPECTOR.

As I went out I ran into Haydock on the doorstep. He glanced sharply after Slack, who was just passing through the gate, and demanded:

"Has he been questioning Mrs. Lestrange?"

"Yes."

"He's been civil, I hope?"

Civility, to my mind, is an art which Inspector Slack has never learned, but I presumed that, according to his own lights, civil he had been; and anyway I didn't want to upset Haydock any further. He was looking worried and upset as it was. So I said he had been quite civil.

Haydock nodded, and passed on into the house, and I went on down the village street, where I soon caught up with the inspector. I fancy that he was walking slowly on purpose. Much as he dislikes me, he is not the man to let dislike stand in the way of acquiring any useful information.

"Do you know anything about the lady?" he asked me, point blank.

I said I knew nothing whatever.

"She's never said anything about why she came here to live?"

"No."

"Yet you go and see her?"

"It is one of my duties to call on my parishioners," I replied, evading to remark that I had been sent for.

"H'm, I suppose it is." He was silent for a minute or two, and then, unable to resist discussing his recent failure, he went on: "Fishy business, it looks to me."

"You think so?"

"If you ask me, I say 'blackmail.' Seems funny, when you think of what Col. Protheroe was always supposed to be. But there; you never can tell. He wouldn't be the first church warden who'd led a double life."

Faint remembrances of Miss Marple's remarks on the same subject floated through my mind.

"You really think that's likely?"

"Well, it fits the facts, sir. Why did a smart, well dressed lady come down to this quiet little hole? Why did she go and see him at that funny time of day? Why did she avoid seeing Mrs. and Miss Protheroe? Yes, it all hangs together. Awkward for her to admit—blackmail's a punishable offense. But we'll get the truth out of her. For all we know it may have a very important bearing on the case. If Col. Protheroe had some guilty secret in his life—something disgraceful—well, you can see for yourself what a field it opens up."

"Has he been questioning Mrs. Lestrange?"

I suppose it did.

"I've been trying to get the butler to talk. He might have overheard some of the conversation between Col. Protheroe and Lestrange. Butlers do sometimes. But he swears he hasn't the least idea of what the conversation was about. By the way, he got the sack through it. The colonel went for him, being angry at his having let her in. The butler retorted by giving notice. Says he didn't like the place, anyway, and had been thinking of leaving for some time."

"Really."

"So that gives us another person who had a grudge against the colonel."

"You don't seriously suspect the man—what's his name, by the way?"

"His name's Reeves, and I don't say I do suspect him. What I say is, you never know. I don't like that soapy, oily manner of his."

"I'm going to question the chauffeur now."

"Perhaps, then," I said, "you'll give me a lift in your car. I want a short interview with Mrs. Protheroe."

"What about?"

"The funeral arrangements."

"O!" Inspector Slack was slightly taken aback. "The inquest's tomorrow—Saturday."

"Just so. The funeral will probably be arranged for Tuesday."

Inspector Slack seemed to be a little ashamed of himself for his brusqueness. He held out an olive branch in the shape of an invitation to be present at the interview with the chauffeur, Manning.

Manning was a nice lad, not more than twenty-five or six years of age. He was inclined to be awed by the inspector.

"Now, then, my lad," said Slack, "I want a little information from you."

"Yes, sir," stammered the chauffeur. "Certainly, sir."

If he had committed the murder himself he could not have been more alarmed.

"You took your master to the village yesterday?"

"Yes, sir."

"What time was that?"

"Five-thirty."

"Mrs. Protheroe went, too?"

"Yes, sir."

"You went straight to the village?"

"Yes, sir."

"You didn't stop anywhere on the way?"

"No, sir."

"What did you do when you got there?"

"The colonel got out and told me he wouldn't want the car again. He'd walk home. Mrs. Protheroe had some shopping to do. The parcels were put in the car. Then she said that was all, and I drove home."

"Yes, sir."

"What time was that?"

"A quarter past six, sir. A quarter past, exactly."

"Where did you leave her?"

"By the church, sir."

"Had the colonel mentioned at all where he was going?"

"He said something about having to see the vet—something to do with one of the horses."

"I see. And you drove straight back here?"

"Yes, sir."

"There are two entrances to Old Hall, by the south lodge and by the north lodge. I take it that going to the village you would go by the south lodge?"

"Yes, sir, always."

"And you came back the same way?"

"Yes, sir."

"H'm. I think that's all. Ah! here's Miss Protheroe."

Lettice drifted toward us.

"I want the car, Manning," she said. "Start her for me, will you?"

"Very good, miss."

He went toward a two seater and lifted the bonnet.

"Just a minute, Miss Protheroe," said Slack. "It's necessary that I should have a record of everybody's movements yesterday afternoon. No offense meant."

Lettice stared at him.

"I never know the time of anything," she said.

"I understand you went out soon after lunch yesterday."

She nodded.

"Where to, please?"

"To play tennis."

"Who with?"

"The Hartley Napiers."

"And you returned?"

"I don't know. I tell you I never know these things."

"You returned," I said, "about seven-thirty."

"That's right," said Lettice. "In the middle of the shemozzle. Anne having fits and Griselda supporting her."

"Thank you, miss," said the inspector. "That's all I want to know."

"How queer," said Lettice. "It seems so uninteresting."

By ROBERTA NANGLE.

Believe it or not, here's a picture about Uncle Sam's marines that won't shock your grandmother or your aunt from Dubuque! If you think that all leatherneck—ers are like the hard boiled eggs immortalized on the screen by Messrs. Lowe and McLaglen, you're wrong, for here's a marine comedy without a single censorable line.

The defenders of our country as seen on the screen at the Woods are all nice, well mannered boys. Their comedy is mild, and so, too, is their necking. One of them borrows a captain's uniform to impress the pretty, but slightly dumb daughter of a wealthy Englishman. The lady falls for him and he falls for her, but his fellow warriors spoil it all by telling the girl that he's wearing medals that don't belong to him.

Is our hero the "love 'em and leave 'em" sort? Not at all. This, apparently, is real love, and when his girl leaves him he suffers from what looks like a permanent heart break. After a shipwreck and a few other almost disastrous complications, however, things smooth out toward a happy finale.

Ken Murray, Ned Sparks, Benny Rubin, Fred Santley and Eddie Foy Jr., are all capable and fairly comic in their rôles as marines. Louise Fazenda brightens things considerably as a cooing little southern gal who insists on being the life of the party. Lilyan Tashman also is present in the sophisticated type of rôle she does so well. Her clothes, as usual, are too lovely for description.

The picture throughout is pleasant entertainment that always promises to be funny, but never waxes funny enough. Maybe marines can't be comic if they have to be respectable.

"DOUGHBOYS."

Produced by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.
Directed by Edward Sedgwick.
Presented at the State-Lake theater.

THE CAST:

|---|---|
| Elmer | Buston Keaton |
| Mary | Sally Eilers |
| Nescopeck | Cliff Edwards |
| Sergeant Brophy | Edward Brophy |
| Svendenburg | Victor Potel |
| Gustave | Arnald Korff |
| Captain Scott | Frank Mayo |
| Abie Cohn | Pitzy Katz |
| Lieut. Randolph | William Steele |

Buster Keaton fans are having a grand time watching the sad faced little comedian at the State-Lake theater this week. They gurgle at his antics and applaud and yell when he pulls himself through several breathtaking escapes from bombs and hand grenades.

It's another war comedy [they'll have to stop these pretty soon], with Buster playing the rôle of Elmer Stuyvesant, the painfully shy and awkward son of a millionaire. In search of a chauffeur Elmer blunders into a recruiting office thinking it's an employment agency. He gets socked into the army and immediately becomes the sharpest thorn in the sergeant's side.

If you like Keaton's comedy you'll enjoy this one, which is reminiscent at times of "Shoulder Arms." It's not another "Shoulder Arms" to me, however, because Buster Keaton is not another Charlie Chaplin. His comedy does have a tinge of that priceless Chaplinesque pathos, but it lacks the divine spark with which Chaplin's is so richly endowed.

Cliff Edwards, the Ukulele Ike of stage fame, is a good addition to the cast, and so is Edward Brophy as the tough sergeant. Keaton fans won't be disappointed in this vehicle, judging from the way it's being received by the customers at the State-Lake.

Ambassador Morrow Says Good-by to His Friends in Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow and Mrs. Morrow this afternoon bade adios to Cuernavaca and their week-end home, where they have enjoyed many happy days and where Col. Charles A. Lindbergh paid his court to Anne Morrow.

The ambassador and his wife are returning to the United States, where he will begin his campaign as Republican candidate for senator from New Jersey.

Their farewell ceremonies were simple, Mr. Morrow called on the governor and exchanged courtesies. As a parting act, Mr. and Mrs. Morrow distributed toys to two dozen children among their neighbors.

400 Polish Union Delegates Commence Sessions Here

Four hundred delegates of the Polish Union of the United States opened their seventeenth convention here yesterday with a tour of the city and a short address by Emil Malinowski, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., president. The delegates represent 40,000 Americans of Polish descent. Sessions will be held the rest of the week.

"We are trying to prevent unfavorable propaganda being spread about Poland in this country," said Mr. Malinowski. "As a republic governed by women as well as men, Poland with a population of over 30,000,000 is now too powerful a country not to be reckoned with by the world."

The delegates opened yesterday's program with mass at St. Casimir's Roman Catholic church. Later a wreath was laid at the statue of Abraham Lincoln in Lincoln park.

Several Royal Visitors in London for "Little Season"

LONDON, Sept. 15.—(AP)—What is known as "Lodon's little season" is bringing several royal visitors within the next few days.

Queen Victoria of Spain is coming with her two daughters. Queen Maud of Norway will arrive with the crown prince and his wife, and they will spend some time at Queen Maud's permanent residence near Norfolk.

Papal Legate Here on His Way to Omaha

The Most Rev. Peter Fumasoni-Biondi, apostolic delegate to the United States and archbishop of Dioclea, was a visitor here a few hours yesterday. He was on his way from Washington, D. C., to Omaha, Neb.

Allied Veterans' Envoys Cheered by New Yorkers

F. I. D. A. C. Delegates Arrive for Convention.

New York, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Representatives of ten nations and the city of New York extended a cosmopolitan welcome today to 105 foreign delegates to the annual congress of Fidac, Federation Interalliée des Anciens Combatants, [Interallied War Veterans association] who arrived on the liner Lancastria.

The municipal tug, Macom, escorted the liner up the harbor to its pier where the delegates, some in civilian clothes and others in colorful uniforms, assembled under their national flags to receive the greeting of representatives of the allied nations.

A three day program of festivities has been arranged for their stay in New York. On Wednesday night they will leave for Washington to attend the business sessions.

Fidac is made up of service groups of nine foreign nations and the American Legion, representing more than 8,000,000 ex-service men.

Among the leaders of the foreign delegations were General Sir Ian Hamilton, vice president of the British group; Lieut. Col. William Abbott, president of Fidac; Lady Spencer Churchill, chairman of the British women's delegation and aunt of Winston Churchill, and Princess Cantacuzene, head of the Roumania women's group.

Gen. Hamilton, who is 77 years old, was in supreme command of the Gallipoli offense in 1915-'16. He also is a veteran of the Boer war. He said his experiences had made him "a man of peace."

"Since the World war," he said, "I probably have unveiled more war memorials than any other man, and at these unveilings have seen so many blind and crippled veterans, orphans and widows, and have seen how they looked while watching the ceremonies, that it gave me a turn against war."

Two Leave for Europe to Boost World's Fair

"Progress, but No Cancer Cure Yet," Doctor Warns Public

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 15.—(AP)—Regret that the public is deluded from time to time with announcements that cures for cancer have been found was expressed today as 300 X-ray specialists, physicians and surgeons from 41 states opened a three day postgraduate school session.

"Constant progress is being made in knowledge of the disease and therefore in the ability to diagnose it accurately," said Dr. Joseph S. Ames, president of Johns Hopkins university, in an address. "But, so far as I am aware, the decrease in fatality, as shown by hospital records, comes entirely from two sources, radiation in the case of certain types and earlier recognition of the disease so that operations may be effective.

"I wish it were possible for the public to recognize fully this fact and not be deluded by false hopes."

Opening the session, Dr. Joseph Colt Bloodgood, director of the research fund bearing his name and sponsor of the meeting, said there has been "a tremendous and startling" increase in the number of cures of cancer of the bone since 1913, based on the records at the surgical pathological laboratory at Johns Hopkins.

Developing increased accuracy in X-ray diagnosis and spreading that skill is the primary object of the course, the expense of which was borne by the chemical foundation, it was announced.

No longer need patients living far from the great medical centers spend hundreds of dollars to visit the clinics staffed by experts, Dr. Bloodgood said at the evening session. "Their ailment can be diagnosed as readily and accurately if they mail X-ray photographs to the clinics," he explained.

950 New Students on Evanston Campus of Northwestern

New Student week at Northwestern university opened yesterday with the arrival in Evanston of 950 freshmen, of whom about 400 are women. Early arrivals indicated an increase in enrollment of about 20 per cent.

Following the convocation in the university chapel, addressed by President Walter Dill Scott, the new students were divided in groups of 12, each under the guidance of an upperclassman.

Registration of the freshmen is to be held on Thursday, with the upper classmen registering on Friday and Saturday. Classes begin next Monday in Evanston, while the law, medicine, and dentistry schools on the downtown campus open a week later.

At a meeting of trustees during the day it was announced that plans practically have been completed for the new $1,000,000 Charles Deering library on the Evanston campus. Construction is expected to begin soon.

A STRAIN ON THE FAMILY TIE

THE STAGE

The Theater Guild is sending to Chicago a lecturer who is willing to address any organization of play-going potentiality on the subject of Bernard Shaw. This mission, of course, is linked up with the propaganda for the Guild's staging of Shaw's "The Apple Cart" at the Blackstone, beginning Oct. 6. Maurice Colbourne is his name; and he qualifies for the job as an Oxford graduate, an actor [he appeared in the Guild's production of Shaw's "Saint Joan"]; and author of a book called "The Real Bernard Shaw." If any Shaw anecdotes remain untold, he will tell them.

The week of Oct. 13 looms up before the first-nighters of New York as crowded with impressive premières. Its schedule now runs as follows:

Monday night: The openings of Maxwell Anderson's "Elizabeth the Queen," staged by the Theater Guild with Alfred Lunt and Lynne Fontanne in the central rôles; and of "Chic" Sale in "Hello Paris."

Tuesday night: The openings of Ethel Barrymore in Julia Peterkin's "Scarlet Sister Mary"; of Jane Cowl in Wilbur Daniel Steele's "When Hell Froze"; and of Richard Bennett in "Solid South."

Wednesday night: The opening of "Three's A Crowd," containing the first "Little Show" stars—Fred Allen, Clifton Webb and Libby Holman.

Friday night: The opening of Jane Cowl in Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night."

And as if that wasn't enough, George M. Cohan's "A Well-known Woman" and Frederick Lonsdale's "Canaries Sometimes Sing" may be thrown in for good measure.

The Apollo theater, which was in use for seventeen weeks of hot weather and dramatic drought with "Sisters of the Chorus," is now closed pending the arrival of "Young Sinners." The première of that play is definitely fixed for Sept. 28. Until this week there had been some uncertainty about it.

Jane Cowl is now acting the rôle of Viola in "Twelfth Night" in Boston, six years after her notable success in "Romeo and Juliet." Her treatment of the comedy contains some innovations in Shakespearean staging. For example, read this excerpt from the review by H. T. Parker in the Boston Transcript:

"The rising curtain disclosed inner hangings fancifully decorated with the likeness of a sea coast; in an upper corner the legend: 'This is Illyria.' These, parting, revealed an inner platform some six inches in height occupying perhaps two-thirds of the stage. At the rear of it stood a closed book. Out pranced the clown and turned back the cover to reveal the title page, all lettered with: 'Twelfth Night, or What You Will.'"

Eva Le Gallienne's New York Civic Repertory company will begin its new season Oct. 6 with "Romeo and Juliet." Jacob Ben-Ami and Egon Brecher are the leading men of this organization.

On Oc. 20 Miss Le Gallienne will give "Siegfried," by Jean Girardoux, its American première. This play was one of the hits of the Paris season of 1928. Its characters are types of the Franco-German frontier; its time is directly after the world war. Miss Le Gallienne is using a version by Philip Carr. "Siegfried" will probably be staged in Germany next winter by Max Reinhardt.

Frank Craven, of "The First Year" and other simple, charming comedies of American life, has contributed to the Broadway playbills a new piece of his authorship called "That's Gratitude." It contains neither murders nor sexly misdemeanors; and yet it appears to be a complete hit. The Brooklyn Eagle calls it: "The first play of the season that it is easy to recommend to all kinds of theatergoers." C. C.

Eighth Illinois Cavalry Rides in Hearts of 3

Others of 1,184 Mustered Out by War, Time.

BY KATHLEEN M'LAUGHLIN.

Three are all that's left to form a company—that's what they called them in the old days, even in the cavalry—but you can't have much of a reunion of the Eighth Illinois cavalry with only three to answer roll call, even in Memorial hall at Randolph and Michigan. Since Comrade George Perry, 90 years old, died last summer at his home in Sycamore, there isn't going to be any sixty-fifth annual reunion.

Not that the glorious old Eighth is actually disbanded. But the gaping rows of vacant chairs, and the too generous spaces of the hall that now toss back at them the quavering echoes of their old voices lifted in the songs that once roared lustily up to the rafters waken too many memories. Too many gentle ghosts walk there.

So the faded old flags have been furled for the last time. The records will remain closed. Finis is being written to the gallant regiment that on Oct. 18, back in 1861, rode up Pennsylvania avenue in Washington, past the White House where they paused to give three rousing cheers for Abraham Lincoln; the regiment that the President, watching them, dubbed in his own quaint phraseology, "Farnsworth's Big Abolition Regiment."

They were eleven hundred and eighty-four strong that day, mounted but without carbines or sabers. John F. Farnsworth, who recruited them, largely from Chicago and Evanston, at Camp Kane, St. Charles, Ill., was elected first colonel of the regiment. He had reason to look upon them pridefully.

Throughout the years of those reunions at Memorial hall, those who came back from the war recalled respectfully the gallantry of their officers, of Col. William Gamble, Majs. John L. Beveridge, William H. Medill (a brother of Joseph Medill, publisher of THE TRIBUNE), George A. Forsyth, and James D. Ludlam; of Capts. Reuben Cleveland and Dennis J. Hynes.

Its members knew action at Sugar Loaf mountain and Boonesboro, Antietam, Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, Gaines Mill, Chester Gap, Poney mountain, Mechanicsville, Falling Water, Raccoon ford on the Rappahannock and numerous other places. They fought guerrillas during the winter of 1862-'63, helped to repel the invasion of Lee into Maryland, were in the heat of things at Gettysburg, and after the assassination of Lincoln participated in the search for John Wilkes Booth.

Those who remain of the regiment that was mustered out of service at Benton Barracks, St. Louis, in June of 1865 and returned to Chicago for final payment and discharge are J. R. Duff of Dundee, Henry Eichfield of Milwaukee, and C. W. Blatherwick of Chicago. Comrade Duff was captain of the vanished post.

BEG YOUR PARDON

Municipal Court Judge Alfred O. Erickson writes in to protest an editorial published in THE TRIBUNE of Saturday, Sept. 13. It read in part that Judge Erickson "was roused from his bed after midnight Tuesday to approve bail for two men held for vagrancy by Judge Lyle, who had fixed the bail at $20,000. Judge Erickson overruled Judge Lyle, though he is of the same court, and fixed the bail at $100. Then he approved a bond which the following day was found to be fraudulent." In his letter Judge Erickson writes: "The facts about my approval of the Alderman and Condi bonds are greatly distorted. I did not fix the bonds at $100. They were fixed by Judge Lyle at $20,000, on the complaint of vagrancy." He goes on to state that the property was scheduled by the surety, Anselmi, at $140,000, and that Anselmi "was not on the blacklist. . . . . It was my duty to approve the bond." [Editor's note: See editorial in today's paper.]

Kenneth Olson, 1916 North Rockwell street, was not sent to the Children's Memorial hospital because of ill treatment from his father, Clarence, as was published in THE TRIBUNE, Sept. 11 and 12, according to Mr. and Mrs. William A. Mandelkow, of Elmwood Park, his aunt and uncle. The child was injured by a poisonous insect which developed into an abscess, they said yesterday.

Portrait of Ideal Man Too Perfect for Everyday Living

BY DORIS BLAKE.

Joseph H. Pursifull, LL. B., presents still another portrait of the ideal young man to the long gallery already held up to women for analysis or dissection.

In his book, "Twelve Considerations for Marriage" [Christopher Publishing house] the following word picture of the perfect one is offered:

"The Ideal Man: He is a man who is possessed of an admirable and genial mixture of a strong and healthy body, well balanced sanity, sound judgment, conservative intelligence, sentimental fondness [not the fickle variety], easily controlled sexual appetite, strong desire for fatherhood, exalted moral ideas, attractive personal appearance, intellectual attainments superior to the woman he wants to marry, firm religious convictions, deep interest in respectable occupation, and ability to see and admire many of the like qualities in the woman he thinks he loves."

That, my sisters, is considerable of an order to put in and expect to be filled to the letter, would you not say? Quite a partner to have to live up to, eh wot?

Even the author of the ideal being reserves a suspicion that for common everyday companionship he might get on a girl's nerves. His own perfection might easily make a disgusting egotist out of him, Pursifull concedes. There is a suggestion that the ideal might even be a mythical person, as:

"It may be that this mythical being will realize so strongly his sterling qualities that idealism in him will be supplanted by a disgusting egoism, in which event he will pass by the ideal woman and select one from whom he can demand everything and give just as little as possible."

Reason enough, we say, for turning that portrait to the wall without any further consideration of him.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

He Needs Assurance.

"Dear Miss Blake: The fellow I love doesn't seem to love me any more. It's because I never showed him I cared. Please advise.

"BROKEN HEARTED."

Hope for the Best.

"Dear Miss Blake: The fellow I love only asks me for a date once a week. Does he love me? R. M."

Seeing you once a week shows he is fond of you. There is the possiblity he may learn to love you, if you continue to see him.

Fine Sea Lion Stranded; Goes to Buenos Aires Zoo

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.]

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 15.—Scientific collections in Buenos Aires were enriched today by two extraordinary finds. A sea lion nearly six feet long and of unusual bulk was found alive stranded on the municipal bathing beach at Olives, a suburb. It was successfully captured and taken to the zoo of Buenos Aires. It is believed it wandered this far north fleeing severe storms recently raging in southern seas and became stranded on account of a sudden fall in the River Plate this morning as the result of wind of almost hurricane force which is known here as the pamperos.

Workmen excavating for a new building for the school of philosophy and letters of Buenos Aires university in the residential section of the city found a fossil of an unusually large glyptodent, those giant armadillos which were numerous on the pampas many thousands of years ago.

The fossil was found at a depth of 35 feet. It measures six feet long and stood more than three feet high. The fossil, well preserved, was taken to the National History museum.

It's Constitution Week.

With the 143rd anniversary of the signing of the United States constitution to be observed tomorrow, all public schools yesterday started a week's study of freedom as granted under the constitution.

NOW! Impart Color to Gray Hair

GRAY hair is a business and social handicap that you can now overcome without taking chances with uncertain methods or fussing with messy, sticky preparations.
Now science has discovered a liquid as colorless as water itself—yet it actually imparts color to Gray Hair—no matter what your age—no matter how gray you are—no matter what the cause of your Gray Hair. It is called Kolor-Bak. It is as easy to use as combing your hair. You simply comb Kolor-Bak into your hair and the Gray goes so naturally that even your friends cannot tell that you are using anything. The beautiful sheen of your hair is left unchanged. Strange as it sounds, the very same bottle of this colorless liquid does for Blonde, Black, Brown, or Auburn. Already hundreds of thousands of bottles have been used. So sure are its amazing results that it is sold on a guarantee that if it doesn't make you look 10 years younger your money will be refunded any time you ask.

California Wins More Patrons for Its Winter

BY THALIA

California's charms seem to be impressing more Chicagoans annually with its desirability as a place of residence for any or all seasons of the year.

The latest addition to the colony of Chicagoans owning property there are Mr. and Mrs. Clive Runnells. They recently acquired a ranch in the vicinity of Santa Barbara, with a view to spending a great part of their time in the future there. Mr. and Mrs. Runnells arrived in Chicago yesterday, having been in the west all summer, and are to remain here for only five or six weeks before returning to occupy their new premises. They are now in their apartment at 2440 Lake View avenue, which they plan to lease for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Mitchell, who were among the first Chicagoans to settle, as it were, in California, and whose estate on Palm drive in Santa Barbara is one of the show places of the region, are arriving on Thursday of this week. The James Ward Thornes, whose mansion high on a mountainside overlooking Montecito valley and the Pacific ocean was completed a year or so ago, are expected to return within the next few weeks, and others who will return before Oct. 1 include the Joseph T. Ryersons and the Charles Garfield Kings. The John A. Stevensons of 1430 Lake Shore drive, who also have spent the summer in Santa Barbara, already have returned.

The engagement of Miss Victoria Goodrich Williams, daughter of Mrs. Charles R. Williams of Oak Park, to Gratiot Washburne, son of Mrs. Hempstead Washburne of 1411 North State parkway, is to be announced today at a luncheon to be given by Miss Williams' sister, Mrs. William W. Hoover, at the latter's residence in Glen Ellyn.

Mr. Washburne was graduated from the University of Virginia in 1912, and served in the world war, as did his brothers, Clarke and Hempstead Jr. His father, the late Hempstead Washburne, was mayor of Chicago in 1891-1893, and he is the grandson of the late Elihu Washburne, who was secretary of state in 1869 and United States minister to France in 1871. The wedding date has been set for Oct. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Lamson are giving a tea dance at their Hubbard Woods residence to present their daughter, Miss Virginia Lamson, this afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock. The debutante's elder sister, Mrs. Warner Washburne, is to assist in receiving, and there will be the usual bevy of assisting debutantes. Miss Lamson is to continue her studies at Pine Manor, Wellesley, Mass., this winter.

Junior league members who met yesterday afternoon to hear of the children's theater plans for this season included Miss Helen Tieken, who is manager of the theater; Miss Margot Atkin, who is in charge of the subscription drive; Mrs. John J. Finlay, treasurer; Miss Angela Johnston, business manager of the children's plays; Miss Katrina Mauff, Mrs. Stanley Waring, Miss Dorothy Schmidt, president of the league; Miss Marianne Stevenson, Mrs. Barton Gebhart, and Mrs. Wilbur Smith.

Having gone through the process of consultations, specifications, and poring over plans that inevitably precedes house building, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Hodges are now anticipating the breaking of ground for their new house sometime next month. It is to be on Westminster road near Green Bay.

Mrs. Charles Edward Brown and her daughter Betty have returned from a visit with Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. William G. Deshler, at Southampton, L. I. Mr. Brown returned two weeks ago from a short stay with his family, and Miss Betty is to sail on Sept. 25 for a winter's schooling at Miss Nixon's in Florence, Italy.

Dr. and Mrs. Otho Fisher Ball of 1335 Astor street have returned from Virginia Hot Springs, where they have been for the last month. Their daughter, Mrs. Quintin Gilbey of London, and her small son, Robin, who joined them in the east, have come on with them for a Chicago visit.

Mrs. George R. Nichols Jr. of 1550 North State parkway and her sons, George R. J. and Frank, are to return next Sunday from Watch Hill, R. I., where they have been for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Pike have returned from summering at Bar Harbor, Me., and are to be at their Lake Forest place for about a month before coming in town for the winter.

The Chauncey B. Borlands, who have been at Camden, Me., since their return from Europe in early June, are back in Chicago, and their daughters, Miss Harriet and Miss Beatrice Borland, have set forth for a trip around the world.

MISS ELIZABETH ROSE BORN.
[Underwood and Underwood Photo.]

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar R. Born of Bornleigh, Glencoe, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Rose, to Albert Stein, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Stein of 5490 South Shore drive. Miss Born attended Mount Vernon seminary in Washington, D. C., and Mr. Stein is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. No date has been set for the wedding.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, Sept. 15.—[Special.]—Miss Cornelia Brady Kip, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William V. B. Kip, will be married tomorrow in the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, to Mr. John Walton Livermore, son of Mrs. Channing W. Hare.

Judge Lindley M. Garrison, who is arriving Wednesday on the Paris, will have an apartment at the Berkshire.

Ex-President and Mrs. Coolidge are spending a few days at Mr. Adolph Lewisohn's summer camp in the Adirondacks, Prospect Point, Upper Saranac, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Donald Ferguson of Englewood, N. J., sailed on the Britannic for England. They will spend a month motoring through England and Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rhinelander II. and their children, Miss Le Brun C. Rhinelander and Master Oakley Rhinelander, returned from Europe on the Belgenland.

Mrs. Paul Moore is giving a tea Wednesday at her country place, Hollow Hill Farm, Convent, N. J., for Miss Mary Wills Vanderpool, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wyanant Davis Vanderpool, whose marriage to Mr. William Watts Cochran, son of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Cochran of Lawrenceville, N. J., will take place Thursday.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—[Special.]—President and Mrs. Hoover have with them their two sons, Herbert Jr. and Allan.

Former Secretary of State and Mrs. Frank B. Kellogg, who have made a short visit in Washington, left this evening for New York. They will return to St. Paul later this week.

The British ambassador, Sir Ronald Lindsay, has gone to Newport to be the guest for a few days of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt to witness the finishing races for the America's cup.

Miss Marian Hope, daughter of the assistant secretary of the treasury and Mrs. Walter E. Hope, will be presented to society by her parents, first in New York and a little later in Washington.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, accompanied by her brother, John Bolling, who was with her all summer in Maine, left last night for Des Moines to visit Mrs. Edwin T. Meredith, widow of the former secretary of agriculture. Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, wife of a senator from Virginia, who has been on the west coast, will join the party at Mrs. Meredith's.

The commercial secretary of the British embassy, Leander McCormick-Goodhart, has joined his wife and his mother at Hot Springs, where they went a week ago.

Imagination and Skill Needed in Training Children

By GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

Do you remeber a few months ago the miracle that had happened in Death valley? Death valley, so named because of the toll of deaths it had taken and because of its arid vegetationless soil, had blossomed into a luxuriant flower garden. One couldn't read the recital without getting a thrill. For years these seeds had been there, the soil was fertile—all it needed was the God-given rain which, after twenty years, fell with its magic power.

Don't you sometimes feel that we—adults and children—are somewhat like that valley? Potentialities of character within us just waiting for the proper nourishment: talents within us just waiting for the understanding, developing atmosphere.

We have all seen children with a great capacity for love thwarted in its natural expression by undemonstrative matter of fact parents—not unloving parents, but ones who did not accept what their child was able and eager to give. And we have all seen boys with abundant physical vitality living in a home of "proper" people—feet on upholstered chairs, slammed doors, hearty gestures, good he-man language, all of these which are their natural expression, taboo.

It is difficult for love to grow if it is not watered. It is difficult for energy to find an outlet if the atmospheric conditions are a continual damper. The first may result in a cold and repressed personality—the latter in a defiant boy "agin" society, or a cowed one.

If only we had the imagination and skill to be as "the gentle rain of heaven" to our young children until they could grow into their own particular type of fruition!

Small Painting Bought at $55 Called Work of Rubens

New York, Sept. 15.—[Special.]—A remarkable little painting by Rubens, its true qualities hidden for years beneath layers of overpainting applied by some picture doctor whose aim was to improve on the work, has just emerged from oblivion here. The painting is a study for "The Madonna Rosary" in the Leningrad museum. The study, valued by authorities at close to $25,000, was bought six months ago by Julius H. Weitzner of New York for $55. The subject painted on oak panel, 17 by 13 inches, was first noted in a small auction room in West 58th street, where, according to Mr. Weitzner, it had drifted from the collection of Edward Bacon of New York.

Washington Gets Library of Shakespeare

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—(AP)—Swinging over a new roof, close to the library of congress, a derrick today set the last stone on the Shakespeare library, posthumous contribution of Henry Clay Folger to national culture.

The corner stone was laid in May. Folger died in June. The blue prints of the architect still show a luxuriously appointed private suite which was to have been for Mr. Folger, a New York Standard Oil capitalist.

Overalled workmen on the ground, manipulating the roof derrick, remarked on the "queer spelling" cut into the Georgian marble, and on the lack of scene shifting possibilities in a tiny theater built in the east wing for presentation of plays under the direction of Elizabethan scholars.

In the skyscraper era, with its gigantic tools, they have been building a $1,500,000 Shakespearean shrine, dating back, in many of its appointments, to the reign of Elizabeth.

The building's sheer white marble sides have been broken only by engraved quotations, and plaques on which will be sculptured scenes from Shakespeare's plays.

Mr. Fogler had ordered three comments upon Shakespeare carved on the front of the structure:

"His wit can no more lie hid. Then it would be lost. Reade him therefore: Againe, and againe."—John Heminge, Henrie Condell.

"Thou art a moniment without a tombe. And art alive still. While thy booke doth live. And we have wits to read. And praise to give."—Ben Jonson.

Folger mentioned only his priceless collection of 20,000 Shakespearean volumes in early announcements of his gift to the capital city.

But a scholar closely acquainted with his books today said the collection included close to 75,000 volumes. Illustrative of the literary gems which will sparkle in the plain setting of the new building will be a first collected edition worth $100,000; a Quarto play, "Pericles," valued at $32,000; a "Much Ado About Nothing" for which Folger paid $21,000; an "Othello" worth $10,000, and "Sonnets" market priced at $10,500.

Under administration of Folger's alma mater, Amherst college, his entire collection will be made available to scholars with the completion of the library some time next year.

High Voltage X-Ray May Have Curative Powers Like Radium's

Pasadena, Cal., Sept. 15.—(AP)—A new giant X-ray tube, which designers believe will have healing powers which cannot be surpassed by use of radium, has been developed at the California Institute of Technology here.

The tube, measuring 10 feet in length and 12 inches in diameter, was designed and developed by Dr. C. C. Lauritsen and his associates. Dr. Robert A. Millikan, noted physicist, acted in an advisory capacity.

In appealing to physicists to devise a more powerful X-ray tube, Dr. Rollin H. Stevens of Detroit, secretary of the Radiological Research institute, recently said: "We now produce X-rays of from 6,000 to 250,000 volts, and if we went to 300,000 or 400,000 volts we could get practically radium rays from an X-ray tube and we know results would be much better. But we cannot go that high, for we lack the tubes to stand it."

MEXICAN METHODIST CHURCH FOUNDERS IN SESSION AT CAPITAL

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Native Methodist delegates from a dozen Mexican states arived here today for the first combined Methodist church conference ever held in Mexico, tomorrow. The Methodist Church of Mexico will be formally founded, a bishop selected, and foreign aid and influence in establishment of Methodism in Mexico will begin to disappear.

The outside delegates include Bishop Francis J. McConnell of New York, F. S. Wallace of Altadena, Cal., and Miss Julieta H. Know of Pittsburgh, representing the Methodist church, and Bishop W. A. Chandler of Atlanta, the Rev. F. S. Onderdonk, and Judge M. A. Childres of San Antonio.

The Rev. C. P. Goddard of Nashville and Mrs. W. J. Piggott of Irvington, Ky., came here July 7 and the following day after four conferences worked out the details for turning over Methodism in Mexico to natives.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Haley of 3359 South Western boulevard announce the engagement of their daughter, Esther Elizabeth, to Dr. Herbert Francis Parker. Dr. Parker is a graduate of the Chicago Dental college and a member of Psi Omega. The marriage will take place on Oct. 6, the date of the bride's parents' and grandparents' wedding anniversary, at St. Agnes' church.

Playing Miniature Golf.

It happened the first time I played miniature golf. At the last hole I was the last one of our group to play. Others behind me were waiting for us to finish so, of course, I was nervous and couldn't get the ball in the hole as soon as I should have done.

Then, on top of that, when I did sink the ball in the last hole, I reached down to get the balls out. Imagine my embarrassment when every one started laughing at me. How was I to know the balls rolled into a box and couldn't be reached? Never again! F. G.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

ANNA P.: WHITEHEADS DO not press out so easily as blackheads. Often a sterilized needle is necessary to express the contents. Daub on peroxide and gently massage with a good cold cream.

J. H.: A SLUGGISH INTESTINAL tract will soon give rise to pimply eruptions. Eat plentifully of fruits and vegetables. Drink from six to eight glasses of water daily. Also get some exercise in the open air daily. A three or four mile walk is excellent.

Small, Tight Fitting Hats and Berets Call for Unlined Brows

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

It is understood from fashion hints that the beret will have a big run this fall, and other tight fitting, small hats will subject the face to frank exposure.

Now is the best time to start to catch up with the style and have the face, especially the brow, calm, smooth, and unlined. It's going to take considerable ironing out of lines to make the perfect counterpart for the tight little, shallow crowned millinery.

These last summer weeks one had sufficient occasion to observe what the beret does to the face that is not youth boastful. They're snappy little pieces of headgear, and comfortable and handy for travel—but they're not always the kindest thing a woman can apply to her face. Not only do lines show up more clearly with the unshaded headpiece, but the chin and throat are exposed a bit brutally.

Since woman will not insist on the fashion in hats coming to her need, she must make her face, chin, and throat meet the style. The shading brim was a kind thing for a goodly number of faces, softening hard lines, and veiling facial discrepancies. But brims, like fat, seem part of another era now, and current hat wearers must meet the emergency in woman's own sensible way, which is improving the face.

It can be done—and in an amazing way. The actual change in a face observed directly by me in a month's time proves what a little care morning and night will do in a brief time. Of course if wrinkles are deep set and of long standing, that's another story.

But I'm speaking of early lines, especially those over and around the eyes, and that beginning thickness under the chin. These can be covered up in a comparatively short time just by consistent daily—morning and night—massage, followed with cold water dashes. You do not have to have great massage skill. It's becoming conscious of the habits that cause frown lines and underchins for one thing, and secondly, stirring up the circulation with massage strokings, pattings, and giving the needed stimulation with an astringent.

Wool and Silk Gowns Worn for Shopping

For first fall shopping expeditions and luncheon dates many fashionable women are wearing suits of light weight wool and silk materials. The hats worn with this satisfactory type of street costume are usually the same color and frequently an attractive color note is introduced with the matching of blouse and hat or hat trimming in one of the new shades. Miss Katrina Mauff, seen in one of the popular lunching places on North Michigan avenue, wore a black wool suit and a blouse of apricot colored crêpe matching the grosgrain trimming of her black felt hat. Mrs. Stanley Zaring, who accompanied her, was in a black satin frock with a yoke of white crêpe. With this she wore a black and white draped turban and a silver fox scarf.

Miss Virginia Amberg, taking luncheon with a group of friends at the Woman's Athletic club, was wearing a suit of black crêpe, belted, and with capelets over the sleeves. A small bow at the side of her black felt beret was of the same turquoise blue as her blouse, which had tabs around the collar and down the front.

New Styles Put Their Chic in Their Pockets

BY BETTINA BEDWELL.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS.—[Special.] — After having left us for some seasons without any pockets at all, Paris fashions are giving us pockets big enough to carry all our smart excess baggage. Pockets, both decorative and practical, are a leading feature of the new styles. They are placed on the hips. Sometimes they go in pairs; sometimes there's only one. On daytime dresses they're comparatively small and are incorporated in the general trimming scheme of the frock, but on coats they grow to almost pannier proportions.

Huge patch pockets of flat fur add dash to many an afternoon coat, while fabric pockets with fur trimmed flaps on sports coats are big enough to hold a whole tool kit.

The Lyolène coat sketched today owes much of its charm to its flaring, shield shaped beaver pockets. It's of one of the new velvety surfaced monk's cloths in dark brown, cut so as to accentuate the tapering line from shoulders to waist, where a two inch belt of itself pulls it tight. Large beaver puffs on the lower sleeves echo the line of the pockets.

The coat is collarless, but has a separate scarf collar of the beaver worn loosely knotted in front and with two little tab ends to decorate it in back. A perfectly simple collarless frock of the brown monk's cloth in a lighter weight accompanies this frock. You know the textile creators have made a great point this year of different qualities of the same material to be used in different parts of the ensemble. Note the length of th coat, 10 inches from the floor, for it is Paris' latest daytime level.

Food Talk.

Are you familiar with curry and its unlimited possibilities? It is worth knowing.

Why not learn to make curries that linger in the memory? There is nothing mysterious about them. They are only condiments adding savor to flavorless foods. The ingredients of curries are spices with which almost all of us are familiar. Capsicum, caraway, cardamon, cinnamon, celery, chillies, cloves, coriander, cubeb, cummin, fennel, fenugreek seed, garlic, ginger, mace, black and white mustard seed, nutmeg, black pepper, long pepper, pimiento, poppy seed, tumeric, lime or lemon juice constitute the materials that may go into curries.

Curries are classed under three heads—Madras, Bengal, and Bombay. Madras is one of the best all around curries—the one by which all connoisseurs stand.

6 drams cayenne pepper.
¼ oz. cloves.
4 oz. best China tumeric.
1 oz. black pepper.
½ oz. shelled cardamon seed.
2 drams caraway seed.

Reduce the whole to a very fine powder in a mortar. Mix well and keep in a tightly corked bottle.

If you have not become acquainted with curries, try them. You have much pleasure in store for you, whether you make the powder yourself or purchase a small bottle. It is retailed in all of the best groceries.

CURRIED BEEF.

1 lb. beef.
4 tablespoons butter.
1½ teaspoons curry powder.
1 cup meat stock.
1 chopped apple.
½ cup chopped celery.
½ cup chopped carrot.
1 teaspoon salt.
1 tablespoon sugar.
1 teaspoon lemon juice.
2 tablespoon sultana raisins.

Cut onions into thin slices and fry them to a yellow color in the butter. Sprinkle them with curry powder and fry a little longer. Trim meat carefully, removing skin and gristle. Cut it up and put into a saucepan with the stock and the rest of the ingredients. Let simmer for several hours so gently that scarcely any movement is noticeable. The whole secret of good curry is in this long, slow cooking. It cannot be made in a hurry. Serve with rice separately.

"Invaluable" Say Lovely Women

© 1929, M.-G. Co.

"MELLO-GLO Face Powder is preferred by beautiful women because it leaves no trace of flakiness, pastiness or irritation," says Dorothy Flood, Ziegfeld star, noted for her beauty. Stays on longer—no shiny noses! Made by a new French process— prevents large pores. Spreads more smoothly—gives a youthful bloom. Very pure. Use MELLO-GLO Face Powder. It's wonderful.

GUARD THAT well-groomed smile

ANIMATION IS PERSONALITY—an attractive smile is one of the best assets any man can have. And how surely it depends upon healthy teeth and gums! But how will you decide the best way to care for yours? You notice so many conflicting theories. You see dozens of different dentifrices. What is right? * * E. R. Squibb & Sons asked a leading research institution to tabulate the opinions of 50,000 dentists. Read the summary of the replies received:

95% of the answers stated that germ acids most frequently cause tooth decay and gum irritation.

85% stated that the best product to prevent these acids from causing decay and irritating the gums is Milk of Magnesia.

Squibb Dental Cream is made with more than 50% Squibb Milk of Magnesia. Surely this is strong evidence that Squibb's will protect your teeth and gums. * * Use it regularly. Squibb's cleans safely and thoroughly—without the use of grit or astringents or anything which might injure enamel or gums. It is especially refreshing before and after smoking.

Wheel Chair Would Help.

"I am a paralytic and am writing to you to ask for a wheel chair. I am visiting in Chicago and would like so much to have one. MRS. M."

This invalid's visit will be a pleasanter and more interesting one if she has a wheel chair to perambulate about our beautiful city. If you have one which is not being used, may she not have it during her stay here?

FOUR POCKETBOOK REASONS

WHY YOU SHOULD BUY YOUR USED CAR FROM THE STUDEBAKER SALES CO.

1. We have the greatest selection of used cars under one roof.
2. Every one has been reduced over $200.
3. Our time payment plan is unusually liberal.
4. Every car is sold on the basis of 5 days' free driving trial.

LINCOLN SPORT TOURING. Here is an expensive car at a very reasonable price. Painted an attractive two tone Brewster green, and equipped with radio, trunk, five wire wheels, bumpers, etc. Motor is 100%. Only $345.

HUDSON BROUGHAM. 4 dr. 5 pass. finished an attractive blue. Has thousands of miles of unusued transportation, and the equipment includes spare tire, bumpers, etc. Reduced to $150.

MARMON SEDAN. Late model 8. This car is in magnificent condition today. Every feature of the upholstery, finish, tires, and motor will please the most exacting buyer. There is a wealth of extra equipment. Will not remain long at $450.

STUDEBAKER BROUGHAM. 1930 Commander 8 that was only driven a few thousand miles. It's finished a smart Canary yellow with black trimming. It's in such good condition that it carries a new car guarantee. Has wire wheels, trunk, fender wells, and every essential extra. Offered at an exceptional savings.

CADILLAC SEDAN, 1927 model 314. Was owned by an actor and actually was used very little. It's a beauty and is equipped with shock absorbers, bumpers, spare tires, etc. This car was traded in at a low figure, and we're willing to pass on the saving to you. $650.

STEARNS-KNIGHT COACH. This car must be seen to be appreciated. The motor runs smoothly and quietly and the upholstery, tires, and finish are O. K. $95.

CHRYSLER COACH. With many extras. The finish is bright and shiny and the upholstery and tires appear unworn. Motor is okay. Priced at $145 for quick sale.

NASH CONV COUPE. 1929 series "400" with a spacious rumble seat. This car is in exceptionally fine condition throughout. 4 whl. brakes, snubbers, bumpers, etc. $495.

PACKARD LIMOUSINE. Str. 8, inclosed drive limo. that was owned by a wealthy family and given exceptional care. Equipped with Westinghouse shock absorbers, 4 whl. brakes, one-shot lubricating system, etc. A real bargain at $195.

WILLYS KNIGHT SEDAN. If you are in the market for a late model you cannot get a better bargain than this car. It's the last word for beautiful appearance and spirited performance. Attractive finish, expensive upholstery that looks new. Tires have little mileage. Equipped with 4 whl. brakes, snubbers, bumpers, spare tire, etc. Special for $545.

STUDEBAKER SEDAN. Spec. 6. From the standpoint of appearance and performance this car will satisfy you in every respect. The tires, finish, and upholstery are in splendid condition. $65.

ERSKINE SEDAN. 1929, that was oiled and greased every 500 miles, so it's in wonderful shape now. Appearance is very attractive and the equipment includes 4 whl. brakes, shock absorbers, bumpers, spare tire, etc. $395.

ESSEX COACH. Late model, with brand new tires, 4 whl. brakes, shutter front, bumpers, etc. The finish, upholstery, and motor are in the original new condition. $165.

DODGE SEDAN. A school teacher owned this car and she gave it very good attention. We checked over the motor, equipped the car with new tires, and priced it unusually low for quick sale. $295.

STUDEBAKER ROADSTER. 1929 President 8 that you will be proud to own. The finish is bright and gleaming and the motor was checked over, so now it's 100%. Very good tires and the upholstery does not show any signs of wear. 4 whl. brakes, shock absorbers, wire wheels, etc. Spacious rumble seat. Specially priced at $850.

AUBURN 8 SEDAN. 1929, that was owned by a wealthy family in conjunction with three other cars. This Auburn was driven very little so it is in new car condition today. $795.
